

Strikes—Continued

- sabotage, 38, 201 et seq., 211; benefits, 39; Boston tailors (1850), 46-47; New York tailors, 47-48; Dover mill girls (1829), 55; Lowell women factory workers (1836), 55; in 1853, 57; Baltimore and Ohio, 57, 67, 133; become part of economic routine, 66; increase in number and importance, 66-68; in 1880, 67-68; of 1886, 68, 82-84; Anthracite Coal Strike, 113, 129-30, 174; O'Connell leads, 125; New York City railway (1905), 138 (note); railroad, 141, 142, 145, 153, 158, 174; Brotherhoods threaten (1916), 163, 165; New York City garment makers, 169; history in United States, 171-73; strike statistics of United States Bureau of Labor, 172, 173; violence, 174-76; Lawrence mill strike (1912), 202-06; Little Falls textile strike, 206; Akron rubber works, 206-07; Granite City (Ill.), steel mills, 210-211; court prevention, 252-53
- Supreme Court, Danbury Hatters' case, 183; open shop decision, 252
- "Supreme Mechanical Order of the Sun," 72
- Syndicalism, in Europe, 188; I. W. W. and, 198
- Taft, W. H., vetoes exemption bill for Anti-Trust Law, 99
- Tammany Hall, 32
- Tannenbaum, Frank, 209-10
- Tariff, demand for protective, 27
- Tax Reformers, 233
- Taxation, single tax, 234, 235; income tax, 231, 236
- Terre Haute (Ind.), convention (1881), 88-89
- Texas, I. W. W. and draft, 216
- Thomas, C. S., Senator, report on I. W. W., 216
- Times*, Los Angeles, dynamiting of building, 175
- Toledo (O.), conference of Labor Reform and Greenback parties, 231
- Trade unions, beginnings, 29-39; temporary eclipse, 40; new species in early fifties, 58-59; organization of special trades, 60; organization, 112; conventions, 112-113; local unions, 114-16; characterization of different trades, 116-17; disputes as to authority, 117-18; adjustment to changing conditions, 117-18; advantages of amalgamation, 119; and labor leaders, 121 et seq.; purpose, 168; and collective bargaining, 168-71; question of monopoly, 170-71; and strikes, 173-77; local autonomy, 177; union label, 184-86; restriction of output, 186-87; oppose use of military, 254; bibliography, 262
- Trades' Union of the City and County of Philadelphia, 30
- Transportation, demand for better, 27
- Trautmann, W. E., 195; quoted, 198
- Troy (N. Y.), union in, 34
- Tulsa (Okla.), treatment of I. W. W. in, 216
- Unemployment, in 1857, 61-62; in 1873-74, 66; "floaters," 190; among immigrants, 191; in San Francisco (1877), 238
- Union Labor party, 23, 237;