HAMPTON.

Hampton, Kings county, Oct. 28.—A very enjoyable tea and reception was given last Thursday afternoon, at the Baptist Parsonage, Hampton Village, to Miss Helen Blackadar, a returned missionary to the Telugus of India, who expects to remain on furlough in Nova Scotia for the next few months. Forty or fifty ladies of the Missionary Aid Society, of Hampton Village Baptist church, including also a few invited guests, were present, and received a hearty welcome from Mrs. Grant, wife of the pastor, the Rev. E. J. Grant, and Mrs. Samuel H. Flewelling. Miss Blackadar, in answer to numerous enquiries, gave very interesting particulars of the character and progress of her work, as well as of the manners and customs of the people, religiously and socially, and Mrs. H. B. Dickson, who with her husband has spent some years in Assam, India, under the American Baptist Missionary Union, both of who are recruiting here at their old home, recited a portion of Scripture in the Assameres tongue.

Mrs. L. T. Covay, of Halifax (N. S.), is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. A. Young, at her home on Lakeside Road. It was intended that Mrs. Young should be taken on Tuesday to the General Hospital, St. John, for a further operation, but an acute attack of tonsilitis has intervened.

The handsome residence of Mr. William F. Todd, the newly elected member for Ottawa, was ablaze with light and the warmth of true hospitality, when it was thrown open on Tuesday evening to a host of his friends who came at his invitation to enjoy a banquet and a social evening. Early in the evening bon-fires were lighted in front of the house, and the band on the lawn played Canadian national airs. Crowds assembled quickly and the scene was one of patriotism, good feeling and jollity. Speeches were made from the piazza by Mr. Todd and other prominent friends of the Liberal party. Inside the house there were decorations of flags and bunting. In the parlors, library, dining room and halls, were long tables beautifully decorated with flowers and flags, and fairly groaning with the good things provided for the banquet. The guests quickly filled the seats at the tables and were waited upon by members of the Young Liberal Club. Speeches were again made and cheers for the King, Canada, Mr. Todd, and the Liberal party, made the house ring again and again. It was not until a late hour that the last guest departed, having enjoyed one of the most delightful entertainments ever given to close the celebration of an election victory.
