

Who Pays the Duty?

You can't get away from the fact that directly or indirectly the DUTY has to be paid by the consumer; therefore, why pay fancy prices for calf meals of foreign manufacture when you can buy CALFINE 15 to 20 dollars a ton cheaper and secure at least equal, and in most cases superior, results.

CALFINE

is a pure, wholes me, nutritious meal for calves. It is now in use on many of the largest and best equipped dairy farms in the Dominion.

Ask your dealer for a 100 lb. bag of CALFINE as a trial—you will soon be back for more. If your dealer does not handle it, write us. We will do the rest.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS. Miscellaneous.

CORPORATE SEAL.

When an incorporated company, or any body corporate, having an authorized seal, borrows money on its note, is the seal of the company placed on such note?
W. S. M.

Ans.—Usually; and properly—yes.

LINE FENCING.

B and T have two farms alongside of each other. B's is cleared; T's is not. Can B make T build his share of the fence between them when his is a bush-lot?
A SUBSCRIBER.

Ontario.

Ans.—No.

ASSESSMENT OF BUSH-LAND.

Please tell me what steps to take to make an appeal from the assessment of our township, as I have been told different ways, and I think the assessment is very unjust. They tell me it doesn't make any difference with taxes now. If it does not, why do they want to raise it? We will say a farmer has ten acres of good standing hardwood bush worth $1,200. What way should it be assessed?
AN OLD SUBSCRIBER.

Ontario.

Ans.—You should give notice in writing to the Township Clerk that you consider yourself aggrieved by being overcharged by the assessor in the roll. The matter will then come before the Court of Revision, consisting of the members of the council to the number of five, and you should attend the sittings of such court, and state your case. The clerk advertises the date. The amount of the assessment will certainly affect your taxes—if not as to this year's, then certainly as to next year's amount. Land is assessable at its actual value, and the "land" includes the "bush."

HORSE DEALS.

A bought a colt in February, 1911, from B, a horse dealer. A found fault with eyes of colt; B said his stable was cold and that it had got cold, and that he would guarantee the horse to be sound and all right in every way. Took horse home; eyes seemed to get all right and never looked sore again. Then, December 24th, asked B if he would get me a span of colts, take the horse I had bought in February for so much. Said he would get me a good pair for that. Then wanted him to come and look my horse over. It was in hotel stable, but he wouldn't; said anybody would know that it was all right. It certainly had done fine. He had often seen it when I came in to town. B got me the colts, and when taking last one home he said, Say, what about eyes of your horse, I mind you did not like them. Told B as far as I knew they were all right. Kept horse for B until he was ready to ship. B came out to me to bring horse in. He looked him over, then said, This horse is blind. I took horse to veterinary. He said he was going blind, and would be so in both eyes in a year, with cataract. B wants $20 more on deal before he will take horse. Can I make him take the horse, or is his word of guarantee no good? Had my son with me. B is well off.

Ontario.

Ans.—You have apparently made the cash payment, and have the colts. All that would seem to remain for you to do in the matter is to have the horse ready for delivery to B when again called for. It would be well, however, for you to notify him that in the meantime you are keeping the animal at his risk and expense. We think that you are legally entitled to insist upon B's taking the horse; but if there is to be any litigation, it would probably be better for you to let him commence it.

ENDORSEMENT.

Sunday School Teacher: "Now, children, the subject is the story of the Prodigal Son. Can anyone tell me who was glad when the prodigal returned?"
"The father" was the unanimous response. "And who was sorry?" asked the teacher.
"The first son," promptly responded a boy in the front row.
