Increased demand has lowered the price of milk feeds. Manitoba bran, $10 to $20; shorts, $22.50. Prices on Ontario feed similar. At Montreal bran, $19 to $20; shorts, $23 and middlings, $24 to $25.

HIDES AND TALLOW

The hide market is quiet and quotations lower. Quotations for country hides paid by city dealers at hide curers' prices: green, 10c to 10 1/2c; horse hides, 35c; horse hair, 5c; calf skins, 14c; lamb skins, 11 1/2 to 15c. City prices on hides are: No. 1, 3 1/2c; No. 2, 3 1/4c; No. 3, 1 1/2c.

HAY AND STRAW

Local dealers are quoting baled hay, 50c to $1 less, too liberal because the cause. Wholesale quotations are: No. 1, hay, 8 1/2 to 8 3/4; No. 2, 8 to 8 1/2; No. 3, 7 1/2 to 7 3/4; baled straw, 65c to 68c. Loose hay is in larger supply, selling on the Farmers' Market at 85c to 86c for No. 1 timothy; clover and mixed hay, 8 1/2 to 8 3/4; and straw in bundles, 8 1/4 to 8 1/2. SEEDS

Toronto, Monday, Feb. 17.—More seasonable weather has resulted in noticeable activity in trade. Wholesale dealers and manufacturers generally are quite busy, but reports that in many cases payments are slow as many of the smaller concerns in country districts. Merchants excuse slow payments by explaining that unseasonable weather in the West has made it difficult to have made retail collections extremely difficult.

So far as farm produce is concerned the market is decidedly dull. What price changes there have been in the last week have tended toward lower levels. Poultry products may be cited as an exception to this general trend as prices there have steadied and in the case of strictly fresh eggs, advanced. Cattle also are higher.

WHEAT

The sum total of trading on the grain exchange this week has been small and prices are down several cents. Shipments from the Argentine to the Old Country have been heavy and as they supply the same markets as we do, prices at Canadian points were unsteady. The Indian crop also is reported as in unusually good condition. The war situation is failing to exert its usual influence. We quote as follows: No. 1 Northern, 60c; No. 2, 58c; No. 3, 56c; feed wheat, 61c; Ontario No. 2, 56c to 57c, down to 70c.

COARSE GRAINS

The coarse grain market has shown some revival in the last couple of days, but taken as a whole trading has been unsatisfactory. No serious price changes are to be noted, but what changes there are show a tendency to lower levels. Most of the changes, however, are to the advantage of the farmer who buys grain for feeding. We do not look for a continuance of low prices, however, and trade is already improving. Quotations are as follows: Oats, No. 1, 48c; No. 2, 46c; No. 3, 44c; No. 4, 42c; No. 5, 40c; No. 6, 38c; No. 7, 36c; No. 8, 34c; No. 9, 32c; No. 10, 30c; No. 11, 28c; No. 12, 26c; No. 13, 24c; No. 14, 22c;
