Love that alters is but hate.
Born of selfishness, and lasting
Only whilst it can create
Food for its fruition, wasting
When its appetites abate!

Love that alters is but hate.

Born of self-idness, and lasting
Only whilst it can create
Food for its fruition, wasting
When its appetites abate!

Alter!—Thou wilt find my love
Changeless still—a bird that cageth
Wiffilly, though urged to rove;
Which no prison bar enrageth,
Tempted by nor fruit nor grovo!

Science versus Hymen.—The Lancaster and
Carlisle Railway is now opened throughout, and as it constitutes the route to the far-famed Gretna, if the electric telegraph should be adopted by the directors on that line, elopements would become almost impracticable. What an enemy science is to romance and love! And what a shame that young ladies who are kind enough to go a hundred miles out of their way to make a man happy, should, like mere mice, be thus snared and caught by wires! To establish the telegraph in the south may be all well enough, but to carry it to Carlisle—the last stage to Gretna—the very vestibule to bliss—is an encroachment which oughts never to be permitted. It would be directing the Galvanic battery of science against the rerest temple Hymen has. It would destroy the little romance of life which still lingers in a manufacturing age, and would take this method of returning his sincere thanks to his friends for the liberal support that he has received during the last fourteen years in business, as well as to inform them that having visited London last winter, and Boston and New-York this summer, he has entered into new transgements, by which he will be regularly supplied with every description of WATCHES, leaved the will be sold lower than at any other establishment in this City.

It would alse who are kind enough to go a hundred miles out of their way to make a man happy, should, like mere mice, be thus anomaly and adjusting Natuical Instruters and complete and adjusting Natuical Instruters and co

The late Mr. Nathaniel Hone, of Harcourtstreet, Dublin, left behind him the large property of £274,000 and four thousand pounds per annum. The deceased gentleman made a most generous and judicious will, in which he bequeathed something to every individual of the name of Hone, all of them being relatives. To no one person did he leave an enormous bulk of money; but several have been benefitted by sums ranging between £10,000 and £60,000. Mr. Hone lived to the advanced age of 90—some say two or three years would have made him a centenarian.

Copy of a Letter from His Grace the Durk or Pontland to Mrs. Ann Melish, (one of his Tenants,) whom this Grace was pleased to send as a tention of the Health of the Proprietor of this Extraordinary Medicine.

SUBJECT TO BUT ONE DISEASE. Viz: corrupt humors, and that the said medicines when the cure is complete; I will understand the sense on NATURAL PRINCIPLES, (Signed) SCOTT PORTLAND.

SUBJECT TO BUT ONE DISEASE. viz: corrupt humons, and that the said medic. ecures this disease on NATURAL PRINCIPLES, by cleansing and purifying the body; it will be manifest, that if the constitution be not entirely exhausted—a perseverance in their use, according to directions, is absolutely certain to drive disease of every name from the body.

When we wish to restore a swamp or morass to fertility, we drain it of the superabundant waters; in like manner. if we wish to restore the body to health, we must cleanse it of impurity.

The Indian Vegetable Pills will be found one of the best, if not the very best, medicines in the world for carrying out the GRAND PURIFYING PRINCIPLE, because they expel from the body all morbid and corrupt humors, the cause of disease, in an eway and NATURAL MANNER, and while they every day disease of every name is radially driven from the body.
