Serious Allegations Made by U. S. Senator Before Members of Upper Body.

DEMANDS HEARING BEFORE WHOLE SENATE

Senator Receives Help from Canadian Who Says He Can Furnish Evidence.

Washington, Nov. 3.—(Canadian Press)—Senator Watson, of Georgia, who has charged in the Senate that United States soldiers were hanged and shot in France without trial, put into the record today a telegram from F. J. Fry, of Morrisburg, Ontario, saying he could furnish a volume of additional evidence.

"What you charge is no comparison," said Fry in the telegram. "The Senate has appointed a special committee to investigate the charges.

Before Senate Today
A motion is to be made in the Senate tomorrow, Democratic leaders announced tonight, to drop the investigation by the special senate committee. Whether a partisan issue would develop out of the case was uncertain tonight, but several Republicans declared they were ready to resist the Democratic motion, which Senator Simmons, Democrat, North Carolina, said he planned to offer.

The Simon's motion was agreed upon after conferences between Republicans and Democratic leaders and Senator Watson, and after presentation by Watson of letters, telegrams and newspaper clippings as substantiating his charges.

BOUQUETS THROWN TO DEPARTMENT OF CANADIAN CUSTOMS

London, Nov. 3.—Manchester traders readily acknowledge the promptness and courtesy with which their representations were received by the Canadian customs department regarding the new regulations for marking textile goods. One authority says: "This speedy removal of what would have been a troublesome impediment to trade is regarded with great satisfaction here. It should be held up as an example of how efficiently a government department can receive and act upon reasonable representations from responsible bodies with gain, rather than loss in dignity and in the public estimation."

NOBEL COMMISSION BARS BOLSHEVIST AUTHOR.

They Will Not Go Down in History as Merit of the Century. Bolshevik authors will not go down in history as merit of the century according to the Nobel literary commission which has just decided that Anatole France, because of his Communist leaning will not be worthy to receive this year's prize. Instead the prize will go either to Thomas Hardy, Henri Bergson or Emma Bonheur of the French Academy. H. G. Wells and Bernard Shaw have been eliminated because of their Communist leanings while D'Annunzio and Maxim Gorky were both rejected because their writings were influenced by political considerations.
