All Goes Well So Far at Conference

Turks Accept Allied Note in Principle—General Harington Issues Reassuring Bulletin—Russia Appears—More Time For Refugees to Get Away From Smyrna.

Constantinople, Oct. 4.—The Turkish Nationalists have accepted in principle the allied note regarding the Near Eastern settlement, it was announced here today.

A communication issued by General Harington, British commander in chief, says the Mudania conference is proceeding satisfactorily, and that Ismet Pasha, Nationalist representative, has received orders to the Nationalist troops to avoid all contact with the British troops.

Russia Looms Up. Constantinople, Oct. 4.—Russia loomed on the horizon today for the first time as likely to prove an important figure in the settlement of the Turkish problem.

Should he succeed in this, it is said, he will at the same time attempt to abrogate the treaty made with the Soviet foreign minister, M. Tchitcherin, in Moscow, on March 16, 1921, which permits the Soviet and the Black Sea countries to share in the control of the straits.

Many of Kemal's advisers have no objection to the Russian-Turk alliance, and feel that it is time to repudiate an agreement which has ceased to be useful to the Kemalists.

EX-CHANCELLOR ADDRESSES U. S. BANKERS

McKenna Suggests a Postponement of Payment of Debts to U. S. Except by Great Britain.

New York, Oct. 4.—Definite postponement of any payment of the debts owed the U. S. by European nations, with the exception of Great Britain, until the actual amount which such nations could ultimately pay has been determined by conferences was suggested by Rt. Hon. R. McKenna, former chancellor of the British exchequer, in an address before the American Bankers' Association convention here today.

He also gave as his opinion that Germany might be able to pay as reparations in the immediate future about one million dollars derived from the foreign balances and the sale of foreign securities. Such a payment, he asserted, would be possible only if other demands were postponed for a definite period, long enough to stabilize the mark. Future demands at the expiration of that period, he said, must be limited to the annual amount of Germany's exportable surplus at that time.

The speaker, who is chairman of the London Joint City and Midland Bank Limited, gave his views on the economic aspects of reparations and international debts, how they are payable, the general capacity of a debtor country to pay and the effect of payment.

While he said that he was not in politics and did not appear in any representative character, as a British banker, he argued that Britain has the capacity to pay her debt to the U. S. and, he continued, "I am unhesitatingly asserting her determination to honor her bond in full." The remaining international debts, he said, should be considered as ones in which the U. S. and Great Britain were equally concerned and in which both had the same interest as creditors.

VENIZELOS IN APPEAL TO THE U. S. RE THRACE

The joint allied note to Kemal was dispatched on Sept. 23, from Paris, signed by Premier Poincaré for France, Lord Curzon for Great Britain, and Count Storoz for Italy. In it the three allied governments invited the Ankara assembly to a conference at Venice or elsewhere "with plenipotentiaries of Great Britain, France, Italy, Japan, Roumania, Jugoslavia and Greece, with the object of negotiating and concluding a final treaty of peace between Turkey, Greece and the allied powers."

Regarding the terms of such a treaty the note stated: "The three governments take this opportunity to declare that they view with favor the desire of Turkey to recover Thrace as far as the river Maritsa and including Adrianople."

The note promised the willing support of the three governments to the drawing of a frontier line on this basis on condition that the Ankara government did not send armies into the neutral zones during the peace negotiations. The note decided it would be understood that steps would be taken in drawing such a treaty to safeguard

Full Amnesty To Irish Irregulars

Surrender Arms by Oct. 15, Says Proclamation by Free State

Hopes to Restore Peace Without Further Bloodshed—Many Opponents Not Ranged Against Them by Will—Allegiance Clause of Constitution Adopted by a Large Majority.

Dublin, Oct. 4.—It was in the hope of restoring peace without further bloodshed that the Irish government offered full amnesty to all offenders who surrendered their arms by Oct. 15, says a proclamation by this effect, issued yesterday.

The document sets forth the government's knowledge that many persons have been forced to participate in rebellious actions "against their will and better judgment, while others have been misled by the promises of their leaders to throw in their lot with the majority of their countrymen and to withdraw from this rebellion with immunity for themselves."

The Irish parliament is making an expectedly smooth and rapid progress in the debate in committee on the draft of the constitution. The draft is progressing in accordance with the formula contained in the Anglo-Irish treaty adopted by a large majority in its original form. Attempts were made to amend the oath to meet the objections of anti-treatyists and laborites, but these were rejected after brief debate.

The adoption of clause 17 is regarded as removing the last obstacle to giving the treaty form of law and as insuring that the constitution will be ready for submission to the British parliament for ratification at the coming autumn session.

Dublin, Oct. 4.—Captain Walsh was killed and several soldiers were wounded yesterday when irregulars made a fierce attack on the National forces near Caher.

Police Court. A case against Harry Doherty and Guy McIntyre, charged with destroying furniture, was taken up this morning. Mrs. Hatfield, keeper of the boarding house in which the alleged destruction occurred, told of the damage done and Detective Biddiscombe told of making the arrests. They were remanded until this afternoon.

A case against Lottie McAdam, charged with being the keeper of a disorderly house on Long Wharf, and Eva Morris and Lizzie Normandy, charged with being inmates was taken up. Sergeant Sullivan, Policeman Sheehan and McBrien told of making the arrests and of the conditions they encountered. Mrs. Annie Garrett and Mrs. Elizabeth Veniot told of recent disturbances there and of drinking and disorderly conduct. The magistrate reminded the women that they were liable to nine months in jail and remanded them.

Charles Dupuis, charged with being drunk and using profane language, was fined $8 or two months in jail on the first charge and $8 for profanity. Policeman Quinlan said the accused had called at the police station in an intoxicated condition and made a complaint about people stealing from him and was placed under arrest.

A BIG YEAR AT DALHOUSIE. Halifax, N. S., Oct. 4.—Registration of students, which closed last evening at Dalhousie University, has this year broken all records. Six hundred and eighty-six are enrolled and some sixty late comers are expected, giving a total of 750. That is about fifty more than last year.

FEAR FLOODS IN BENGAL HAVE TAKEN THOUSANDS OF LIVES. London, Oct. 4.—(Canadian Press)—A Reuter cable from Calcutta says it is evident from reports by passengers arriving by the first through train from Darjeeling in eight days that the recent floods in northern Bengal have taken a terrible toll of life. It is impossible to estimate the extent of the disaster at present but by the fact that an important junction point was for days inundated by five to ten feet of water while crowded with refugees from surrounding villages which had been completely destroyed, it seems probable that in the whole affected area several thousand persons have been drowned.

APPOINTMENTS IN PROVINCE

New Shediac Magistrate—Miss Gilbert Resigns as Kings Registrar of Probates.

(Special to Times) Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 4.—The resignation of Miss Mabel S. Gilbert as registrar of probates for Kings, is accepted, to take effect November 1.

The following appointments are gazetted:—Alexander A. Doucet of Green Point; Albert A. Doucet of Elm Tree, and Mathieu J. Thibodeau of Berdorf, to be Justices of Peace; M. H. Levesseur of Bellefleur to be parish court commissioner for Berdorf, with civil jurisdiction therein; Frank A. Keth of Havoclock; Edward H. Vickers of Sussex; Frank Smith of Annapolis and George King of Smith's Creek, to be Justices of the Peace; S. H. Flewelling to be chairman of the Hampton Consolidated School in place of J. Edward Angeline, whose term of office has expired.

Arthur Nelth, of the National League club, was named to officiate at this. The morning the betting odds were at 11 to 10 on the Yankees.

Arthur Nelth, left-handed pitcher star of the Giants, was in shape for mound duty, while Huggins announced that he had selected Bush to oppose him. Willie Schang was to work behind the bat for the Yankees and Snyder was McGraw's backstop today.

Bill Klein, chief of National League umpires, was assigned to call strikes and balls at the National League club, having won the toss, will be the "home team." Hildebrand of the American League, was assigned to duty at the ball park at Montreal.

Club officials expected a capacity crowd. The Polo Grounds is large enough to accommodate 40,000 spectators. The lower tier of the great horsehoe stands has been reserved and all seats are sold. The upper tier will soon for 22,000 of the fans, has been left open for those buying tickets at the gate today.

At dawn this morning there was the customary line of early bleachers, standing patiently in a crooked line that ran from the ticket windows down the square.

In Places at 10 O'Clock. At 10 a. m. these fans found places in the upper stands, and lunched on frankfurters and peanuts of which there seems to be an ever-increasing supply. The fan who held first place in the line had been holding that position since 4:30 yesterday afternoon. At midnight there were thirty in the line. By sunrise the arrival of early risers had swollen the number to several hundred and throughout the early morning the line continued to grow steadily.

By the time the ticket windows were open there were several thousand participants in the hush for favorite bleachers seats. Once inside the grounds these early enthusiasts were comfortable and contented. While munching peanuts they started the usual arguments on the game—weighed the ability of the opposing players and fought the best known games of the season over again.

Some of them declared that the Yankee infield—Dugan, Scott, Ward and Pipp—was the greatest in baseball, and that it would stop anything the Giants put on the ground. Others asserted that McGraw's infield careers—Groh, Bancroft, Frisch and Kelly—were equally good.

And so it went, until the teams were ready to parade across the field, and engage in the usual limbering-up exercise. Then the parade of the officials, including Mayor Hyland and the governors, former governors, Commissioner Landis, the white-headed boss of the national pastime, and the band.

Yankees Favorites At Eleven To Ten

Nehf for Giants Against Joe Bush in World Series Opener

Fans in Best Bleacher Seats at 10 O'Clock This Morning—Thousands Early at the Gate Seeking Admission—Weather Good—Giants at Home and Klem Chief Umpire.

(Canadian Press) New York, Oct. 4.—John McGraw's Giants, National League pennant winners were ready today to engage Miller Huggins' American League champion Yankees, in the first game of the world's series. The day dawned slightly cloudy and cool but there was every indication at 10 a. m. that the opening game would be played under a fair sky.

The Yankees, because of a great pitching staff composed of "Bullet" Joe Bush, "Savior Bob" Shawkey, the youthful Walter Hoyt and the dependable Jones, are rated best by a majority of the experts, but the Nationals are ever fighters and at their best when against odds, and though their pitchers on paper do not appear well as those of Huggins, they are a dangerous lot.

This morning the betting odds were at 11 to 10 on the Yankees.

Arthur Nelth, left-handed pitcher star of the Giants, was in shape for mound duty, while Huggins announced that he had selected Bush to oppose him. Willie Schang was to work behind the bat for the Yankees and Snyder was McGraw's backstop today.
