

Children's Department.

CHILDREN'S FRIENDS.

I know that children's company is apt to make some trouble to a house mother, but it is the kind of trouble that pays. It makes the children so much more happy to have their little friends made welcome at their own home. It raises mother in their esteem to have other little folks think she is "nice." Children are sharp little critics; form their opinions and speak of them to others, quite as decidedly as their elders do.

A little girl who had displeased her mother, was "punished" by having her little playmate sent home with with sharp and angry words, which were entirely unmerited. The heart of the little visitor was greatly shocked at the rude blow to her spirit, and never, even to grown up years, could look at that woman except with aversion.

It is an excellent thing to know with whom your children play and how they deport themselves. If they are made welcome at your home, you have the very best opportunity of gaining this information. It need not be very irksome if you keep the number within bounds. In summer our little visitors like to sit with their playthings in the shady porches, or in the doorway. In cold weather they can have the warm dining room.

It is worth a great deal to make children happy. They remember little treats longer than we suppose. A lady once said that one of the pleasantest recollections of her childhood was sitting on a grassy bank, and of a fair hand reaching from a window and placing a handful of large, delicious strawberries in her lap.

Be a lady to your boy's friends and leave a good impression upon them, if you wish to retain the respect of your own dear boy. It hurts boy's feelings, and mortifies them intensely, to have mother speak snappishly to them before companions, making them feel that they are not wanted. Such boys are apt to wander away, with most resentful feelings, to seek such company as the mother would dread to have for their associates.

Do not take such vile trash as cheap Whiskey Bitters and stimulants that only pander to a depraved appetite. Burdock Blood Bitters is a pure vegetable medicine, not a drink. It cleanses the blood and builds up the system. Sample bottles 10 cents.

Riggins, Beamsville, writes: "A customer who tried a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery says it is the best thing he ever used; to quote his own words, 'it just seemed to touch the spot affected.' About a year ago he had an attack of bilious fever and was afraid he was in for another when I recommended this valuable medicine with such happy results."
