If there is one thing a man wishes for at Christmas it is a tie he can be proud of in both material and pattern—they all let that part of their wardrobe suffer hardships, hoping for the best at Yuletide.

So you never go wrong in a Tie—it is needed most of all. And no woman can fail to make a bull's eye with the patterns and silks shown here by the hundred. They were picked on a "safety first" principle. They are all new designs, but suit every He man. And a dollar carries your choice a long, long way—silks, brocades, knits, stripes, dots, floral effects. $1.50 finds the finest—the qualities you paid $2.50 for last time; reversibles, Tookie Can't Cresces, and the niftiest Swiss brocade silks.
