

and all. I've left the devil's bad lands with their blowouts and corkscrew trails, and I'm away out across the old Jordan ford in good old Canaan Land, where there is nothing but sunshine between me and glory. God's love is burning in my heart day and night, and he leads me all the way. I've got a religion that takes all the kinks out of the trail at a jump, and hits a bee-line for heaven on a fresh horse. I'm on a high lope. Glory to God ! ”
