

AMUSEMENTS. CITY CORNET BAND CONCERT.

MECHANICS INSTITUTE. TUESDAY EVENING, Jan. 21st. Under the Leadership of W. C. Brown, Assisted by Mrs. Parley and Selected Ladies and Gentlemen.

Saint John Oratorio Society. HANDEL'S "MESSIAH" at the Mechanics Institute, TUESDAY, JAN. 28th, at 8 p. m.

"PALACE RINK." FORMERLY St. John's Roller Rink. GRAND CARNIVAL WEDNESDAY, 29TH.

PRIZES. Ladies most Original Costume. A Silver Watch. Gentlemen's most. A Silver Watch. Special prizes for Handicapped Contestants.

SPENCER'S Standard Dancing Academy. REDUCED PRIZES. Come and see for yourselves. I will open new classes for gentlemen on Thursday, January 21st.

MISCELLANEOUS. "QUEBELAND FARM" JERSEY CREAM. THE CELEBRATED SUMMER RESORTS. GUESTS ARE INVITED TO INSPECT THE COURTESY OF THE DELMONTEO.

MONEY TO LOAN. MONEY TO LOAN—$5,000 on Mortgages. WANTED—A GIRL FOR GENERAL HOUSEWORK.

FOR SALE. FOR SALE OR TO LET. A VALUABLE Leasehold Property on Herford Street. A ROOMING HOUSE. TO LET—The residence of the late Mrs. Robert Jordan.

NEWLY OPENED New Year Gifts. Booklets, Cards, Albums, Bibles, Furses and Fancy Goods.

MARTHOUS BOOK STORE. 80 King Street. ADVERTISEMENT. WANTS, FOR SALES, FOUND, LOST, TO LET, &c.; 3 lines and under inserted for 10c.

50c. FOR A WEEK.

LOCAL MATTERS.

For additional Local News see First Page. POINT LEPREUX, Jan. 21, 9 a.m.—Wind north, strong, cloudy.

SIX DROGHS has issued a challenge to Lamb to skate for $25 a side. VICTORIA RINK—There will be no band at Victoria rink this evening as the rink is closed.

AT VICTORIA RINK—There will be no band at Victoria rink this evening as the rink is closed. THE PALACE RINK—There will be a band at the Palace Ice Rink. Single admission tickets can be procured.

H. ARAM GLASGOW, Ferry Superintendent, has been confined to his home for the last few days with "la grippe." WIND CLOSING DOWN—It is expected that the Red Granite works at West end will close about the end of this week.

OLYMPIAN SOCIETY—The holders of tickets for the Olympic exchange them for reserved seats at A. C. Smith & Co's. today. SCHOONER DECKER CLARKE was taken from West end today to McGinnigan's wharf where she will be extensively repaired.

THE COAST-OP-ARMS, which was on the steamer City of Monticello to be placed on the American schooner Nellie Clarke now repairing at the pier. A SQUALL—The residents of Cranville complain in strong terms of the nuisance caused them by a pile of offal which has been deposited close to the main road.

Lecture on "The Bible" by Mr. G. U. Hay, in the course of the Y. P. A. of St. John's church and which was advertised for 23rd inst, has been postponed for the present. GRANTING SURETY—The Red Granite works at West end have been shipping quantities of granite by rail, lately to Philadelphia. The stone is for a bank which is being built in that city and is cut and polished at West end.

TO PETITION FOR A REVISION OF THE ACTS—A meeting of the council of the Board of Trade was held this morning at the instance of General Warner to consider the petition for a revision of the Acts. A memorial will likely be drawn up and directed to Ottawa, petitioning a reduction of these duties.

ARVENUS MONTGOMERY—Antonio Rodriguez, a Portuguese sailor, came to the Police Court this morning to get some one to go to the shipping office with him and get some money which he said was there belonging to him. When asked to go and get it himself, he said that he was afraid somebody would knock him down and take it from him. The magistrate informed him that nobody would molest him and he started off to get the money. Rodriguez is the sailor that ran away from his ship, the Herbert C. Hall, at Yarmouth, having over $100 wages behind him. The money has been sent for but has not, as yet, reached here. It is thought that the man in issue, he acts very strangely around his boarding house, and this morning rushed out of the house without a hat on to go and get his money.

WAR EXP. ROSSIGNOL—About 2 o'clock this morning the grocery stores of Alderbrook Road were broken into. The store of E. H. Rossignol was broken into. The store of J. H. Rossignol was broken into. The store of J. H. Rossignol was broken into.

THE TABLET. It is claimed by the opponents of the government that it is defeated. Mr. Porter, of Victoria, is also counted as government supporters as they have expressed themselves favorable to the general policy of the government. It also counts Mr. McInerney as elected in Kent, but late returns are calculated to throw some doubt on this return.

THE OPPOSITION. The opposition claims if all sustained would give the standing of the government and their opponents in the house, thus: Albert..... 407 Oppos. 407

Police Court. Wm. Wilson, found lying drunk on Union street was fined $6 or 30 days. Geo. McElin, John Price and James Duffy, drunk, were fined $4 each. Annie Rodgers, drunk on Sheffield st, was fined $8 or 2 months.

The Equity Court. In the Equity Court this morning before His Honor Judge Palmer, a motion was made by C. A. Palmer to dismiss the bill in re Boston Safe Deposit and Trust Co. vs James Harris, Arthur Everett and William V. Barbour against Messrs. Everett and Barbour. ordered as moved.

After the Election. The law requires that bar-rooms shall be closed on election day, and if the law was carried out yesterday, a numerous supply had evidently been procured on the day previous. Many free and independent electors of this city were celebrating the occasion last night, and from all appearances are still celebrating it. The streets rung with the shouts of incensed individuals all shades and complexions, who vied with each other in the amount of side-walk they could cover in the shortest time. This morning a single head of young man considerably under the influence, dashed along Prince William street. The crowd was shouting vociferously, and created only a ripple of admiration. A most blasphemous character run Charlotte street for a length of time this morning. He was in a highly entertaining spirit, but failed to amuse. The police who guard this section of the town were in the search of a few several blocks away at a time and caught a single head of young man considerably under the influence, dashed along Prince William street. The crowd was shouting vociferously, and created only a ripple of admiration. A most blasphemous character run Charlotte street for a length of time this morning. He was in a highly entertaining spirit, but failed to amuse. The police who guard this section of the town were in the search of a few several blocks away at a time and caught a single head of young man considerably under the influence, dashed along Prince William street.

Spain's Free Trade Ministry. MADRID, Jan. 21.—The new ministers are all free traders. Sagasta desired to give some places to protection liberals but he was unable to assent to their demands for an increase in the tariff which they made a condition of their taking office.

THE ELECTIONS.

Result of the Contest in the Several Counties Yesterday. The Gazette yesterday instituted a new departure in St. John journalism, by publishing not only the returns of St. John city and county but also a considerable portion of the returns from York and Westmorland counties. This Gazette was enabled to get those returns through telephone connections and the Canadian Pacific Telegraph Company. Formerly the people of St. John were obliged to wait until far into the night or until the next day before enough of the returns were received to show which way the elections had gone. With the assistance of the Western Union and Canadian Pacific Telegraph Companies we are enabled to give the following additional information about the elections.

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

ALBERT. The following are the total figures of the election according to the sheriff's count. City..... 4129

SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat, the antipodean scored a terrific left punch and the Spitzer weakened. Murphy followed up his advantage, and in the 13th round inflicted such punishment on Weir that the latter's heart failed him, and when he arose, comparatively strong, in the 14th, the first blow which sent him down offered an excuse for quitting, and with the plea that his wrist was broken he retired to his corner and gave up the battle. Subsequent investigation showed that the wrist was intact. Little regret is expressed here at the triumph of the Australian.

THE RING. THE WIFE'S RECENT DEFEAT. Speaking of Weir's recent defeat by Murphy, the Boston Herald says: Murphy's success was somewhat of a surprise to many, but some who know the Spitzer well were prepared for such an outcome. Weir's friends protested to believe that the fight was sold by the wily easterner, but little faith is placed in that theory by conservative men. The most probable solution of the surprise is the easiest one. Weir, in previous battles, has by his cleverness escaped hard punishment, while inflicting much on his opponent. In his latest battle he had his antagonist nearly done, when, with a desperation born of impending defeat