

Southern District of New-York, &c.

BE it remembered, that on the thirty first day of October, in the forty second year of the Independence of the United States of America, G. J. Hunt, of the said District, hath deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor in the words and figures following, to wit: "The Late War between the United States and Great Britain, from June 1812 to February 1815, written in the ancient historical style, by Gilbert J. Hunt, author of a number of anonymous publications in prose and verse.

"The good of his country was the pride of his heart."
Decatur's Victory.

Containing, also, a sketch of the late Algerine War; and the Treaty concluded with the Dey of Algiers; the Commercial Treaty with Great Britain, and the Treaty concluded with the Creek nation of Indians."

In conformity to the act of the congress of the United States, entitled, "an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the time therein mentioned." And also to an act, entitled "an act supplementary to an act, entitled an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching historical and other prints."

JAMES DILL, Clerk of the Southern District of N. York
