VISITING EDITORS AT FTON OFFICIALLY RECEIVED BY PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT

Were Given An Automobile Trip About the City and Shown Places of Interest — Reception at Legislative Chamber.

Special to The Standard Fredericton, N. B., June 15.—New Brunswick's official welcome to the National Editorial Association of the United States, on their visit to the province, was the feature of the day of the American editors in Fredericton from this afternoon until tomorrow morning.

In the Canadian National Railway's Million Dollar train the party arrived here over the St. John Valley Railway, shortly after three o'clock from St. John, and at once started in automobiles for a drive about the city and to various points of interest, including the St. John River Log Driving Company's rafting grounds, the Canadian Cotton Mills at Marysville, the Military Hospital and Vocational School.

The auto drive was commenced as soon as an informal welcome had been extended by Deputy Mayor Wilkinson, members of the City Council, Board of Trade, representatives of the Provincial Government and others. This evening the province's official welcome was extended at an official reception in the Assembly Chamber at the Parliament Buildings. Premier Foster and Dr. W. G. Crockett, M. L. A., and former Mayor of Fredericton, delivered addresses of welcome to the representatives of the visitors replied. Mrs. Crockett received the guests with the Premier and an informal dance was followed by a showing of special moving pictures of big game, fishing and lumbering in New Brunswick at the Gaiety Theatre.
During the evening there was a concert by the Fredericton Brass Band at Parliament Square.

The party will leave here tomorrow morning for Dalhousie, where they will be the guests of the All New Brunswick Tourist Association, after which they proceed to Quebec.

Premier's Welcome

In welcoming the visitors on behalf of the Province Premier Foster said: It is a great pleasure and a very pleasant duty to extend to our distinguished guests—members of the National Press Association of the United States—a very warm welcome to New Brunswick, if only for a brief visit. Those of us who have been privileged to visit your great country from time to time, whether on business or pleasure, will know and appreciate the warm welcome that always awaits us, and is extended in a most hospitable way. Therefore, we are most happy to be in a position this evening to reciprocate and show, in our small way, some slight appreciation of your warm American hospitality. You are not only welcome as representatives of the "various enterprises with which you are connected, but also as representing the great Republic to the south of us, with whom it is our privilege to live so peaceably side by side. I assure you we always take a lively interest in everything that pertains to your welfare, and there is no denying the fact that we have for some years looked somewhat with envious eyes upon the progress and prosperity that has marked your development; and while we have seen you grow and prosper, we have at the same time admired your ability, your pluck and your energy, which has so successfully developed your resources and worked out your destiny. With this prosperity and growth of your internal trade has also come the growth and expansion of the trade, commerce and intercourse between our two countries and this notwithstanding the fact that an unusual barrier existed which, to some extent, whether wisely or not, I would not like to discuss here, has retarded what otherwise might have reached larger proportions. Nevertheless we have both contributed to that great expansion of business between us and it is, I am sure, the wish of us all that we should continue to do business and retain those friendly relations that have existed for so many years.

He Has Conquered His Worst Enemy

Portland Man Feels Like New Person Since Tanlac Overcame His Indigestion.

"By the help of Tanlac I have conquered my worst enemy, indigestion," said Charles C. Poirer, of 342 Boothby Square, Portland, Maine.

"My appetite was very poor," continued Mr. Poirer, "nothing I ate agreed with me, and many a time I caused me a world of misery. I had severe pains in the pit of my stomach and at times there was such a pressure through my chest that I felt like my breath was being shut off. For a number of years I suffered with indigestion, and at times the pain was so bad that I had to lie up. One day one of these attacks struck me at my work and I thought my time had surely come.
Why, it even took me as much as an hour to walk half a mile to my home and I didn't think I would ever get flourish alive.

"I had seen several statements from local people about what a good medicine Tanlac was, so I began taking it myself. The first bottle helped me so much that I went back for more and kept on taking it until I'm now feeling fine. My appetite is so big that I just want to be eating all the time, and although I eat most or anything else I want, I never have any signs of indigestion or pains in my stomach. I'm feeling better in every way than I have in a long time and have picked up so much strength and energy that I can do a big day's work and still feel fine when night comes. Tanlac has just straightened me all up and I'm glad to recommend it.

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co., and F. W. Munro under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Adv.

year 1918, an act was passed prohibiting the export of pulp wood out upon Crown Lands, and when the leaves expired, some years later, they were renewed subject to this provision. How far this policy any be wise is open for consideration, and the greatest amount of good, I am sure, will accrue by an open and frank discussion of the whole subject with our representatives, whom we will be pleased to receive in the most friendly and sympathetic spirit.

When they come we will be delighted to meet them. The more we can get together and talk these things over in a businesslike way the better neighbors the Americans and Canadians will be.

It is the hope and wish of British people, wherever they may be, that co-operation and friendship between the people of your great country and ours may be strengthened and developed, and that no cloud of misunderstanding may ever arise; that that good will and affection which has endured for so many years may continue, and that the imaginary line stretching for so many thousands of miles which separates us, may remain as it is at present unguarded.

President Albright Replies.

President Albright thanked the Premier for the welcome extended to them by the Province of New Brunswick, stating that the party had greatly enjoyed their sojourn in this province. While travelling for recreation purposes they were also on an educational tour and were very pleased to find that at the friendly relations existed in Canada for the United States. Referring to the address of Premier Foster, he stated that Americans had vast undeveloped resources in and in spite of the fact that their population was growing more numerous, she wished no further territory, but wanted to settle down and live in peace with all her neighbors.

The recent great war, he stated, had brought the two countries very close together, both in friendship and in the battlefields of France and Flanders where their blood had been shed and mixed in a common cause.

City's Welcome.

Dr. W. Crockett, ex-Mayor of the City of Fredericton, gave the civic address on behalf of the citizens of Fredericton. He was responded to by President elect Will Wilke, of Tennessee, who thanked the citizens of Fredericton for their cordial welcome, and stated that he and his wife, Frederick, were old friends of the former Fredericton people he referred to his acquaintance with Lieut.-Col. P. A.
Guthrie and Senator McKnight, a former Fredericton man, and U. N. B. graduate. He further stated that he could well recommend one former Fredericton man for the best all round guide to the Province of New Brunswick. This he stated was Charles K. Howard, who had led them in their tour of the Province of New Brunswick. He referred to the friendly relation between the nations and stated that as long as the inhabitants of the United States were English speaking people the relations between the two countries would also be amicable.

Following the addresses of welcome a short programme of six dances was carried out. Tennyson's orchestra supplying the music for the dancing.
Refreshments were then served and the members of the Association adjoined to the Gaiety Theatre, where motion pictures of hunting and fishing scenes in New Brunswick were shown.

The Playground Offer Discussed

Com. Thornton's Motion That Armstrong & Bruce Offer be Accepted Was Not Accepted—Mayor Authorized to Negotiate.

At the council meeting yesterday Commissioner Thornton moved that council accept the offer of Armstrong & Bruce for property at Portland Place for a recreation ground. This motion was not accepted, but the Mayor was authorized to negotiate for lands for recreation or other purposes in the North End.

Commissioner Thornton brought up matter of providing sewerage through the Shamrock grounds, to serve 25 families.

Commissioner Jones said he would put in a sewer right away.

A bill from the Canadian Northern Electric for $521 in connection with the fire alarm system was ordered paid.

Norman McLeod said he was now prepared to go ahead with the Douglas avenue paving at the tendered price, provided that he was given the same concessions as the Steven Company on City Road. He was able to make this proposition because he had found an opportunity to make a contract for asphalt.

Commissioner Frink said service pipes were not down, and curbing could not be laid.

Mr. McLeod—The contract did not call for granite curbing.

The matter was laid over.

Commissioner Bullock was authorized to make needed and necessary repairs to No. 1 wharf, West St. John, estimated cost $5,000.

Commissioner Bullock was authorized to call for tenders for 130,000 3" spruce deals, 6" wide and upwards not to contain more than 10 per cent. of fir.

600 ps. 8"x8"x10" long spruce ties for the trestle on the West Side.
80 ps. 12"x12"x10" long Douglas fir sticks for tenders for No. 1 wharf.

Commissioner Thornton was authorized to purchase 450 yards of blue cloth from Manchester Robertson Allen, Ltd. for the fire department, fire and ferry departments at $5.46 per yard.

Commissioner Jones was authorized to purchase two one ton Ro trucks at a price not to exceed $5,000 for the two.

Commissioner Thornton was authorized to purchase one car of canned corn for the fire department at the best possible price obtainable.

An amendment to the City By-Law relating to top wharfage rates on ships, raising the rate from three cents per bushel to five cents was adopted.

Commissioners Jones and Bullock be appointed revisors of the voters' list.
Adopted.

Editors At Home In Loyalist City

Amazed in Nova Scotia to Find They Still Preserved the Old and Traditional British View of Personal Liberty.

"We felt more at home in St. John than in most of the cities of Nova Scotia," said an American journalist on the Million Dollar Special when asked his impression by a local newspaper man "I'll tell you why. Not officially, of course. Just my own view and I am an American in it. In Nova Scotia I was amazed to find that they still preserved the old and traditional British view of personal liberty.

Of course we and you have a revised version. I was astonished at the number of places in Nova Scotia where the people seemed to think that their dining rooms were not subject to surveillance. We were not very long in Nova Scotia, but would you believe it, mostly when we were invited to dine out we were offered plenty of drinks, all kinds, and good stuff too.

"How many of the party took advantage of this astonishing sort of hospitality I won't say. One of our official speech makers is a well meaning gentleman, who does not believe in wine, or anything like that. Yet his credulity must have amazed the natives in some of the places we visited.

In one town he told the strange story that Queen Victoria had once told an Indian Prince that the greatness of the British Empire was founded on the Bible. In your country you know a Queen Victoria was a woman of rare tact as well as a great politician, and the story that she would say such a thing must have caused some astonishment. Our speech-maker did not know that his strange story had been officially denied but he did not repeat it after somebody pointed out the patently absurdity of it. Most of you know that the greatness of the British Empire is founded on its tolerance of all religions, and its passion for free speech, and personal liberty. You know in our Great Republic under its forms that to do border on license.

"In Cape Breton a gentleman told me that out west a man had been indicted for quoting some verses from the Prophet Isaiah, but that in Cape Breton they can quote anybody. That surprised me because you know in our Great Republic under the autocratic regime established by President Wilson men have to be careful when and how they quote declarations of independence, and more careful when and what they drink."
