

CHAUNTAUQUA IN SAINT JOHN HAS GOOD INAUGURAL

Excellent Programs Given in Large Tent Off Charlotte Street

Swathmore Chautauqua opened its ninth season in Saint John on Saturday with remarkably fine musical programs and a demonstration lecture on the art of interior decorating that was a vivid and pleasing presentation of artistic ideals easy of achievement. The big tent has been pitched for this season on the grounds back of the Unique Theatre which have their entrance directly opposite the Admiral Beatty Hotel on Charlotte street. The situation is the most convenient that has yet been chosen.

Fred L. Scheyer is the capable superintendent and when he was introduced by Timothy O'Brien at the spoken program on Saturday, he spoke briefly, recounting the good things in the way of entertainment that Chautauqua would offer during the week and explaining Chautauqua ideals. He specially stressed the junior work and its influence in laying the foundation of good citizenship. Miss Alta Reinhold, the junior superintendent, in a few words appealed for co-operation in making the junior work a success. The juniors are to meet every morning and on the last afternoon of Chautauqua's stay the juniors will give a special program of stunts, Virginia reels and pageants. The Lowell Patton Company of musicians gave the entire program on Saturday afternoon. The members of the company are Lowell Patton, pianist, Gault Patton, baritone, and Leslie Huot, tenor, and each is a very gifted artist. Every number of their varied program was delightful and rendered with a sincerity and sympathy which won unstinted applause. The trio of musicians appeared again at the opening of the Saturday evening programme. The two vocalists were heard in three songs by John Massfield, with music by the Lowell Patton Company. They were costumed picturesquely for their part and the blending of their voices was exceptionally pleasing. Lowell Patton was heard in his own arrangement of "The Rosary." He displayed great versatility and gave brilliant renditions. Baritone solos, "Evening Star," from Tannhauser, and "Marches" were great favorites with the audience and the tenor solos which followed included a selection from Rigoletto, "Roses of Picardy" and "The Dream," by Masson. An encore was insistently demanded and Mr. Huot sang that delightful selection "Where My Caravan Has Rested." The closing number of the musical programme was the duet, "All Alone."

ROSS V. CRANE, an outstanding authority on interior decorating, whose book on that subject has been adopted for study by the American Federation of Women's Clubs, called his lecture demonstration "Painting Pictures With Words."

On Sunday evening a largely attended vespers service was held in the big tent when city clergymen assisted in the opening devotions and the superintendent, Mr. Scheyer, presided. Familiar hymns were heartily sung and the service closed with a most impressive depiction of the life of Christ in music by the Lowell Patton artists. Afternoon and evening programs are to be given throughout the remainder of the week and each morning the juniors will have their interesting sessions.

PAIR DROWNED IN MONTREAL

Plunged Into 15 Feet of Water and Were Unable to Swim

MONTREAL, July 4.—Rita Lafrance, 18, and Roland Demers, 19, both of Montreal, were drowned in the St. Lawrence River today when they plunged into fifteen feet of water and failed to come to the surface. Neither of the victims could swim and it is thought that they were unaware that the river was deep at that spot. The bodies were recovered.

Police were informed that a family of 30 persons had gone out in the morning to spend the day picnicking. After lunch the young man and girl said they were going to bathe. They both plunged into the water near the spot where their relatives had settled for the day. Their parents waited in vain for them to rise to the surface.

Maurice Gervais, 18, a cousin of the victims, dived several times, but was unable to locate them and was finally forced to give up the search. The bodies were recovered shortly afterwards by the police.

CONSECRATION OF DUCK COVE CHURCH

Capacity is Exceeded by Number Gathered For Service on Sunday

The picturesquely situated Anglican church at Duck Cove, St. John in the Wilderness, was consecrated yesterday by His Lordship Bishop Richardson at a most impressive service. The church will accommodate about 100 persons and it was filled to capacity, while a second congregation gathered outside the building to join in the service.

Rev. H. T. Buckland attended the Bishop's chapel at yesterday's service. W. E. Anderson met His Lordship at the door of the church and read the petition asking that the Bishop consecrate the church. When the solemn and impressive order of consecration service had been followed, the Bishop read with appreciation to the generosity of Mrs. Anderson in giving the land for the church and also with commendation of the co-operation of the rector and congregation of the Good Shepherd church.

Mrs. W. R. Hibbard was the organist for the service and directed the choir, which was composed of the younger residents of the Cove.

Mr. Ben L. Sheppard and Mr. Richard Cheeseman left on Friday for a vacation trip to Grand Manan.

Miss Catherine Sheppard left on Saturday for a two weeks' vacation. She will visit friends at different points on the Saint John River.

Mr. David Redstone is visiting friends on the Saint John River. He will be the guest of his parents at Fredericton Junction before returning home.

Miss Beattie E. Holder, teacher in the Waterloo street manual training school left on the Montreal train on Sunday for Oswego, N. Y. Miss Holder will take a summer course at the New York State Normal school which were Mrs. Andrew Jack, Mrs. Sherwood Skinner, Mrs. F. J. Harding, Mrs. John W. ## FOOD for a Most Strenuous Sport

Grape-Nuts Goes Along on the Canoe Trip For the Energy it Gives

THE canoe trip, with its daily grind of muscle-straining, steady paddling, its long portages carrying canoes and equipment over the most strenuous vacation spot. Surely a sport which calls for a properly conditioned body—a properly energized body.

And food must supply energy. Every day the canoeist must renew his energy by the foods he eats. How important then, that he pack into the precious space in his canoe only the most highly nourishing and energizing food.

Canoeists choose Grape-Nuts first—for these good reasons:

Grape-Nuts is a power food—a food which gives the body an abundance of the most valuable energy-giving nourishment. And Grape-Nuts supplies this nourishment almost at once, for the special milling and baking process by which Grape-Nuts is made, prepares it for easy digestion. The two healthful grains, whole wheat and malted barley, combine in Grape-Nuts to give dextrins, maltose and other carbohydrates for energy; iron for the blood; phosphorus for healthy teeth and bones; protein to build sturdy muscles and body tissues; and the vitally essential Vitamin-B. Grape-Nuts is a crisp food—so delightfully crisp that you want to chew Grape-Nuts, thus giving healthful exercise to your teeth and gums and also aiding digestion.

The kind of food the canoeist needs for his trip! But isn't Grape-Nuts the kind of food you need, too—to carry you successfully through your hard days? Ask for Grape-Nuts at your grocer's today. Sold in wax-wrapped packages ready to eat. Four teaspoonfuls, costing less than one cent is sufficient for each helping. Serve with milk or cream. Or try Grape-Nuts free, if you wish, by taking advantage of the offer below.
