COPY of a DESPATCH from the Marquis of Normanby to Lieutenant-Governor
Sir G. Arthur, K.C.H., dated Downing-street, 26 June 1839.

No. 8.
The Marquis of Normanby to
Sir G. Arthur,
26 June 1839.

Sir,

As you inform me in your Despatch of the 14th May, No. 108, that you propose to address to me a separate communication on each of the Bills passed by the Legislative Council and Assembly of Upper Canada, and reserved by you for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure, I shall of course postpone, until I receive these communications, the advice which I may feel called on to tender to Her Majesty in respect to these Bills. But with reference to the Bill for disposing of the clergy reserves, I wish to call your attention to one point on which it is necessary that I should receive information.

By the 42d section of the Statute 31 Geo. 3, c. 31, it is provided, that no Act passed, in conformity with the preceding sections, for altering or repealing any part of that Statute, or affecting in any way the King's prerogative, shall be valid or effectual " unless the Legislative Council and Assembly of such province shall, in the session in which the same shall have been passed by them, have presented to the Governor, Lieutenant-governor or person administering the government of such province, an address or addresses specifying that such Act contains provisions for some of the purposes hereinbefore specified, and desiring that, in order to give effect to the same, such Acts should be transmitted to England without delay, for the purpose of being laid before Parliament previous to the signification of Her Majesty's assent thereto."
