Do all that you can to stand, and then fear lest you may fall, and by the grace of God you are safe.—
Edwards.

The tree-tops in the springtime are full of chirp and whistle and carol and the long roll call. The bird does not start off alone. It gathers all of its kind. Oh, that we might be as wise in this migration to heaven, and gather all our families and friends with us.

If the way to God and salvation is indeed, blocked up, it is only blocked up by your own sins. The door is not locked by a divine decree, nor nailed up by any necessity of circumstances, nor barred by any peculiarity of your case. No, there is neither block, nor bar, nor lock, except your sin.—C. H. Spurgeon

Give me these links: First, sense of need; second, desire to get; third, belief that God has in store; fourth, belief that, though he withholds awhile, he loves to be asked; and, fifth, belief that asking will obtain. Give these links and the chain will reach from earth to heaven, bringing heaven all down to me; or bringing me up into heaven.
