HOUSE-HUNTING MONARCH OF MID- WINTER SPORTS

Again this year a certain proportion of the population of the city has started to indulge in the king of late winter sports—house-hunting—and to judge by the experience of those in possession of the hunted, the game has lost nothing of its attractions, but has become more and more a by-product of the search for a home.

There seems to be an insatiable craving in man's nature for the private domain of others and at this time of the year it breaks out like an epidemic. True it is that many are through stern necessity, compelled to hunt, tirelessly, day and night, for a spot they can call home for another year, but one could hardly believe that all who flock through the houses on which a "To Let" sign has been hung have very serious intentions of changing their place of residence in May 1. Quite unintentionally, however, they assist materially in effecting the "Welcome" from the front door mat.

The procession started on the first day of the month and is still going strong. One householder, whose lot advertisement appeared in "The Evening Times" on Wednesday, piloted no fewer than thirty-one viewing parties through his premises on the following day when the premises were open for inspection. Others report groups of visitors ranging from five to twenty-five. It is safe to say that there are many distracted homeowners in the city today whose heads reel with the echoes of "hardwood floors, hot-water-heating, no-place-here-I-could-put-my-Chesterfield, my-rugs-would-never-fit-these-floors" and a veritable bombardment of other questions and observations that were in the war-time intelligence service of the British armies in the field seem like a delegation of infants at a mothers' meeting.

WILL HELP RAISE MONEY NEEDED

If City Council Cannot Provide for Vocational Training Classes.

"If $5,000 will enable the vocational boards to continue its evening classes, and there is no hope of getting money from the city council, I will be one of fifty men to give $100 each and raise the amount."

This announcement was made to the Times last evening by Frank L. Potts, who added that any movement which kept hundreds of people engaged in the evenings in study should be heartily supported, and the more so when that study tended to increase their wage-earning capacity.

Dr. Emery, chairman of the vocational board, visited one of the classes of young people last evening. There were twenty-four in this class. They were much concerned over the fact that the classes would be discontinued, and asked the chairman if there was anything they could do, even by contributing something themselves, to enable them to complete their course.

The absurdity of having on the vocational board a member of the public school board who is opposed to the vocational boards and to declared himself at yesterday's meeting, was remarked by an interested citizen this morning. The Times was also asked if there is any truth in the report that most of the opposition to the vocational board and its work has come from members of the public school board.

"Now is the time," said this citizen, "to throw out the whole question."

Liner Had Seven-Day Voyage From England

Business Conditions in Old Country and Europe Referred to—Passengers, Mail and Cargo—Two for Nova Scotia.

The C. P. O. S. liner Empress of Britain, which arrived in port last night direct from Liverpool, had some notable on board among whom was J. Bureau M.P., of Three Rivers, P. Q., who is returning home with his wife and daughter after a visit to France, Belgium and England. Referring to his trip, he said, that he was merely enjoying a vacation and was not on business of any official nature. Senator J. H. Ross of Ottawa, returned home after a visit to England, France and Switzerland. He spent nearly six months on his tour and while in Switzerland and visited himself an opportunity to visit his son James, who is taking a post graduate course in a university in Geneva. He said that he found conditions very satisfactory in all three countries and from all indications they are getting back to a pre-war basis. He said that he had thoroughly enjoyed the tour and the voyage across the Atlantic had been a very pleasant one. He is leaving this morning for Montreal en route to Ottawa.

Soldiers' Graves.
Thousands of citizens in Canada will be interested to know that full details of the war graves in Belgium and France will be given by Captain M. Mullineux, who arrived on the steamer, for the purpose of imparting this information throughout the Dominion. He is well versed in his subject as he has made a special study of it and has slides, etc., which he will show while on his lecture tour. He is going to Montreal and from there will arrange his tour. He said that very few people appreciate what is being done for the departed heroes. Captain Mullineux was in San Francisco when the war broke out and went to New Zealand and joined as a trooper. He was later appointed chaplain and was with the troops through the entire campaign.

Major J. B. Peters, of Quebec, is also returning home after a tour of England and France. He said he is only back for a few days and will join his wife in Paris as soon as possible. Questioned about conditions in England and France, he said, that they are better in France than in England, although the labor question in England was not pretty well in hand. From all indications, he said better days are coming and we can look for sunshine in the near future.

J. D. McGregor, of Brandon, Man., is en route to the west after transacting some business in London. Mr. McGregor is said to be one of the "cattle kings" of the west and is a well known breeder of prize cattle. Some of his stock won blue ribbons for three years, in succession at Chicago, while in other parts of the United States and Canada he has also won signal honors. He was enthusiastic about conditions and feels that in the near future they will right themselves and pre-war conditions will soon prevail again.

A consignment of valuable dogs for Colonel Bishop, V. C., of Toronto, attracted considerable attention when they were brought ashore. Two of the thoroughbreds were termed "Clow" or Chinese dogs, while a third was said to be a Eosman dog.

The Empress is an oil burner and is in Command of Captain E. Griffiths.

She sailed from Liverpool on January 28 and made the voyage in seven days despite the fact that she encountered severe weather conditions for two days.

In addition to 821 passengers, consisting of 62 first cabin, 225 second and 534 third class, she had 2,745 bags of mail and 119 packages of parcel post, also 810 tons of general cargo.

Rev. Dr. J. H. Rison, general secretary of the British and Foreign Bible Society, with headquarters in London, Eng., arrived on the Empress. He is to hold a series of conferences throughout Canada.

There were two passengers on board from Nova Scotia, J. J. MacDonald, of Stellarton, N. S., and W. G. Carter of Sydney.

The passengers are leaving on special trains, the first got away about 11:30 o'clock for Montreal and points west with the cabin passengers, and the second is due to leave this afternoon with second and third class passengers for Montreal and points west.

The Duke of Devonshire said the resources of the skill and the industry were here which could make the future of Canada assured. The greatest hope that could be looked forward to today was based on that great movement taking place in the world and expressed in the League of Nations. "However able the assembly may be," his excellency said, "it cannot of itself be of any real value unless it has the sympathy and support of the nations of the world behind it."

What was needed was a renewal of confidence in the hearts of the people, and the assurance that a more glorious future awaited Canada than anything that had been in the past.

WHO WILL BE NEW SENATOR?

Speculation as to the successor to the late Senator Peter McWenney of Moncton is being indulged in. Amongst the names most prominently mentioned about the streets are those of M. E. Agar and Thomas Nagle of St. John; Col. F. B. Black of Sackville, president of the New Brunswick Telephone Co.; Richard O'Leary of Richibucto, and P. D. Creighton of Newcastle. One of those named is already reported to be in upper Canada and Hon. Mr. Wigmore is faced with a problem as to decision among the applicants.

And these are the Principles that will Appeal to You

Did you ever read "Little Eve Edgerton" by Eleanor Hallowell Abbott? A wonderful character Little Eve, full of droll sayings and a lot of common sense. Here is one of her best: "The things that people shout at you—you forget in half a night, but the things that people whisper to you, you remember to you dying day."

Suppose, instead of simply illustrating this beautiful Chesterfield suite and gently suggesting that it may be seen on the floor of this store, we should let this advertisement with big price figures and perhaps an axe cutting through them—you know the kind.

Which do you think would make the more lasting impression, you thinking people of St. John who read this paper—and you are in every walk of life. Would it be the price alone or are you really looking for Quality and Service?
