THE METROPOLITICAL QUESTION.

Anglican Church in Canada was finally settled, so far as the Church itself can settle it, by the vote taken in the Provincial Synod on Tuesday evening. By an overwhelming majority it was decided that no provisions of letters patent should be allowed to interfere with the right of the Church to elect its own Metropolitan. The diversity of opinion on the subject among legal men has hitherto been very great; but the argument submitted to the Synod by Chief Justice Allen in opposition to the claims of Montreal, was admitted by all who heard it, and in the Synod were many of the leading lawyers dation on the I.
