

$100.00 on the Light Account.

John Weyhe presented the report of the Building Fund.

Treasurer N.A. Steen gave a brief and lucid account of the finances of the congregation and presented the caretaker's report.

On motion these reports were received.

Considerable discussion ensued in regard to the debt on the Church and it was finally agreed without a dissenting vote that a subscription list be circulated throughout the whole Congregation, with a view to remove the entire debt in a period not extending over five years.

The Session and Managers were appointed a committee to prosecute this canvas in their respective districts.

The four managers elected for 1895—1898 were T. A. McClure, Wm. Thompson, Louis Scruton and Geo. Leslie.

Auditors for 1895, James Beamish and W. G. Webster.

N. STEEN.

Secretary.
