The old "Ten Bells" public-house in Narrow-marsh, Nottingham, has been purchased for the purpose of a mission hall for the parish of St. John. The Vicar of St. John's is now making an appeal for £500 to complete the undertaking.

Lord Winterstoke has rebuilt, at a cost of about £12,000, the church at Blagdon, in which parish Coombe Lodge, his Somersetshire seat, is situated, and it was reopened on a recent Sunday for Divine worship, the Bishop of Bath and Wells preaching. All that remains of the old church is the tower, which is in a good state of preservation, having been restored a few years ago.

New parochial buildings have been opened at Bromley-by-Bow. The old schools, on which some £1,200 had been spent, were condemned by the education authorities, and the Vicar, the Rev. Edmund Sinker, undertook a scheme for converting the buildings for parochial purposes. A clergy house, a dining-room and hall, a club-room for the Church Lad's Brigade, and another hall have been provided. A debt of about £100 remains.

The King, on the recommendation of the Secretary of State, for India, has been pleased to appoint the Rev. Rolleston Sterritt Fyfe to be Bishop of Rangoon, in succession to Dr. Knight, who is about to retire. The new Bishop (the Times says) graduated in 1890 from Emmanuel College, Cambridge, being placed in the third class of the Classical Tripos, and two years later took a third class in Theology. He went north to be under Dr. Westcott, by whom he was ordained deacon in 1894, and priest in 1895, and whose influence was strongly exerted in favour of missions, and especially in the case of India. In 1898 Mr. Fyfe became curate, and in 1901 vicar of St. Agnes', Bristol. He was one of the early recruits enlisted for missionary work in Burma by Bishop Knight, whose health has now compelled him to resign, and who becomes head of the missionary college of St. Augustine, at Canterbury. Mr. Fyfe was accepted for work in Burma by the S.P.G., and in January 1905, he started at Mandalay as head of the "Winchester Mission," which was formerly located at Rangoon, and is worked on "brotherhood" lines. He has also been examining chaplain to Bishop Knight.

Estimates
Considerably Exceeded.

The following letter was recently received by The Great-West Life from a Policyholder whose Policy matured last month:-

"I can assure you that I am more than pleased at the splendid results of this investment. If I remember aright the expected profits were about $300. It is a pleasant surprise to hear they would be almost doubled."

This was the settlement:-

$1,000, 15 Year Endowment Policy, Premium $36 semi-annually, Guaranteed Value at maturity $1,000, Profits $571 total $1,571

If you need Insurance would it not be well to investigate the Policies that are giving such admirable results?
