MARION BALL POSTPONED—Friday, January 6th, the date fixed for the Marion Ball, Newcastle, being a holiday, the ball has been postponed till Tuesday, January 17th. JOHN H. LAWSON & CO. BACK TO HIS OLD LOVE—It seems that Mr. Coleman, proprietor of the Barker, has had enough of acetylene gas, and that he has asked the Fredericton gaslight company to resume the lighting of the hotel. Mr. Coleman is congratulated on his return to the old order of things.—Fron Herald, Dec. 29th.

Mr. Coleman says he is now asked a much advanced rate for acetylene, or calcium acetylide, and if he gave it his light would be too expensive.

MR. WEBBER is again in town with his talented wife and her supporters of the Boston Comedy Company. They have been playing to good houses in St. John's, and the papers of that city are unanimous in favorable mention of their performances. The Webbers need no commendation here, however, as they are so well and favorably known to our people. We hope they will receive the encouragement they merit. Let their audiences be large.

THE MIDDLE SCHOOL, at Black River, taught by Miss F. D. Gillies was examined recognized in the late Senator Adams one who was an important factor in the affairs of the county, and who would be greatly missed from its public life. While some of them might have differed from him politically, by none could have any hesitation in recognizing his abilities and usefulness.

On motion of aid. Maher, seconded by aid. Snowball it was unanimously resolved that as a mark of respect to the memory of the deceased Senator, the Mayor and council attend the funeral in a body.

On motion of aid. Robinson, chairman of the fire committee, it was ordered that the offer by the Dominion pulp company of $80 for the remaining hand engine belonging to the town be accepted.

Presentation to Rev. Wm. Hamilton. An esteemed correspondent writes—We warmly congratulate the Rev. Wm. Hamilton on the valued proof of friendship he has recently received from a quorum of the congregation. These proofs speak out loud for themselves. On the past week, Mr. Hamilton had returned home from some preaching engagements. He had thought of spending his Christmas quietly and alone with his family. But this was not to be. One evening, in the midst of this festive season, his dwelling was literally invaded by a goodly number of the Kingston people. These were members of St. Andrew's church who had come to surprise their minister. Mr. Hamilton, we believe, felt somewhat surprised, but only for a few minutes. Mr. John Jardine, secretary of the trustees of Kingston church, at once took forth, and in the name of those present, presented Mr. Hamilton with affectionate address and a well-filled purse. The address runs thus—

"We, the undersigned, friends of the Rev. Wm. Hamilton, being desirous of showing our appreciation of the past services in the community, have subscribed the sum set opposite our respective names as a token of our esteem at this festive season of the year." This address is signed by the subscribers; a considerable number of the more important members of St. Andrew's church, whose names we need not give here. It is pleasant to observe that Mr. Hamilton has so many warm friends in his old congregation. But we are by no means surprised at this. Ten years of a faithful ministry are not so readily forgotten. Those who remember the good, earnest, hard worker he did while minister of Kingston. How many downcast spirits has he cheered! How many mourning hearts has he comforted! In every department of his work—in preaching, in visiting, in attending to his literary duties he was unwearied, and proved himself a diligent and successful minister. We cordially unite with Kingston friends in offering hearty congratulations. We rejoice in this Christmas presentation, not merely because it gives gratification to the friends who remember the good, earnest, hard worker he did while minister of Kingston. How many downcast spirits has he cheered! How many mourning hearts has he comforted! St. Andrew's Church Items.

The young people of St. Andrew's church presented their pastor, the Rev. D. Henderson, with a beautiful silver cake basket and salver on Christmas eve.

Mr. W. S. Loggie, superintendent, made an appeal to St. Andrew's Sabbath School for a collection for missions on Christmas Sabbath and received in response some $15. This fact reflects credit on the Sunday School.

A special X'mas Sunday School service was held in St. Andrew's church on Christmas afternoon, instead of the usual S. S. exercises. The program was well sustained by Rev. D. Henderson, the pastor, Mr. W. S. Loggie, the superintendent, Miss Edgar, the efficient organist of the church, and the children.

On Thursday evening of last week, the children again assembled in the hall, at the invitation of the teachers, and were well entertained for a few hours by magic lantern views given by Mr. D. Ferguson, recitations, music, &c., and addresses by Mr. Henderson, Mr. Calder (Loggieville) and Mr. Loggie. The bags of candies, distributed by the teachers put cheer and gladness into the faces of the coming men and women of St. Andrew's church. Miss Edgar, as usual, played the accompaniments and on the whole, a delightful evening was spent.

Trade Notes.

Rev. A. Trudel, curate of the parish, left us Monday to go to Lower Carleton. He is replaced by Rev. J. Whiston, who arrived here yesterday.

The Rev. Sisters of the Hotel Dieu, have quite a lot of patients. The good treatment these receive, induce other weak persons to undergo special medical care.

Mr. James Archer, agent for G. A. Lonsbury & Co., has erected an elegant building in the centre of the village. It is hoped that he will soon get a consort worthy of such a magnificent house.

There are hardly any smelts this season. The fishermen find it very tedious to pass whole days catching nothing. Four seals were caught in the nets.

Chatham Town Council.

The Mayor and aldermen of Chatham met in the Town Hall on Monday evening and read the report of the committee on the purpose of opening and considering the tender received for the second $10,000 of the $20,000 bond issue at 4% authorized by the last session of the legislature.

Soon after 7.30 o'clock His Worship, Mayor Winslow, called the council to order in the council chamber. He said he had great pleasure in wishing them all a happy New Year and hoped that the town would continue to prosper in the future as it had in the past.

The clerk having read the minutes, which were approved, the Mayor said it had been generally recognized that to-day was a public holiday, although it had not been proclaimed as such, and as it was the day of the regular meeting of the council, and it had been advertised that the bond tenders would be received up to this evening at six o'clock, he had thought it proper that the council should meet in the regular way and having opened and considered these tenders, deal with them. Offers for the bonds had been sent in by six different firms or individuals, the highest of which was made by Hon. L. J. Tweedie, Q. C., of Chatham, his tender being at 5.75 premium, and the committee recommended the acceptance of Mr. Tweedie's offer.

On motion of aid. Loggie, chairman of the finance committee, seconded by aid. Snowball, it was ordered that Mr. Tweedie's tender be accepted and the Mayor and Town Treasurer authorized to execute and deliver the bonds and receive the amount of the tender, and deposit the same in the Bank of Montreal to the credit of the bond account. The Mayor said that all present had not thought it necessary, in view of the fact that this was, practically, a holiday, to deal with the usual business ready; and he suggested that the council adjourn, and he would call a special meeting for Monday next for the transaction of regular business. Before receiving a motion to adjourn, however, he thought it right to refer to the death of Hon. Michael Adams, Senator, which took place last evening. The event had caused him deep regret, and, no doubt, the same feeling pervaded the whole community. They all most out of respect to the dead chairman of the Manhattan borough.

Mr. Peters, who was 54 years of age, was the youngest son of the late Benj. L. Peters, police magistrate of St. John, a brother of the late Judge, B. Lester Peters, and a member of a well known New Brunswick family.

On motion of aid. Maher, seconded by aid. Snowball it was unanimously resolved that as a mark of respect to the memory of the deceased Senator, the Mayor and council attend the funeral in a body.

On motion of aid. Robinson, chairman of the fire committee, it was ordered that the offer by the Dominion pulp company of $80 for the remaining hand engine belonging to the town be accepted.

fight, which went in until the last bear of six was killed. Hats were now recovered and damages repaired, as far as could be, for the time. Then, both men went into the cave which proved to be of considerable size and a rendezvous for bears for years. Here a harsh growl fell on their ears, and not caring for a second fight without fuller repairs, it was thought better to take a rest. One of the men went for a chain to the landing and made a loop in which the bear, in coming out, went into and was held and dispatched.

The result of the day's work was seven bears. Mr. Cashin and his partner immediately went to work and removed the skins, which they sold to Mr. Howard Holmes, who paid a good price for them. Mr. Cashin does not think the killing of 7 bears in one day without a gun or fire arm was a very great feat. He says it pays better than getting logs—that is if bears are plentiful enough.

If these bears had been met with earlier in the season they would have been more than a match for the two men. I have known one bear to be very dangerous. No doubt, these bears, on coming out to the light from a dark cave, were somewhat confused at first. It was noticed that the longer they were out the better they fought. At any rate, it would not have done for any weakling to have undertaken Mr. Cashin's job that day. Cashin's River keeps up its reputation as a paradise for sportsmen, where big game of all kinds abound, such as bears, deer, caribou and moose.
