

“Junction Railroad Company,” and thereupon they shall give public notice for the space of one month, in the Canada Gazette, that they have so taken such name, and from and after the giving of such notice, the name of the said Company, for all purposes whatsoever, shall be “The St. Lawrence and Ottawa Grand Junction Railroad Company,” but notwithstanding such change in the name of the said Company, it shall even after such change be lawful for the Company to sue or be sued in the original name of the said Company, namely, “The Montreal and Lachine Railroad Company,” for or with respect to any debt, contract, obligation or engagement, made or entered into before such change of name; or for, on account, or in respect of any act, matter or thing done or caused to be done, or omitted to be done before such change of name.

XXII. And whereas it may not be in the power of the said Montreal and Lachine Railroad Company to make and complete the said Railroad and other works which by the present Act they are empowered to make and complete, and the several persons hereinafter named are desirous to make and complete the said Railroad and other works in the event of the said Montreal and Lachine Railroad Company being unable to make and complete the same; Be it therefore enacted, That the Honorable James Ferrier, the Honorable Peter McGill, the Honorable Joseph Bourret, John Young, William Dow, John Boston, James B. Greenshields, William F. Coffin, Thomas A. Stayner, the Honorable George Moffatt, John Frothingham, J. G. Mackenzie, Hugh Taylor, W. Macdonald, D. Davidson, together with such persons as shall under the provisions of this Act, become subscribers as hereinafter provided for, and proprietors of any share or shares in the Railroad hereby authorized to be made and other works and property hereinafter mentioned, and their several and respective heirs, executors, administrators, curators and assigns, being proprietors of any such share or shares, are and shall be, and be united into a Company for carrying on, making, completing and maintaining the said intended Railroad and other works in the event of the said Montreal and Lachine Railroad Company being unable to commence the same within the said period of five years as aforesaid; and with all the rights and powers, and according to the rules, orders and directions hereinbefore or hereinafter expressed; and shall for that purpose be one body politic and corporate by the name of “The St. Lawrence and Ottawa Grand Junction Railroad Company,” and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and shall have a common seal, and other the usual powers and rights of bodies corporate not inconsistent with this Act, and by that name shall and may sue and be sued; and in case the said Montreal and Lachine Railroad Company shall be unable to commence the said

Provision for the case of the present Company not making the Road.
