

Monetary Times

Trade Review and Insurance Chronicle of Canada

VOLUME 56
No. 26

TORONTO, JUNE 30, 1916

ESTABLISHED
1867

Insurance

Results of miscellaneous insurance business in Alberta for the past year, Page 10. Ontario's fire marshal will seek legislation to make easier conviction of incendiaries, Page 23. The Arnold life insurance case, Page 16

Bond Market

Probable time for issue of the next war loan, Page 9. How municipal debts grow; the position in Toronto, Page 30. The Monetary Times' record of municipal financing and activities during the past week, Page 6

Loans and Legislation

The Alberta government has passed an amendment to the land titles act which in effect destroys the mortgagee's rights under the covenant on a mortgage. Some considerations for legislatures passing such measures, Page 9

Mexico and Canada

How would a Mexican-American war affect our borrowing in the United States? Canada's present bankers would have to finance heavy war loans but there should be ample funds available for the Dominion's needs, Page 5

No German Trading

Some of the substantial reasons for refusal to trade with Germany are given. "Our firm deals only with civilized countries,"—the example of a Swiss house. By PROFES-
SOR A. T. F. DUCKWORTH, Page 26

Workmen's Compensation

The Ontario commission on workmen's compensation has issued its first report showing that 16,000 employers are listed under the State scheme, Page 18. Tabulation of the first year's experience of the act, Page 20

May Bank Statement

Deposits make a new record, and loans are at a high level. Call loans abroad are heavy, and current loans at home indicate a seasonal slackening in business. A detailed review of the month in comparative tables, Page 22

Corporation Finance

Maple Leaf Company's operations last year. Resignation of Cawthra Mulock causes comment. Monarch Knitting Company pays last instalment on $30,000 loan. News and notes of leading Canadian corporations, Page 8

WEEKLY STATISTICAL RECORD—Pages 36, 38, 40, 42, 44.

DIVIDENDS AND NOTICES—Page 34.

ANNUAL REPORT—Page 35.

EDITORIALS—Pages 9, 10.

Annual Subscription $3.00 - - Single copy 10 cents.