Memorials To Be Unveiled Tomorrow

Handsome Bronze Tablet and Three Panels of Honor Roll to be Unveiled by Senator Thorne in St. Paul's Church

Two of the most striking memorials of the war which the city possesses are to be unveiled in St. Paul's (Valley) Church tomorrow morning at the 11 o'clock service. As a memorial to the noble members of the congregation who made the supreme sacrifice, a handsome bronze tablet is to be placed in the church. This tablet has been specially designed for the situation it is to occupy, and is of pure Gothic design in keeping with the church. It is the work of Messrs. Bradley and Hubbard of Meriden, Conn., and all who see it will agree that it is a very beautiful piece of workmanship. The names are in raised type in the Gothic style, in keeping with the general design of the tablet. To perpetuate the names of those who served in the war, a very fine Honor Roll has been prepared. The three panels on which the names are recorded are placed in a beautiful Gothic design. While between the panels are two shields, one on a richly draped background. The wood-work comes from the Church

CAUSTIC COMMENT ON CITY GOVERNMENT AT LABOR MEETING

Angry Attack on "Failures and Incompetents" at City Hall — Fred Belyea Could Not Get Labor Nomination, But Will be Candidate—Labor Party Declined to Endorse Any Candidates—No Stars in the Firmament of St. John

"I've lost a week's canvassing, but I'm in the contest for commission, anyway," Fred Belyea told the meeting of labor men at the Seamen's Institute last evening. The meeting decided that the Labor Party was not sufficiently organized to take part in the civic elections.

Fred Campbell said he would not be a candidate, nor would R. W. Wigmore.

The chairman of the committee reported that they had decided that it was not advisable to endorse any of the candidates.

Fred Belyea said there were two propositions. If the Trades Council should not follow that, the public meeting should not act in the matter.

Mr. Moore—The committee were appointed to interview certain parties, and if possible to bring forward two more candidates.

John Murphy said organized labor were not showing enough interest in nominating labor candidates. Moreover the situation had changed since their last meeting.

C. H. Stevens moved that the committee's report be adopted and this was agreed to, though not unanimously.

Looking for Votes

Com. Thornton said that during his brief term he had tried to be fair to both organized labor and capitalists. He would be a candidate again, and he wanted support. A man elected must represent all the rate-payers—not one class.

Q.—How much has the city been run in debt since you were elected? A.—I lived within my appropriation in the Safety Department.

A Kick From West Side

Fred Belyea said he was a member of the committee appointed to nominate candidates. He attended the first meeting, but there had been no meeting since and he had been left out. He did not think that was right.

A member of the committee said a telephone message had been sent to Mr. Belyea.

Mr. Belyea said he was a union man, and believed labor contained as good brains as other classes. Once he had sat at the Council Board with the elite of the city. St. John had been unfortunate in its selection of representatives in the past. They did not look forward far enough. The paying question was a card point. They did not know where they were yet.

Regular Monthly Meeting Yesterday

The regular monthly meeting of the Provincial Red Cross Hospital Committee was held yesterday afternoon at the residence of the president, Mrs. J. V. Anglin, Lancaster, Mrs. Anglin presiding.

The entire committee first visited the D. S. C. R. Hospital in Lancaster and were delighted with all they saw in both the Dispensary and Maternity Departments. After adjourning to Mrs. Anglin's much routine business was transacted. The monthly meeting from the D. S. C. R. Hospital, the St. John County Hospital, and the Provincial Hospital for the treatment of nervous diseases, was presented and ordered filed. The treasurer's report showed an expenditure of $421.14 with a balance of $722.50 on hand.

Mrs. W. P. Bonnell, convener of the buying committee, gave a very detailed report of supplies secured for the hospitals. On motion it was decided in the future to present to each new military patient entering the County Hospital a fully equipped personal property card. The secretary was asked to notify the secretary to that effect. Mrs. W. H. Shaw and Mrs. J. H. Doody gave a report on the visiting done at the hospital in East St. John, while Mrs. E. R. Taylor reported for Lancaster.

Mrs. F. Fisher reported that the Stone Church Red Cross Circle has been sending ice cream every other Sunday to the D. S. C. R. Hospital, Lancaster, and that this committee has answered a number of appeals. Mrs. Vroom was appointed to take charge of the special Easter treat for the hospitals. Mrs. Lawrence presented a letter from Major Hooper and it was decided on motion that his request be granted.

The lettering and the painting of the shields have been beautifully carried out by P. W. Woodley of this city. Both Tablet and Honor Roll are the gift of Senator Thorne, who has kindly promised to unveil them tomorrow morning.

Large Attendance At Exhibition

Rooms in Odd Fellows' Hall Were Crowded Yesterday—Wonderful Results Shown from the Vocational Training Classes.

The Harbor Question.

The wonderful results of twenty lessons in dressmaking, millinery and cooking which were shown yesterday at the exhibit of the Home-making Department of the St. John Vocational Committee, should have convinced everyone who attended, the value of the training.

The rooms in the Oddfellows' Hall were crowded yesterday afternoon and evening and all present were loud in their praises of the fine sewing in the pretty hats and the attractive articles of cooked food displayed.

Mrs. W. Edmund Raymond, Mrs. Michael O'Brien and Alexander Wilson are the committee, assisted by Mrs. E. C. Wayman who have been in charge and to them and to the efficient teachers many words of deserved praise were uttered last evening.

The millinery department was under the supervision of Miss Beatrice Murphy and Mrs. James Carleton. Over one hundred well made, beautifully trimmed hats were shown.

The domestic science and dressmaking exhibit was under the supervision of Mrs. Weyman, assisted by the teachers, Mrs. Milligan, Misses Henrietta Northrup, Gladys Dowling and Hall. Many of the delicate wares for sale. The workmanship of the dresses, blouses, undergarments and suits in the dressmaking department was of the highest order and the pupils are certainly to be congratulated upon the progress made in the four months of training.

Evening Session

The meeting last evening was presided over by Dr. A. F. Emery, chairman of the Board of School Trustees and of the Vocational Committee. He explained that the classes are for those who have a chance to learn these useful arts and to overcome the lack of practical training for boys of fourteen and over. He voiced his hope that a permanent building for such education, saying that the interest on bonds issued for such a building would amount to little more than the rental paid for the present rooms used.

Nearly seven hundred scholars were taught in the first classes held and there were four hundred more on the waiting list. He paid a high tribute to the work of Mrs. Raymond, Mrs. O'Brien and Alex. Wilson, also to the teachers for faithful work and to the pupils for successful accomplishment.

Mayor Hayes heartily congratulated the chairman for his deep interest in the work and in connection with the Vocational Education movement. He spoke of the many visitors to City Hall who had asked for funds and said that all must remember if money is spent, taxes will follow. Out of the $425,000 for education, $17,500 had been used for vocational work. Child welfare and hospitals must not be neglected even if we have a little mud on the streets, his worship said.

Telegrams of regret at inability to be present were read from Premier Foster, Fred Magee, M. L. A., and Mr. F. Tassier of St. Joseph's College.

In a very brilliant speech Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, President of the Local Council of Women congratulated the committee, teachers, and pupils and told of the benefit of vocational training in improving the outlook upon life and giving all opportunities to work. Our best people are our best pupils for successful accomplishment.

Dr. H. V. B. Bridges, Principal of the Normal School at Fredericton, spoke of his pleasure in the sub-committee which is concerned in finding teachers for vocational work. Normal School students have fallen off in numbers in the last three years and it is a very difficult problem to get teachers of any kind. It is hoped that Federal funds may be used in training some system whereby teachers may be trained for this important work. He congratulated those present on the excellent showing made.

Commissioner Jones said that it had been stated he was in opposition to this work. This was not strictly true, but he did feel that the outlay was so great the city could not afford it. He would like to see it successful but would also like to see it taken on to the school system.

Professor Fletcher Peacock, Director of Vocational Education for the Province of New Brunswick, referred to a report of a commission on Vocational education made in 1906 which ended thus: "The service will cost much, but whatever the cost it will cost infinitely more to do without it." As to taxation, if you live in parts of Nova Scotia you will get beyond taxes. Taxes are the measure of civilization. Professor Peacock praised the work of the committee, teachers and pupils and told of the summer training school for teachers and efficient workers to be held at Woodstock in July. There are 1200 boys of high school age in St. John who are drifting, not learning any trade and doing nothing, such as every city the size of St. John possesses should be the aim of all interested. A commercial training will be part of the day school curriculum and the teaching of civics an important part of the studies, so that boys and girls will be fitted to be useful members of the community.
