HON. MR. HAZEN LEFT TODAY FOR CANADA

Says Parliamentary Representation of Some Kind is to Be Granted Dominions

KING A GOOD SHOT

His Majesty Bags 142 Brace of Grouse in Day's Shooting—Olympic, Short a Propeller Blade, Will Land Passengers at Plymouth

(Canadian Press)

London, Aug. 21.—Hon. Mr. Hazen left for Canada today, accompanied by Rear Admiral Kingsmill. Mr. Hazen expressed himself as gratified with the growth of the idea of imperial federation in England, and with the attitude of parliamentarians of both parties towards imperial defence. It is generally accepted in Great Britain now, he said, that if the dominions are going to help solve the problems of imperial defence and bear its burdens, they should have a voice in moulding the foreign policy which that scheme is to uphold. "The time is not far distant," he added, "when imperial representation of some parliamentary character will be granted to the dominions."

King George and Queen Mary will pay a visit in the autumn to Floors Castle, the residence of the Duke and Duchess of Roxburgh, in Kales, Scotland. His Majesty shot 142 brace of grouse yesterday with a blade of one of her propellers missing, is expected to reach Plymouth late on Sunday night. The Olympic's passengers will be landed at Plymouth instead of Southampton, and the vessel will proceed to Belfast, where her propeller will be repaired.

The first prosecution under the insurance act took place in the police court yesterday, when Wm. Hurlock, seventy years old, a prominent liberal who has been in business as a draper in Walworth road, South London, for more than fifty years, and who employs about 100 persons, was arraigned. He had openly announced his intention to disobey the act and was fined $25 on each of three summonses for refusing to lick stamps and $25 costs on the first summons. His appeal was given to the court for appeal. Other cases are awaiting trial.

BADLY HURT BY FALL IN PICKING CHERRIES. Moncton, N. B., Aug. 21.—(Special.)—While picking cherries, Earl Lutz, a respected resident of Berry's Mills, missed his footing and fell twelve feet on Sunday afternoon. He struck on his back across a ridge of earth and was picked up unconscious. The doctor thinks his spine is affected. He is a brother of B. A. Lutz of this city.

GOD'S PROMISES HIS LAST THOUGHT

General Booth's Dying Words a Sermon to World

Name of Successor Announced in Day or Two—British Press Praises Life Work of Salvation Leader—Eva Booth Prostrated by News of Father's Death—Will There Be Reconciliation?

(Canadian Press) London, Aug. 21.—Almost the last words of General William Booth, commander in chief of the Salvation Army, who died last night, were uttered just before he lost consciousness. He was referring to God's promises, and speaking with great difficulty. "They are sure, they are sure, if you will only believe."

It is probable that the obsequies will include the lying in state for several days at Congress Hall, Clapton. This will be followed by a big memorial service, and a procession from London to Albany Park. Broken Down by Loss of Sight. Colonel Kitching said that up to Saturday General Booth showed solicitude for the work of the army.

When General Booth said from time to time that when the wires flashed round the world, the news of his death, they would also carry the name of his successor, Colonel Kitching added: "The spoke metaphorically. The announcement of his successor probably will be made in a day or two."

London newspapers pay eloquent tributes of sympathy to the late Salvation Army leader. They regard him as the greatest apostle and evangelist of the age, and compare him with John Wesley, and Martin Luther. The Times, in an editorial says: "In the death of Booth, closes a strange career, one of the most remarkable our age has seen, and it will set the world meditating on that fervent and fervid character, that keen thought, as some would say, narrow intelligence, which raised him from a position of friendless obscurity to be the head of an organization yielding obedience scarcely less complete than the Catholic church yields to the Pontiff. Out respect for the memory of General Booth all the flags floating on Salvation Army headquarters throughout the country have been hoisted, and messages were received from kings and other rulers, cablegrams from countries as diverse as Patagonia and Lapland. The lying in state of the general is to take place at the Salvation congress hall, Clapton, in the northeast of London, where the body will remain for a week. The funeral arrangements have not yet been settled.

New York, Aug. 21.—News of the death of General Booth in London was communicated to Miss Evangeline Booth, his daughter, at the Salvation Army headquarters here, soon after the receipt of the news despatches last night. Although Miss Booth, who is head of the Salvation Army in America, had thought herself prepared for the event, having known of her father's staking condition, she was greatly affected. During the afternoon, she had received a warning by cable that her father was on "the verge of the river," but when the death was confirmed to her by a private message, later, she suffered a complete nervous breakdown.

Commander Booth herself has not been in good health since a nervous collapse last spring. Her condition is such that she is said at headquarters that it could not be determined yet whether or not Miss Booth would go to London to her father's funeral. Miss Booth was very much devoted to the aged general, and only last May she visited him in London to help arrange for him a farewell issue of the "United States," but he was then suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism, which later resulted in his death.

Both Booth and his wife were estranged from his father sixteen years ago, and she has since been married to a man known as the Volunteers of America, was at his home at Blue Point, Long Island. When news of his death reached her, she was in the city. During yesterday afternoon, Mr. Booth and his wife had been notified of the general's death, and she had sent the following telegram to Chief Bramwell of the district: "I am and sympathizing to father and yourself."

(Sgd) B. A. LINGINGTON AND MAUD. FOUR YEARS AND A HALF IN THE ARCTIC. Explorer Who Discovered Blandine Eskimos is Back to Civilization. Nome, Alaska, Aug. 21.—Vilhelm Stefansson, an explorer, who discovered a race of blonde Eskimos in Victoria land, arrived here today on the revenue cutter Bear, after spending four and a half years in the Arctic.

Mr. Stefansson collected much information concerning the Eskimos of the far north of the continent. He was accompanied by Dr. R. M. Anderson of Iowa. They made the journey out of Nome, Alaska, in Victoria land, and steam whaler as far as Point Barrow, the most northerly point of Alaska, where they boarded the Bear. The expedition was financed by the Geological Survey of Canada and the American Museum of Natural History.

MONTENEGRO MAY WITHDRAW TROOPS. Constantinople, Aug. 21.—The Porte, it was announced today, has invited Montenegro to withdraw her troops from the Albanian district of Berana. The powers it is reported, have advised Montenegro to comply with Turkey's wishes in this respect. Advises from Albania are that further fighting has occurred at Berana and that the Turks have driven the Montenegrins out of the district. The solution of the Albanian difficulty at Uckup has relieved the situation, but the cabinet crisis still remains unsettled. It is believed the Hilmi Pasha, the minister of justice, will resign his portfolio. The Turkish heir apparent, Prince Yusuf, Izzedin, has left the capital, travelling incognito to visit Switzerland, where the Turco-Italian peace negotiations are said to be in progress.

ONTARIO SENDS 10,000 HARVESTERS TO THE WEST. Toronto, Aug. 21.—Ten special trains carrying nearly 10,000 people, left the Union station today and yesterday for Winnipeg and the west. Ontario's first contingent to swell the huge army of harvesters the west is clamoring for. At present, it is expected that Ontario will supply 25,000 of the 50,000 harvesters required in the prairie provinces.

COL. LOWTHER ENTAILED IN A FISH-NET

Governor's Secretary Has Experience at St. Andrews—Royal Party Enjoy Golf Today

(Special to Times) St. Andrews, N. B., Aug. 21.—The Duke of Cornwall and Devon, accompanied by Governor Lowther, military secretary, in coming ashore at St. Andrews, were entangled in a fish net and it was a couple of hours before he got out and reached the shore. The Duke and party are to the golf links today.

Tomorrow afternoon an address will be presented to the Duke by Mayor Armstrong on behalf of the town and he will dedicate the new Park at St. Andrews. In the evening a concert under the duke's patronage will be held in Andraelo Hall. The weather is fine and the town is gay with decorations.

Indians, Aug. 21.—Five persons were seriously injured and fifty were bruised and cut in the collapse of a grand stand seating 300 in University Place yesterday afternoon during the formal notification ceremony of Governor Thomas R. Marshall to the Indiana Democratic club. The injured were quickly carried into the Indiana Democratic Club nearby and taken to hospital and the notification ceremony proceeded. The grand stand had been set upon the asphalt pavement directly back of the speaker's platform. Alton B. Parker of New York, representing the Indiana Democratic club, was in the midst of his address when the stand away and sank slowly to the street and men and women in the seats were piled together among the tangled timbers of the structure.

Several thousand people massed in front of the speaker's platform crowded about the fallen stand and many men helped the injured to scramble to their feet and help the injured to the club house, where they were cared for by hurriedly summoned physicians.

Officers of Two C.P.R. Steamships Are Involved in Strike. Montreal and Mount Royal Affected By Trouble at Port of London. London, Aug. 21.—A strike of ship officers under the auspices of the masters' and mates' union, has broken out in consequence of which two C. P. R. boats, the Mount Royal and Montreal, now lying in the port of London, are affected.

LABOR TROUBLE AT FORT WILLIAM AND PORT ARTHUR. Fort William, Ont., Aug. 21.—The freight handlers at the Canadian railway docks at Stevens as they were almost thrown out of their bunkers by the violence of the impact of the ship's bow, and that the passengers were panic stricken, and that one woman called on everybody to kneel and pray. The students asserted that 100 tons of ice fell on the ship deck, and that there was nineteen feet of water in the hold on last Sunday. The crew they said were unable to sleep in the forecastle after the collision.

MORE FATAL ACCIDENTS. Ottawa, Aug. 21.—During July there were 108 fatal and 572 non-fatal accidents reported by the department of labor. This is an increase of forty-six fatal and twenty-three non-fatal accidents, compared with the record for June, and an increase of ten fatal and seventy-three non-fatal accidents compared with July, 1911.

GROOM MISSING ONE DAY AND THE BRIDE THE NEXT. Boston, Aug. 21.—For the second time in two days, the wedding of Leo F. McCready, of Halifax, N. S., and Miss Katherine Marks, of Miami, Fla., was postponed.

On Monday the ceremony could not be held because the groom did not appear, and yesterday it was the bride who was missing. The bride, who is chief steward on the steamer A. W. Perry, which runs between Boston and Halifax, had arranged to be married in New York but the ship was late in reaching Boston and the groom to Boston and that they be married here for the ceremony. It was then arranged by telegram that Miss Marks should come to Boston and that they be married here, but the young lady missed the train, and McCready, still single, sailed with the ship after leaving word that he would try to land on Monday when his steamer again returns to this port.

WIRELESS AT VAICAN. London, Aug. 21.—A dispatch from Rome says: "It is stated authoritatively that the Italian Marconi Company is to install a wireless station at the Vatican."

BAPTIST MINISTERS IN CHINA. Boston, Aug. 21.—A cablegram received by the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society from Shanghai indicated that there would be no further danger of uprisings in West China, in the opinion of local officers. The cablegram contained the news that consuls in West China were encouraging the return of the missionaries.

A GREAT GAIN. For the first seven months of this year wheat prices issued in St. John were valued at $622,400, compared with $431,700 in the like period of last year, a gain of $190,700, or 44.2 per cent. The gain for July, compared with July of last year, was $69 per cent.

GRAND STAND COLLAPSES AT POLITICAL MEETING; FIVE ARE BADLY INJURED

Believed Toronto Bank Clerks Were Victims of Race Track Touts

Believed Toronto Bank Clerks Were Victims of Race Track Touts. Toronto, Aug. 21.—The combined defiance of Arthur Richmond and Roland Harris, two young Toronto bank clerks now under arrest on embankment charges, will, it is estimated, approximate $50,000. Most of the money went to the bookmakers at various race tracks, the greater part being lost on races at Danforth Park and Woodbine.

Harris, who is now in custody charged with stealing $20,000 from the Standard Bank, Richmond, and who attempted suicide before being arrested on Monday, is said to be ill to appear in court today. The young men were not acquainted with each other.

Indications are that they were "played for" by a gang of unscrupulous touts, and it is likely that a thorough going investigation of book making and other illegal practices in connection with the racing game in Toronto may come as an aftermath of the arrests.

The police have letters from track followers offering tips on various horses, and the detectives have almost a complete record of the bets placed by the young men. This information will be turned over to the solicitors representing the guarantee companies which went upon the defaulters' bonds, and it is said that they will make a determined effort to secure the prosecution of the bookmakers and others involved.

The arrest of Harris brought out the fact that he was leading a double life. While the bank believed him to be married to a young woman at 415 Clinton street, Harris told the detectives that he had married this young woman seven months ago, but had kept the fact secret, because his salary had not reached the amount which the rules of the bank permitted him to take a wife.

Harris met the young woman in Yonge street and went to the Clinton street house, which was kept shadowed by detectives throughout the night.

MISS MCKINNEY AND W. C. QUINLAN WED. Cathedral Ceremony This Afternoon—Will Live at Medicine Hat. An interesting nuptial event took place this afternoon at half past three o'clock in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception when Miss Anna J. McKinney of Haymarket Square was united in marriage to Walter C. Quinlan of Medicine Hat, formerly of this city, who was in the employ of the C. P. R. in West St. John.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. David S. O'Keefe and many gathered in the Cathedral to see the marriage. The bride was handsomely attired in a dress of embroidered chiffon pattern trimmed with Chantilly lace, and orange blossoms. She wore a handsome white picture hat with French willow plumes, and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. She was given away by her cousin, John J. Connor.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mary L. P. McKinney, who wore a white-Marquise dress trimmed with pink silk and a large picture hat with pink roses and ostrich. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was supported by Chas. Olive. The ushers were D. J. Carr and Walter McPartland.

The bride is very popular in the city and her friends availed themselves of the opportunity to show the esteem in which she was held by sending numerous handsome presents. There were also gifts from friends in England and a handsome present from her employers, Macneil Bros. & Co. For a going away gown the bride had a handsome champagne colored wrap cord dress and white velvet hat with bird paradise plumes.

After the wedding luncheon was served at the home of the bride. After visiting Montreal, Toronto, St. Louis, Vancouver and the large cities of Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Quinlan will reside in Medicine Hat. They will leave this evening on the Montreal express.

JOHNSON'S MONEY IS UP; JEANETTE KNOCKS OUT TWO OPPONENTS. Chicago, Aug. 21.—Jack Johnson has placed $5,000 with Al Neasey as a forfeit for the champion's match with Joe Jettette. Both forfeits were to have been paid yesterday, but no word came from Jeannette.

Newark, N. J., Aug. 21.—Joe Jeannette, who is matched to meet Jack Johnson, made an appearance in the ring on the second consecutive night, last night, at Morris Park, and defeated two colored opponents, Bill Title of Tennessee, and Bunting Brooks of Michigan, knocking each out in the second round.
