

RECENT WEDDINGS

Ellis-MacRae

The marriage of Miss Maude A. MacRae and Howard J. Ellis was solemnized at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. S. S. Poole, of the German street Baptist church on Thursday afternoon, November 10, in the presence of a few friends. The bride looked charming in a gown of brown velvet, with hat and veil to match, and wore squirrel furs. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis left for a short wedding trip. They will take up their residence for a short time at Mac's Bay, and later will return to St. John.

Fanjoy-Brooks

At the home of the bride's parents, Miss Mildred Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brooks, Hayland (N. B.), and W. Clement Fanjoy, correspondent of the Dominion Express Company, of this city, were united in marriage by Rev. J. A. Woodworth on November 7. Mr. and Mrs. Fanjoy will reside in the city.

RECENT DEATHS

A highly respected citizen of this city, R. B. Emerson, of the firm of Emerson & Fisher, Ltd., died at an early hour morning. He is survived by his daughter, the late Alexander, and three sons and one daughter. The sons are—Stanley L., of St. John; C. Sydney, of Belvidere (Sask.), and H. Walter, of St. John. One daughter, Mrs. George H. McCallum, of Ottawa, also survives and was present when the death occurred.

Robert Bickelike Emerson was an outstanding figure in the business life of the city, but he always found time to devote to helping others. He was born in 1848, the son of the late William Emerson and Margaret Emerson. He received his early education in the city schools, and in 1870 set up in business for himself as tinsmith. In 1878 a partnership was formed between himself and W. Shivers Fisher, and today there is no more well-known firm throughout the province than Emerson & Fisher, Ltd. In 1905 the firm moved into the present building in German street.

The late Mr. Emerson always took an active interest in the community life, having been president of the board of school trustees for several years and president of the board of trade for a number of years. At the time of his death he was president of the Natural History Society, and probably the last social function which he attended was to preside at the banquet given in honor of Dr. George F. Matthews. The late Mr. Emerson was seventy-three years old at the time of his death. The notice of the funeral will be given later.

James E. Fuller

Windsor, Nov. 9.—On Wednesday, October 23, there passed to rest at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Thomas Chase, Windsor, James E. Fuller, aged eighty-two years. He had been ill for three years.

Mr. Fuller is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Chase and Mrs. Robert Waycott, St. John (N. B.), and one sister, Mrs. William Webster, of Canning (N. S.); also twelve great-grandchildren and twelve great-grandchildren. The funeral service was conducted at the house by Rev. F. S. Kinky, and by the Rev. Mr. Spurr at the grave. The body was taken to Hantsport for interment at River Bank cemetery.

Cheap American Shoes!

GOOD SHOES TO COST $3.50 AND $4.00 SOON?

Boston, Nov. 9.—The era of high shoe prices is practically ended and in the near future it will be possible to purchase good shoes for $3.50 and $4. L. Q. White, president of the L. Q. White Shoe Company of Bridge water, told the state board of conciliation and arbitration.

Speaking at a hearing on a proposed wage cut of 25 per cent, Mr. White asserted that the cheaper shoes would be made in St. Louis and that unless Massachusetts manufacturers could reduce their wage scales they would be unable to meet western competition. He added that the proposed reduction was necessary if his plant were to continue in operation.

Anybody with sound judgment could surely not imagine good solid reliable shoes retailing at such prices as described here in this U. S. A. report.

Footwear bought now for spring, cost from the best manufacturers several dollars more than these supposed retail prices.

The cheap American shoes, some branded, others not, which have been put on the Canadian market do no credit to some of the manufacturers.

Mrs. George Damery.

The death of Mrs. Hannah Damery, wife of George Damery, occurred at Pugwash, Nova Scotia, on Thursday, November 10, 1921. The late Mrs. Damery was formerly of St. John. She leaves, besides her husband, two sons, Fred, of the Canada Car Company, Amherst, and William G., of the government railway mail service, St. John. The body will be brought here, arriving today, and the funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock from the residence of her son at 118 Harrison street.

Miss Mary T. Davidson.

Newcastle, Nov. 11.—(Special).—The body of Miss Mary T. Davidson, daughter of the late Allan A. Davidson, arrived from Waverly (Mass.), on Monday, the funeral taking place on Wednesday from the residence of her brother, A. A. Davidson. The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. Mr. McLane. The pallbearers were Messrs. J. P. Burchill, Correy Clark, Howard Williston, Osborn Nicholson, James Stables and Robert Armstrong.

Mrs. Susan Mathews, Sr.

Mrs. Susan Mathews, sr., died very suddenly in Alliston (Mass.), on Tuesday, October 26, at the age of seventy-two years. She was a native of Passaic, Kings county (N. B.), and is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Allen R. Pierce, of 20 Chester street, Alliston (Mass.), with whom she resided, and two sons, W. G. Mathews, of Grand Narrows (N. B.), and Oliver A. Mathews, of Everett (Mass.). The funeral services were held on the following Friday afternoon at the residence, Rev. Manley F. Albright officiating, after which the body was forwarded for burial at Titusville, Kings county (N. B.).

Mrs. William Hamilton.

The recent death of Mrs. William Hamilton at her home in Oak Point, Kings county, removes from the community a sympathetic woman whose passing will be generally regretted. Mrs. Hamilton, whose death occurred after a lengthy illness, is survived by her husband, eight children, two brothers, four sisters, and seventeen grandchildren. The daughters are Mrs. Frank Short and Mrs. Donald Sterritt, both of Glenwood, and Mrs. Ira Jones, of Campbellton. The sons are Forrest and Archie, of St. John; Caswell and Herbert, at home.

NOVA SCOTIA WOMAN WAS 102 YEARS OLD
(Hullfax Chronicle)

Mrs. John Young, aged 102 years, the oldest woman of Shelburne County, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joudry, at Green Harbor, on Sunday. Mrs. Young was one of the most remarkable instances of longevity known in Nova Scotia. Besides having reached the greatest age that any woman in Shelburne county is known to have attained in the present generation, she ran very close in the race of years to any woman in the province.

Up to almost the day of her death she retained a remarkable memory of events of her early life, but had not a very good memory of occurrences of more recent years. Her hearing had failed her considerably, but her eyesight was good and her powers of recognition remained fair until the last. She had the distinction of living to see her descendants reach the fifth generation, there being two great-grandchildren living at West Green Harbor. Besides her daughter, Mrs. Joudry, there is one son living of the immediate family, Mr. James Young, of Lockport, a very highly respected citizen of that town. He, however, was never married.

Mrs. Young was of German descent. In all likelihood a descendant of one of the Hessian soldiers who were settled in Shelburne county after the American revolution. Her husband's people were among the earliest New England settlers of the county, and the site of their home overlooking Young Point, West Green Harbor, is one of the prettiest sections of that part of the southern shore.

It is not generally known today that among the early colonists of this country it was quite the common practice for women to smoke pipes, as it is today becoming the fashion of some women in the "smart set" to smoke cigarettes. Mrs. Young staunchly upheld that custom to the last, and in later years was never happier than when enjoying her pipe. It is very doubtful if there can now be found another instance in the whole county of the survival of this pipe custom, although the revival of women smoking in another form is very evident. Mrs. Young had reached the age of 102 in October (last month).

AT THE CATHEDRAL

Rev. Wm. M. Duke, rector of the Cathedral, delivered an able sermon last evening on the Blessed Sacrament in connection with the Forty Hours' Devotion ceremonies. He also officiated at Benediction. The rosary was recited by Rev. H. Ramage. The services were continued this morning with masses at 6, 7 and 8 o'clock. The devotions will be concluded tomorrow evening. Tomorrow will also be the regular monthly Communion Sunday for the members of the Holy Name Society.
