mediate action. But for my determination to leave no stone unturned to bring about action upon this project. I should not have remained so long here. It is now brought to the point where concrete terms are being considered. The prime minister is most favorably impressed, and I have every confidence that the Hudson's Bay railway will within a comparatively short time he an actuality.

The inter-society league game between the St. Josephs and F. M. As did not start until 7.18 o'clock last evening and the delay was unfavorably noticed by the 300 spectators present. This, however, was compensated for by a fast game. The teams played four innings without scoring and put up a good exhibition of ball. McGuig-railway will within a comparatively short time he an actuality.

HIGH TRIBUTE TO MR.

Having received from James Reyn- Kelly, s.s.2

the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the board of health learns with sincere regret that owing to advancing years Mr. Reynolds finds it necessary to sever his connection with this board, of which he has been a member for seventeen years and chairman for fifteen. Every member of the board appreciates most highly the business capacity, the devotion to duty and the unfailing courtesy which have ever been shown by its chairman since his connection with the board, and which have gained for him not only our admiration but our most affectionate respect.

The work of building the double track into Carleton is now well under way. This Carleton service should ove a profitable investment, as it is prove a profitable investment, as it is being well patronized. The number of workmen who use the line in going to and from their employment is noticeably large. The Fairville line, howards ably large. ever, has apparently no such great patronage. The Seaside Park still draws as large crowds as before, and with the band there every fine evening there is a marked difference in the number of people on the streets in the

The reason the report is published two years late is explained by the fact that the returns from the townships and municipalities are received half-yearly by the Divisional Registrar, and when these are turned in, the next year is spent in binding and indexing the reports by counties, and the following year the county reports are complied Altogether there are 800 municipalities,
