ST. JOHN, N. S., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 11, 1914.

A STRIKING CONTRAST.

In the House of Commons on Monday Mr. F. B. Carvell, Liberal member for Carleton County, charged that money had been misappropriated in the construction of the Southampton Railway, and asked that the Government take official notice of the fact and appoint a commission to investigate.

Mr. H. F. MacLeod, member for York, and a supporter of the Government, expressed the same view. Hon. Dr. Reid, who, in the absence of Hon. Frank Cochrane, is acting Minister of Railways and in whose department the matter falls, was prompt to promise a full investigation of all the circumstances surrounding the construction of the railway and the charged misappropriation of public funds.

The fact that a full investigation has been promised seems to have escaped the attention of the little brother of the Telegraph which, in last evening's issue, assumed the high-minded pose, occasionally characteristic of it and other journals supporting that eminent purist, Mr. Pugsley, and with a fine show of righteous indignation asked what Mr. Borden was about it. The question was answered before it was asked. One of Mr. Borden's responsible ministers promised a complete investigation and there is no doubt the promise will be kept.

Whether Mr. Carvell's charge has foundation is a matter for enquiry. If they should be proven correct, Mr. Carvell will be more fortunate in this than on previous occasions when he dealt in insinuations rather than charges and was promptly shown up by other members of the House. The notable fact is that a Minister of the Crown has promised the charges shall be probed and the truth will come out.

The attitude of the present Government in this matter is in striking contrast to the manner in which the Laurier Government burked investigation of the Transcontinental Railway scandal. Charge after charge was made that the construction of the National Transcontinental Railway was merely serving as an excuse for graft but Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and even Mr. Pugsley took no action. No less a personage than the late Charles M. Hays, president of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, wrote a personal letter of protest to Sir Wilfrid regarding the non-fulfillment of work by the Davis Company, and demanded that their contracts be cancelled.

Sir Wilfrid did not reply to this letter, but two months later, Mr. Hays received a reply from Mr. Parent, chairman of the Transcontinental Railway Commission, and in that letter, Mr. Parent, speaking for the commissioners, and through them for the Government which appointed them, refused point blank to cancel the contracts. As it turned out the Davis firm did no work at all on the contracts but assigned them to the firm of O'Brien, O'Gorman and MacDougall of Montreal, retaining as their share for the assignment the sum of ten per cent. The Transcontinental Railway commissioners, or the Government which employed them, made no attempt to press for the completion of the work in the first place. They made no protest against the assignment of the contract, although by that assignment the Davis firm was enabled to reap a profit of $740,000 without "turning a spadeful."

These facts will not down. Neither can they be explained away on the ground of differences of opinion on the part of engineers. There was dishonest practice. Sir Wilfrid Laurier's attention was called by Mr. Charles M. Hays to the fact that there had been waste of money and Sir Wilfrid sat dumb. The chairman of the Transcontinental Commission received similar information and he refused to make a change that would have saved thousands of dollars to the people. Thus the responsibility rested not upon a member of a provincial legislature, as the Liberal newspapers would have it appear in the Southampton Railway case, but upon the whole Dominion Government led by Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

In the Southampton Railway case the minister under whose department the matter comes has promised a full investigation. In the National Transcontinental Railway case Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his ministers burked an investigation, and it was only after his Government had gone down to defeat that the people of Canada were able to learn the facts.

In the face of the facts in both cases it is more impudence for a Liberal newspaper to ask what Mr. Borden will do about it. Already it is known that he will do what any other honest man would do in the circumstances, investigate the case. This was not the course adopted by Sir Wilfrid Laurier when the evidence of scandal did not come from a member of an opposing party but from a reliable man of eminence whose interest it was to see that the money of the people, upon which he later would have to pay interest, was not wasted. Mr. Hays' intention was not to make political capital but to save money for the people of Canada and, incidentally, interest charges for his own company. But Sir Wilfrid did not concern himself in saving; Sir Wilfrid did not wish to investigate and if his Government had not been defeated, two years ago, the Canadian people would not have learned the truth even now.

There is one fact which Liberals may take well to heart. Whether Mr. Carvell's charges are true or false the Borden Government will investigate them. The Southampton Railway matter will not receive the treatment which Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his supporters accorded to the National Transcontinental Railway charges or to the Trent Valley Canal steal.

THE CIVIC ELECTIONS

The decision of Commissioner Schofield to retire from civic life will be heard with much regret by all who have followed his course at City Hall. Mr. Schofield has not enjoyed robust health and his physicians have ordered that he must take a long rest, hence his determination to sever connection with the civic government.

Commissioner Schofield's action means that, next month, the citizens will be called upon to vote for at least three commissioners at the mayor. There is also an intimation that Commissioner McLellan may withdraw from public life, in which event the balloting will be for a complete new council. Already numerous candidates have announced themselves and there will be no scarcity of material from which to make a selection.

It will be conceded by most people that what success has been won at City Hall during the first term of government under commission has been, to some extent, due to the personnel of the council. As far as know they have all worked faithfully and in what they believed to be the best interests of the city. In securing for any form of government a fair trial the personal equation is a large factor. A council of seven men of St. John's best and brightest citizens, if it were possible to get them, could have worked good results. A commission of five good men will also work good results, but whatever the form of government the main factor to be considered is always the men.

In the forthcoming elections it is of the most importance that St. John should be represented by the very best men that can be secured, and in this all good citizens will agree. It matters not whether they were, or were not, in favor of the commission plan at the outset. The voters have settled that question and the thing to do now is to work, as in the past, to secure the very best results from it. The industrial depression throughout the world which, in a measure, has affected this city, with others, is passing away. The coming summer should be a busy one and there should be an increase in the general prosperity. St. John must not go back, consequently it is of the greatest importance to every citizen that the council chosen in the coming elections should be up to the very best standard of the past, and, if possible, an improvement on any of them.

The Telegraph remarks "We have to fight against the interests that debase governments and 'do' the people." Does this high-minded and altogether commendable attitude preclude another change of paymaster in Canterbury street? The Telegraph is late in coming to its opinion. The people of Canada had an idea very like this one about the 21st of September, 1911, and the concrete effect of it, when it got in motion, was to cause Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his supporters to move to seats on the left of Mr. Speaker. And evidence of today shows that the change was not made too soon. But why is the Telegraph agitated? What threatens Mr. Pugsley?

There will be general regret throughout the city today over the death of the High Sheriff, Stephen S. DeForest. Possibly no citizen was more widely known or deservedly popular. As a merchant he won the esteem of the business community, as a man he enjoyed the close friendship of a large circle, and as an officer of the crown, his conscientious servant knowing neither fear nor favor in the discharge of his duty. St. John has lost an excellent citizen.

A Toronto wife beater has been sentenced to twenty lashes. There will be general approval of the lashes, but why should his wife and family be forced to maintain themselves during the period of his jail term.

Diary of Events

HISTORIC DAYS IN CANADA

A storm of impassioned oratory swept over the House of Commons twenty-eight years ago today, beginning with the introduction of Mr. Landry's famous resolution asking the House to express regret at the sentence of death passed upon Louis Riel which was carried into execution. Mr. Landry, a Conservative, did not mince words in condemning the government for the death of Riel, which he called a "breach of the laws of justice and humanity, the gratification of a desire for vengeance and the heartless and wanton sacrifice of a French-Canadian Catholic upon the altar of sectarian hatred and bigotry." He quoted the statement of the French-Canadian Conservative journal, "Le Monde," published in Montreal, which had been offered as a holocaust; and Orangemen had hanged him for hate and to satisfy an old thirst for revenge.
