

LOUISA MAY'S SOLO.

'Louisa May is to sing a solo at the celebration,' Mrs. Hatfield was explaining to a visitor. 'And I don't know but she'll be too fine to speak to her own folks when she's rigged out in all her new things. She's worked real faithful pickin' strawberries and doing all sorts of chores to pay for what she's to have. She's a good girl, Louisa is.'

Oh! say does that star-spangled banner yet wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave? Something of the lofty spirit of the grand old song suddenly filled Louisa May's heart, and made her forget her wounded feelings. Her grandfather held the flag so that its folds were falling about her, and gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.

ADVICE IN CHOOSING A WIFE.

Rev. Mr. Bustard Lays Down Some Good Rules. The sermon on marriage recently delivered by the Rev. W. W. Bustard of the Dudley Street Baptist church, Boston, has attracted much attention. His subject was 'Selecting a Wife, and he gave utterance to some plain words on marriage and divorce. In part he said:

Eats Clothes

If your washing medium does that, what matters its cheapness or its working power? Is it safe? That's the first thing. Some imitations of PEARLINE are not safe. They eat the clothes, slowly, but surely. Don't experiment. You are sure of PEARLINE; stick to it; it is standard, tested, proved, by years of use and millions of women.

Why He Kipt a Dog.

A prominent dog-ancier and wealthy man of Philadelphia stepped into a grocery the other night, says the Press, and accidentally tumbled over a fat old German who was sitting in a corner smoking his pipe. Under his chair was the most remarkable specimen of a dog that the gentleman had ever seen. It had the appearance of a pug with rough red hair and a long tail. It was impossible to resist laughing at the placid old man and his nondescript dog. 'What kind of a dog is that?' asked the gentleman. 'I don't know,' replied the German. 'I suppose you use him for hunting?' 'No.' 'Is he good for anything?' 'No.' 'Then why do you value him so?' 'Because he likes me,' said the old fellow still puffing his pipe, and the expression of the dog as he looked up from under the chair, fully confirmed the statement. 'There is no better or stronger reason than that,' asserted the gentleman, emphatically, as he walked away.

It Was all the Same.

The moment he stepped into the hotel office it could be seen that he had been 'out with the boys.' His step was uncertain and his hand unsteady. He started to the stenographer's desk and attempted to dictate to the young lady who presided over the machine. His dispatch ran: 'My (hic) dear wife (hic): I will not be home to night (hic), as I am going to Keukkauna (hic).' 'How do you spell Kaukauna?' asked the stenographer. 'Don't you know how to spell (hic) Kaukauna?' 'No. I do not,' answered the young lady. 'Then (hic) make it Green B. y.'
