LOCAL MATTERS.

For additional Local News see First Page.

PT LEPREAUX, 9 a. m.—Wind southwest, calm, hazy. Therm. 54. Four schooners inward, one three-masted, three other schooners and pilot boat, No 1, outward.

THE NEPTUNE was placed on Carson's blocks this morning where she will be painted and overhauled.

RESIGNED.—Mr. W. C. Sterling, manager of the Sun, has resigned his position. He will probably begin business in St. John on his own account in the course of a few weeks.

TO WATTER'S LANDING.—Tomorrow the Brussels street Baptist church picnic will go to Watters' landing, the steamer leaving Indiantown at half past eight o'clock. It will be a basket picnic and like all picnics of this church will doubtless be a well patronized and enjoyable outing.

A ST. JOHN BOY.—Leonard G. Kirk, son of James Kirk, High street, North end, who left St. John eight years ago, is here on a visit to his relatives. Mr. Kirk is a member of the firm of Mulherin, Piatti & Kirk, steam and heating apparatus manufacturers, New York, and is notified by his firm of a contract being signed in his absence of an $8,000 job at Bedford Park, N. Y., and requesting his immediate presence.

ANOTHER POOR FAMILY.—Frederick Johnston and Ann Johnston, a young married couple were lodgers at the police station last evening. They are natives of Nova Scotia, but have come recently from the United States, arriving here, Saturday. They are in extremely needy circumstances, and though they stayed with a relative here. Saturday night, they were unable to do this on the following night, and had to seek the police station for shelter.

WANT TO KNOW WHY.—Some of the business firms in and about St. John are anxiously looking for a couple of advertising agents who came here last year, soliciting advertisements for books of views to be put on the river steamers. They got a number of firms to take spaces, and the spaces were paid for in advance. The books were, eventually, sent to the steamers, but they were locked up instead of being placed in the the saloons, because the agents neglected to pay for this privilege.

AN INQUEST was held by Coroner Berryman Saturday evening on the body of the boy Gustave Johnston, who was killed Friday evening by falling from the back of his pony on Pond street. The jury rendered a verdict that the boy had come to his death by being thrown from a young horse which had been rendered unmanageable by the barking of a dog. The injury causing death was a fracture of the occipital bone, and it was thought that the neck had been dislocated. The boy's funeral was held yesterday afternoon and was very largely attended.

CLIMO'S PHOTOS stand alone as pictures of superior artistic merit, and the prices are as low as the machine-made article. 85 Germain St.

North Street Again.

As a general thing St. John is looked upon as a healthy city. It is a healthy city, and according to statistics is high up on the list of healthy localities in the Dominion. Yet there are some places in St. John that are a stain to its fair name, and a disgrace to a community that would permit such places to exist.

The GAZETTE has on several occasions pointed out North street as one of the worst examples of this. It does not need to be pointed out to anybody except apparently the board of aldermen, who about election times are so zealous after the welfare of the wards they are seeking to represent. For a number of years it has been the intention of the council to have North street looked after and put into a condition of decency. And they even went so far as to order the gutters to be flushed early every morning.

Imagine a street leading directly into the principal thoroughfare of the city, reeking with such offensive odors that a flushing process daily, is necessary, to protect the public health. Since the union of the two cities, and the laying of the pavement the traffic on Mill street has increased greatly, and there is not one of the many who pass along that way that does not view with disgust the state in which North street is allowed to remain. The upper part of the street is practically an alley of tumble-down houses, narrow and supplied with gutters that are a thousand times worse than no gutters at all. Here water and refuse thrown from the dwelling houses, collect all day, and in the morning this is only partially washed away. The chairman of the Board of Health, Judge Watters, has repeatedly called the attention of the council to this, and he has warned them that should an epidemic break out this is one of the dangerous places in the city because of its proximity to the business streets, and because every stench from its neighborhood is borne out to the streets adjacent. Prevention is always better than cure, and the board of health are satisfied that if they continue to urge the common council to act, North street may receive the required attention before many years.

Up River.

(Fredericton Gleaner.)

A York street editor returned last night from a trip to St. John, where he had been attending the National division, Sons of Temperance. On his doorstep this morning reposed thirty straw cases that had at one time enclosed some high old times. The question is, who accompanied the cases during the said times?

Mrs. Chas. H. Hatt, second daughter of Alex. Gibson, of Marysville, has been very ill for some weeks. Drs. Bayard and Berryman, of St. John, were sent for and arrived last night and held a consultation.

The story comes from Andover and is vouched for by one of the citizens, who tells the tale as follows: A small trout found its way through the water pipes into a cask on his premises and as several small heads were peering curiously at it through the water, it suddenly jumped and caught one little nose, dropping back instantly. As the child's story was hard to credit, older ones of the family dipped their fingers in and were not left long in doubt as to the result. It is now so tame that crumbs held above water are taken readily.

A very sad accident occurred at St. Thomas, Carleton Co., on Sunday morning. A little boy fifteen months old, son of William Mulherrin, was playing about the house, his mother had stepped out of doors for a instant, while his father was lying down in a bedroom off the kitchen. The alarm was first given by a little sister of the boy crying out to its mother that her brother was in the buttermilk. Off the kitchen was a pan try, and in it stood a firkin partially filled with buttermilk. The boy had reached the firkin, succeeded in removing the cover and, in some way, fell in head first. Of course the parents rushed to the spot and the father removed the child, but life was extinct.

Work for the Unemployed.

That the work at the new opera house is being pushed on as speedily as possible is shown by the fact that about twenty additional men have been engaged. The builders have been looking for men for a few days past, and to-day a few of the millmen, who have struck, were put to work. A number more will go on to-morrow. There is considerable work to be done before the opera house will be ready for occupation, but it will be completed before September. The directors have fixed the date of opening about September 10.

Equity Court.

The case of the N. B. Telephone Co. vs the St. John Gas Light Co. was taken up again this morning at the Equity Court, Attorney General Blair and A. A. Stockton, Q. C. for plaintiffs, and John Kerr and Dr. F. E. Barker, Q. C. for defendants.

Lawn Tennis Wins the Championship.

THE WENTWORTH, Newcastle, N. H., July 10.—To-day saw the conclusion of the tennis tournament which has been going on here during the past four days.

F. H. Hovey and Hugh Tallant, both Harvard men, met in the final round of the singles. Play was started about 10 a. m., and, notwithstanding the early hour, many of the guests and visitors from the surrounding cottages were on hand to see the fun.

Tallant took the first set, 6—4, playing in almost faultless style. He seemed to be everywhere at once, and during the progress of the set Hovey seemed unable to cope with him. Hovey smashed and served, as usual, in his own inimitable way, but nothnig could withstand Tallant, who was playing in championship form.

Tallant started off with a love game in the second set, but could not keep the gait up. Hovey improved, while Tallant retrograded, and eventually lost the set, 4—6.

Tallant then went off in his play, and Hovey won a love set. Side line shots, aces on service, laufords and lobs all "came off" in rapid succession at Hovey's bidding.

In the fourth set Hovey continued his victorious career, and, taking the first four games, succeeded making a run of 11 games consecutively, a wonderful achievement against a player of Tallant's calibre. Tallant took the fifth and seventh games and Hovey the sixth and eighth. These victories gave Hovey the set and match. The score was 6—4, 4—6, 0—6, 2—6.

THE GAME TOO SCIENTIFIC.

A London, Eng., correspondent writes: "There is much evidence on all sides nowadays of a decline in the popularity of lawn tennis among the ladies. The entries of ladies for the championship games at Wimbledon betray a striking absence of first-class players. The fact is the game has become too scientific, and this has caused a reversion in favor of croquet and other simpler games, which are much more suitable for social recreation. Lawn tennis is ceasing to be a fit pastime for amateurs, as the accumulation of detailed rules and the great physical strength required in the most hotly contested games gives it the air of a professional pursuit, like other games in which rigid regulation and sheer muscle are salient features, thus making it distasteful to the people."

The Turf.

SURFOOT WINS A £10,000 RACE.

LONDON, July 10.—This was the first day of the Sandown second summer meeting. The race of the day was that for the Eclipse stakes, 10,000 sovereigns, the second horse to receive 500 sovereigns, the nominator of the winner 50 sovereigns, and the third 100 sovereigns out of the stakes.

Sir Frederick Johnstone's colt Common, by Isonomy—Thistle, was a warm favorite in the betting, but the best of the Derby winner could do was to finish third, the lucky horse turning up in Mr. A. W. Merrys Surefoot, by Wisdom—Galopin. M. E. Blanc's Gouverneur was second.

Surefoot carried 142 pounds, Common and Gouverneur 127.

The Opera.

Saturday night the Bijou Opera company sang Pinafore to a good house, giving the best of satisfaction. Miss Randall as usual appeared charming, and added to her already large number of friends. The company as a whole have given such satisfaction and presented the various operas in such a manner as to merit the verdict of being above the average opera company. Home Sweet Home was greated with rounds of applause and to night the company will put on the great success The Princess of Trebizonde in which Miss Randall by special request will sing The Last Rose of Summer. It should be greeted with a full house for those who were so fortunate as to hear her last week will not miss an opportunity to go again.

On Tuesday night the Mikado will be presented, for which special scenery and electrical effects have been prepared to make this performance a complete success.

Police Court.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE 12TH.

A Great Procession Yesterday and a Big Demonstration at St. Martins Today.

Yesterday, the 12th of July, was a bautiful Sunday and afforded an excellent chance for the Orangemen to show off to the best advantage in their church parade, and for the people generally to see the procession. The east side city lodges assembled at the King street hall and formed in procession on Germain street. They soon were joined by the Carleton lodges who marched over headed by the Carleton Cornet band, and a little later came Dominion Lodge, No. 141, from the North end headed by the Artillery band. The procession which was marshalled by J. J. Gordon, Wm. McClelland and Wm. Grant, was formed upon Germain street as follows:

A number of beautiful banners were carried belonging to the preceptories, and Dominion, and Verner, York and Johnston lodges. The streets were crowded with people along the route of march, which was along Germain to Duke street, up Duke to Charlotte and Coburg and into Carleton street to Calvin church. The parade was much admired as the 500 or more members of the order who took part in it wore full regalia and marched in real military style,

At Calvin church, Rev. T. F. Fullerton, a member of the order, preached an appropriate sermon and after the service was concluded the procession reformed and the lodges marched back to their halls, and dispersed.

The Orangemen of St. John county, west, assembled at the Fairville Orange hall, and marched in procession from there to the church of the Good Shepherd and attended divine service.

THE DEMONSTRATION TODAY.

The St. John county (east) lodges have their demonstration today at St. Martins. The lodges formed in procession, headed by the Artillery band, and marched to the depot this morning shortly after eight o'clock.

The train left at 8.30 and as the day's programme at St. Martins was a good one and the weather so fine for enjoying it, the excursion was well patronized and the Orangemen had plenty of company.

Mr. Barnes in the City.

Mr. Barnes, of New York, arrived in the city yesterday by the steamer New Brunswick, and was welcomed on the wharf by a number of admirers who, while having seen him before—had often read and heard of him;—among the number were several dignitaries and business men, who have arranged for a number of seats for his first appearance this evening at the Institute, where he will be introduced to the general public by Bradley's players. All who have read of his exciting adventures in England and France will be sure to be delighted at the opportunity of seeing them reproduced in a dramatic and realistic manner by this excellent company. The production will be on a grand scale—scenic artists having brought out, by the magic of their brushes, the places made familiar by the reading of the story.

Edmund Collier is in appearance all that can be desired for Mr. Barnes and his patronage should be a grand one Grace Huntington, in Marina, has a character exactly suited to her emotional ability—Hudson Liston will reveal dramatic art in "Danela." Jessie Villiers—will sing and dance her way into popular favor as Maude Chartres. Wm. Flynn and C. P. Montaine have excellent characters in Anstruther and Tomaso. Mestayer, Reynolds, Scott. The Misses Genevieve Reynolds, Nellie Cross, and Helen Brooks, a charming actress who makes her first appearance tonight and all the members of the company will be in the cast. A rousing house is certain to greet Mr. Barnes of New York.

In Halifax.

Ada Shepherd (colored) was arrested yesterday on the charge of being drunk, assaulting persons and breaking windows. Shortly after Ada was placed under arrest a Royal Artilleryman applied to Policeman Wilson, who was on duty at the station, for permission to see the magistrate as he intended to marry Ada, and would do so at once if the court would give her her liberty. The artilleryman said that to show that he meant business he would be married at the police station. His offer is being considered. Ada comes up for examination on Monday. She weighs about 190 pounds and is but 18 years old.—Halifax Mail.

—A man under the influence of liquor was seen late last night in Spring Gardens with a revolver in his hand, hunting for a man named Smith, who, he said, had knocked a cigar out of his hand. The party with the revolver expressed an anxiety for blood.—Halifax Echo.

I do not permit my Watches to get ahead of time, but I try and keep up with every new style that I feel is perfectly reliable, and lately I have been adding some regular Jet Beauties to my well assorted stock in Gold, Silver and Filled Cases, that I feel that at the prices they are marked ought to go and give mutual satisfaction.
