DREXEL INSTITUTE
PHILADELPHIA

THE PRESIDENT

November 18, 1919.

Hon. W.L. MacKenzie King,
The Roxborough,
Ottawa, Canada.

My dear Doctor King:

The celebration of Founder's Day at the Institute, which is one of the two largest Convocations during the year, comes on Wednesday morning, December seventeenth at eleven o'clock. In this crucial year following the close of the war, I am eager to see strengthened by every means the bond between our sister nations. Sir Robert Falconer, Doctor Bruce Taylor and other eminent Canadians have addressed us on former occasions and I am hoping that you will consent to carry on their good offices and be the speaker this year.

According to a provision made by Mr. Drexel, it is customary to give an honorarium of fifty dollars to the speaker and all expenses are borne by the Institute.

Yours very sincerely,

Hollis Taft
