"Cheer Up"
 Every day conditions are getting better.
 Every day Canadian markets are expanding.
 Every day more men are finding lucrative employment.
 The man who goes after customers now is moving with the tide. His business is going to increase. He is going to reap a deserved profit.
 The names of some of those who are taking advantage of this opportunity will be found in the advertising columns of The Telegraph and The Times.
 They are the kind of men who are worth supporting.

A PLEASANT TIME
 Excellent Bible class of Calvin Presbyterian church entertained the men of the congregation at a banquet in the schoolroom of the church last evening. The schoolroom was very prettily decorated for the occasion and the tables were tempting to the appetite. After partaking of the good things provided by the ladies the only toast of the evening, that to the king, was enthusiastically drunk. Rev. R. P. McKim and Rev. Dr. J. H. McVicar addressed the men in a very interesting and helpful manner. Short addresses were given by the minister and members of the congregation, interspersed with musical selections. Social fellowship combined with entertaining and instructive talks made a very pleasant and profitable evening which cannot fail to increase interest in the church and its work.

THE CITY BONDS
 The action of the city in offering to local purchasers the new issue of city bonds seems destined to prove popular. Before this step was taken city hall officials were frequently spoken to by investors anxious to secure such debentures, but the plan of selling them in large blocks made it difficult for the man of moderate means to secure a share of this desirable investment. Although the bonds were offered only this week, the response so far has been gratifying, and it is expected that, as the opportunity becomes more widely known, the demand will be much larger. The fact that they bear five per cent interest and are exempt from taxation, make the bonds an unusually attractive investment, especially in view of the fact that St. John debentures have always ranked with very best securities.

ACCIDENTS KEEP TWO FROM FRONT
 Frank Smats, Young St. John Belgian, and Harry Dryden
BOTH KICKED BY HORSES
 Men Had Passed For Service and Were Eager to Sail—They May Yet Get Across to Where The Fighting Is

Two members of the detachment of volunteers from the 3rd regt. Canadian Artillery who left St. John for Valcartier to go into service with the overseas forces will not be included in the contingent now bound for England. They are Frank Smats, a young Belgian and Harry Dryden, of North End, and the reason for their not being in the first detachment to sail is not because of any unfitness in the early stage of their volunteering, but from injuries sustained at almost the time they were about to sail.
 Each was kicked by a horse but Dryden probably sustained the more severe injuries. Smats had been working here since coming from his native land and when the call for volunteers was issued he was one of the first to respond, was accepted and passed satisfactorily. He was most eager to get to the front and he regretted his injuries not so much because they prevented him from going to the front with the Canadian troops. He is now trying to arrange through the Belgian consul to get transportation to his homeland to aid his fellow-countrymen in their noble fight.
 The accident to Dryden occurred while he was aiding in embarking of the horses of the artillery aboard transports at Quebec. One of the animals kicked him in the side and knocked him overboard. He was picked up and rushed at once to the hospital where he remained for about ten days, hoping that the injuries would not deter him from being accepted. He had already passed his examinations as master gunner. The doctors in the hospital refused to have him registered as fit after the accident, as they feared internal injuries, so he was forced to return home.

FORMER OFFICER OF 62ND PRISONER
 Van der Osten Was Lieutenant In Local Regiment
"FACING STARVATION"
 Letter From Him Received by Col. J. L. McAvity—Wife is New Brunswick Lady and Relatives Try to Send Money

A former officer of the 62nd regiment, St. John Fusiliers, is now a prisoner of war in Berlin. From that storm centre of the European conflict this week came a letter to Col. J. L. McAvity, officer commanding the regiment, telling of hardships being endured by E. R. Van der Osten, who last year was a popular lieutenant in the unit, and who was well known about St. John as a financial promoter. He and his wife are now held captives in the capital of Germany, and as he said in his letter to the colonel "we are facing starvation, because I cannot do anything, and am closely watched, having to report to the authorities every three days."
 Mr. Van der Osten was in St. John for some little time. He had spent several years in Canada, and first settling in Toronto, he became an officer of the 2nd Field Co. C. E. in that city. Later he removed to St. John, where on representation made by influential citizens here and in other parts of Canada he was gazetted an officer in the 62nd Fusiliers being sworn in on April 25, 1913. His brother officers took kindly to him, for he had a very genial disposition.
 While in New Brunswick he married a sister of Mrs. A. J. Gregory of Fredericton, and through that source endeavours have been made to send to himself and wife $1,000 for their relief. It is understood that this sum has been established by the British military authorities. It will no doubt be greatly welcomed by the distressed officer and his wife. Van der Osten had become a British subject of Canada and in his letter wrote that on August 4, he had been taken to the British military camp at Colonel Russell, for instructions, and to find out when he and his wife should leave Germany. That same day at 7 o'clock England declared war against Germany, and not more than an hour later Van der Osten was placed under arrest, and is now held on his word of honor not to leave the country, though it is highly probable that he could succeed in doing so even without this pledge.
 Ranking high in Hanoverian court circles, Van der Osten was one of the guests of honor at the marriage of one of the Kaiser's sons to a princess in Prussia, when it will be recalled that local papers made reference to the fact that "St. John was represented at the brilliant function." He and his wife left this city in January. While here he is remembered by his interest as a promoter, in the development of mining properties around Plumpton, and in the St. John and elsewhere. All who knew him and his wife will sympathize with both of them in their plight, and trust that the fortunes of war may not be too severe upon either of them.

TWO NEAR TRAGEDIES
 North Shore Boy Accidentally Shot By Companion While Hunting
 Bullet Lodges in Clifford McDonald's Knee—Wm. Johnson Near Death While Out After Partridge

Chatham, N. B., Oct. 3.—Yesterday afternoon in the Keating woods, about two miles from town, Clifford McDonald, sixteen year old son of Thomas McDonald, was accidentally wounded in the knee by a shot from a rifle in the hands of a young companion, Wm. Johnson, who was hunting partridge. Both were climbing a fence when the rifle was discharged, and the bullet entered the knee of McDonald, who lay down the unfortunate lad to the hospital, where the wound was dressed by Dr. Duff. The wound is not considered very serious unless complications set in.
 William Johnson, of the Dominion Express Company here, had a narrow escape while out hunting partridge early this week. He was crossing a clearing when he was fired upon from close by. He could hear the bullet singing as it passed.

AMATEURS TO GIVE THREE OPERAS TO SWELL THE PATRIOTIC FUND
 Pinafore, The Pirates and Patience To Be Presented
 Three of the Gilbert & Sullivan favorite operas are to be given this winter in St. John by amateur talent under direction of Professor John Lloyd, in aid of the patriotic fund. Those who saw his success with "The Mascot" here last year in aid of the Playgrounds Association, will anticipate the forthcoming presentations with much pleasure. The operas to be given are "Pinafore," "The Pirates of Penzance" and "Patience."
 The first named is especially familiar to Mr. Lloyd who played in the all-star cast at the Tremont Theatre, Boston, in a revival of Gilbert & Sullivan pieces there when "Pinafore" was one of the biggest hits.
A WARNING.
 A correspondent in Westmorland county writes that a young man, about twenty-four years old, has been going about in the Shediac district attempting to get money from people on the pretence that an edition of The Telegraph is to be printed in French and circulated in that county. The correspondent sends a receipt of $2.00 which he paid this man. The receipt is signed by J. E. Fraser.
 The Telegraph does not know this man, and he has no authority whatever to collect money or take subscriptions. Any money so taken is money obtained under false pretences and would subject the collector to imprisonment.
 The Telegraph desires to warn everybody in New Brunswick against any such scheme. Persons collecting money for The Telegraph or Times will, if required, show proper authority from the Telegraph or Times company.
 The Telegraph is asking the French newspapers of New Brunswick to issue warning covering this case.
