

A social event which has been anticipated with pleasure by the older as well as the younger set, was the Bal Poudre given under the auspices of the DeMolay Chapter, I. O. D. E., in the Knights of Columbus hall, on Monday evening. The entrance to the ball room was attractively decorated with fir trees forming a screen behind which lemon drinks were served during the evening. In the ball room all the Christmas wreaths with scarlet ribbons and greenery, were effectively used in the decorations. The supper table had in the center a miniature bank of snow by eight derry render. From the chandelier to the center of the table ropes of tinsel were suspended on which were hung Christmas bells. Mrs. Dora E. Fraser, the hostess, and Mrs. Walter W. White presided. Jones orchestra provided excellent music for the programme of dances. A feature of the evening was a moon dance, when at a given signal the lights were lowered and the moon passed majestically over the heads of the dancers. The guests were received by the Regent, Mrs. George K. McLeod, who wore black satin, with a tunic not trimmed with bands of jet, pearl and diamond jewelry—poudre collar; Mrs. Walter Foster, in a beautiful gown of blue velvet, with trimmings of cloth of silver and diamond jewelry—poudre collar; and Mrs. Busby in black embroidered Brussels net over satin, pearl and sapphire jewelry—poudre collar. At the entrance of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Pugsley and the Governor's aids, Major Alexander McMillan and Major William Vassie, the orchestra played the National Anthem, after which the programme of dances was enjoyed. Fraser, formerly of Rousesau, became the bride of Mr. Halsey Millett, a prominent young man of Sydney, Australia. The church had been beautifully decorated for the occasion with palms, white carnations, and stivola. AN IDEAL TONIC FOR WEAK PEOPLE

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Act Directly on the Blood and Nerves.

Food is as important to the sick person as medicine, more so in most cases. A badly chosen diet may retard recovery, but health and the natural appetite is the best guide to follow; in sickness the appetite is often feeble and depraved.

Proper food and a good tonic will keep most people in good health. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the most popular tonic medicine in the world, harmless and certain in their action, which is to build up the blood and restore the vitality in the run-down system. For growing girls who become thin and pale, for pale, tired women, and for old people who fail in strength, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an ideal tonic. Thousands of people have testified to the health-giving qualities of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and in many homes they are the only medicine used. Among the homes in which the benefit of this medicine has been proved is that of Mr. E. A. Underwood, Kingston, Ont., who says:—

"I have used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with the most beneficial results. As the result of hard work I was very much run down, and my appetite was very poor. I got a supply of the pills, which I used regularly for some weeks, with the result that they restored me to my old-time strength. They also proved a blessing to my daughter, who was in a very anemic condition, and who seemed not to get more than temporary relief from any medicine until she took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She took the pills for about three months, and is now enjoying the best of health. For these reasons I can strongly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

At the first sign that the blood is out of order take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and note the speedy improvement. They make the appetite, health and spirits. You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

which was rounded, and embroidered with pearl beads and she carried a white prayer book with floral book marks, which fell to the hem of her gown. Mrs. Dorothy Fraser, the bride's sister, was her only attendant, and looked very charming in pale pink georgette, black velvet hat with brim of black tulle, and carried pink carnations and asparagus fern tied with pink ribbons. Mr. Fenwick Fraser, brother of the bride, supported the groom. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 135 Rutledge avenue. The drawing rooms like other parts of the house were decorated with palms, pink roses, and jonquills. Mrs. Fraser, mother of the bride, wore a begonia gown of lavender crepe de chene and Georgette, the bodice over cloth of silver, and turban of shaded panes. A Good Appearance

A fine combination of millinery, shoes, hosiery and outer apparel looks better on a good figure than on a poor one.

All women are interested in having what is called "a good appearance." Are you really doing all you can toward that end?

Do your corsets fit you or do you fit your corsets? If your corsets fit your figure, how do you know that your figure is correct in its measurements? Is it symmetrical, of artistic proportions, and graceful? Do you know that no matter what corset you wear, you gradually take its figure lines and consequently that a badly designed corset is going to give you a badly proportioned figure?
