

Ottawa, OTTAWA, 22nd June 1912.

Sir-

OTTAWA, 22nd June, 1912.

I am in receipt of your letter of the 3rd instant in which you state that the present condition of the roads on the Pointe regarding division of Lot 19, Con 1, Tyendinaga, between you and your wife, Susie Walker, I beg to say that a copy of the agreement, under which this property was to be divided after the death of your mother, was forwarded to you under cover of official letter of the 17th April last.

The local Agent, Mr. Stainton, has been this day written to in connection with this question and you should place yourself in communication with him for any further information in connection therewith.

Your obedient servant
The Department will deal with the matter when a copy of the resolution is received at Head-Quarters.

I may add that the Railway will be written to in respect to Road Cuts.
