Chicago, Aug. 3.—"Big Ed." Walsh, the former "Iron Man" of the Chicago Americans, made his National League debut with Boston yesterday when he started the second game of the double header between Boston and Chicago. Walsh went through five innings, but did not display the cunning of his former years. He held the locals to three scattered hits, and did not permit a run.

After Walsh retired with his club leading by one run, Williams hit the first ball pitched over the wall for a home run, tying the score, but Boston won in the tenth when they knocked him behind a fumble by Williams, four to three. The score:

First game—R. H. E.
Boston . . . 100000210—4 14 1
Chicago . . . 002103000—6 10 0
Batteries, Barnes and Traggesser, Rico; Hendrix and Elliott.

Batteries, Walsh, Allen, Ragan and Traggesser; Vaughn and Dilhoefer.

At St. Louis
St. Louis was able to get but two hits off Oeschger yesterday and was shut out by Philadelphia 6 to 0. As a result, St. Louis and Philadelphia exchanged second and third places in the pennant race. Evers injured his knee in the fourth when he was forced to fall flat to avoid being hit by one of Packard's fast ones. Score:

Philadelphia . . . 201000021—6 11 1
St. Louis . . . 000000000—0 2 0
Batteries, Oeschger and Adams; Goodwin, Packard, Mays and Snyder.

At Cincinnati

Brooklyn . . . 0001000221—6 15 3
Cincinnati . . . 200000000—2 8 0
Batteries, Cheney and Miller; Schneider, Mitchell, Eller and Win-go.

At Pittsburgh
New York made it four games out of five in the series with Pittsburgh by winning yesterday, 7 to 3. An error by Debus was responsible for three runs in the sixth inning, but the other runs scored by New York were secured on opportune hits off Miller and Carlson. Benton was compelled to retire in the fifth inning. Demaree held the locals scoreless after that. Score: R. H. E.
New York . . . 020002002—7 9 0

Sporting Comment

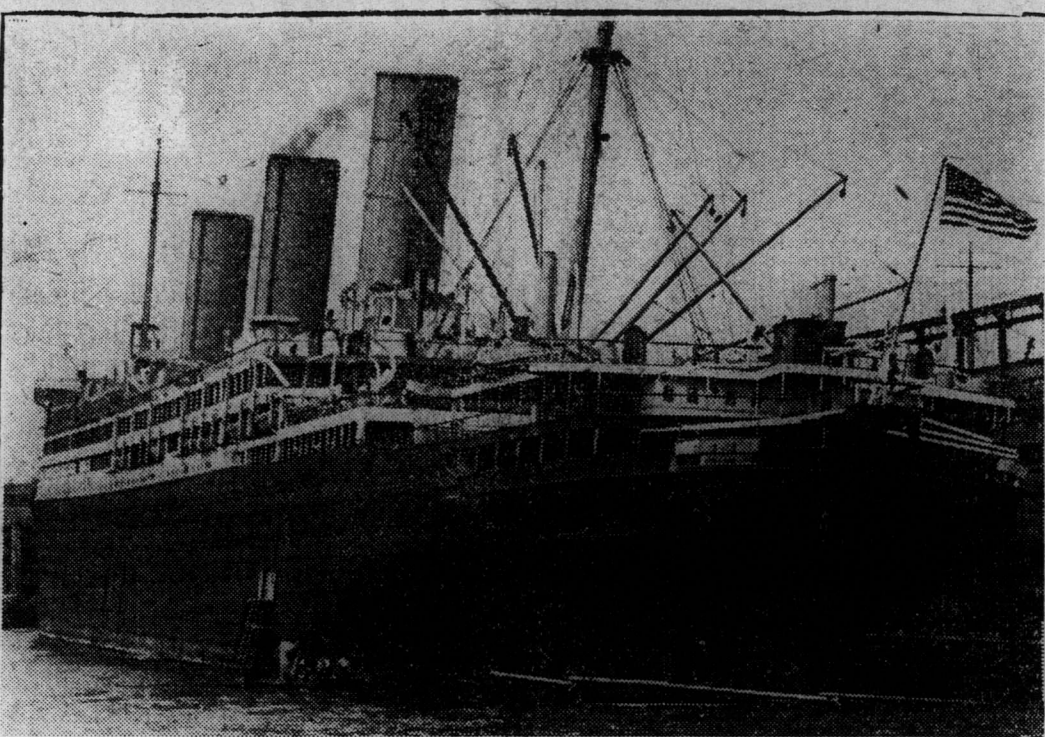

DELAHANTY THE DOUGHTY.
One of the greatest batsmen that ever lived was Ed Delahanty, who played with the Philadelphia Athletics, and succeeded Willie Keeler as leading batsman in 1899. He was of powerful build and a tremendous hitter. Delahanty is credited with the greatest batting feat on record, that of making four home runs in one game. It happened in 1896, during one of the games with Chicago. The first time up Ed cracked the ball over the right field fence for a home run. The second time he drove a liner over short to Dahlen. The third was so fast that it tore through Dahlen's grip and went into left field, while Delahanty went all the way to third base. The next time up he knocked the ball over the right field fence and again made the complete circuit. The fourth time up Ed walloped the ball to the club house back of centre field, making a third home run. When he came to bat again in the ninth inning, the fielders got back as far as they could. They were all hugging the fences. But this time Ed cracked the ball over centre field, over the fence, on to the club house. Ed scored his fourth home run. Final summing up: Five times at bat; four home runs and one three-bagger. His entire team got only three other hits besides his own.

ROYALS PUT IT OVER TORONTO

Took Three of Leafs' Twirlers To Stop Montreal's Big Swatfest

LEADERS ARE BEATEN
Newark and Providence Both Went Down To Defeat

Toronto, Aug. 3.—Misery loves company, so that in many ways the sting of defeat when the Royals eased one across the Leafs yesterday by 10 to 5 was lessened, for while the slaughter was being staged at the Island both Newark and Providence were also taking their bumps. If the Leafs had slipped and the Grays and Bears had won, the bump would have been very acute, but one does not mind so much, when the golden rule is being lived up to so that the other fellow gets the same dose.

Manager Howley and his heavy slugs just naturally accepted the offerings of three of the Toronto pitchers as peace offerings, and being a belligerent crew they fell upon the same and then hammered into the spaces where the Leafs weren't. And the whole thing was started because Jack Warhop had his off day. His service was acceptable to the enemy, for to the first six batters that faced him he awarded three bases on balls. Two hits and one error completed the downfall, as four runs were tallied. The second inning witnessed the passing of Warhop, for a double and a single, with two out, resulted in another run, and Dalley was called to do the mound work. Warhop had worked one and two-third innings, but Dalley only lasted one inning, for he was inclined to let the Royals have the game without even having to hit the ball.

At Richmond
Providence found it impossible to hit Young with any regularity yesterday, and Richmond was assigned to a 4 to 1 victory by errors of Brainard and Onslow. Score: R. H. E.

Richmond . . . 020001010—4 8 0

At Baltimore
Superb pitching by Thormahlen resulted in Newark losing the first of the series yesterday, 3 to 0. Enzman also pitched well after the first inning. Newark did not get a man past second in safety. The score: R. H. E.
Newark . . . 000000000—0 5 2
Baltimore . . . 300000000—3 6 1

THE REX

A particularly interesting feature has been secured for patrons of the Rex theatre for the latter part of the week: "The Battle of Life," starring Gladys Coburn, is a picturization of interest to all, powerful in conception, and well photographed. Gladys Coburn, a new star to Brantford audiences, is well adapted to the role which she assumes, and portrays her part admirably. "The Diary of a Puppy," the second of a series of pictures thrown on the screen especially for the benefit of the little folks, is an attractive feature of the program for the latter part of the week. The 9th episode of "Pearl of the Army," is shown. This interesting series is growing steadily more popular as the plot progresses.

AN OBLIGING RECTOR
Ernest C. Warde, who produced "The Woman in White" gives an idea of the courage a moving picture director must have in order to make a success of his job. He was looking for a church to use, and his location man brought him back the news of what appeared to be the very edifice needed.

Director Warde hustled over to the church in his automobile and met the smiling rector. "I wish to photograph your building for a picture I am making," said the director, "I would like to have your permission to do it." "Certainly," assented the rector, smiling. "But," said Mr. Warde, "the action of the picture calls for me to break in the church door." "Oh, that will be all right," said the obliging rector.

"But there is still more," faltered Mr. Warde. "The action of the picture says I must set the interior of your church on fire." At last the smiling rector became alarmed.

"Well, of course, that might not be so convenient," he granted. "Oh, it isn't as bad as it sounds," explained the director. "As a matter of fact, we only use smoke-pots. In this case," said the clergyman, "you may proceed. I do mind being burned out, but I don't mind being smoked out."
