MAKE MOHAWK PARK PAY

Move Launched by The Courier on Saturday Receives Hearty Support of all Classes

What the citizens want:— A twenty-minute street car service to and from Mohawk Park instead of the present hourly service.
An improved and beautified entrance to the park.
Better accommodation as to shade trees and better care of the grounds in general.
Amusement devices for young and old, and better meal accommodations within the park.
A convenient bathing pool and an up-to-date boat house.
A policy which will advertise Mohawk Park far and wide as a pleasure resort well worthy of the patronage of all.
On Saturday last The Courier went over the top in the campaign to Make Mohawk Park Pay. It was somewhat of a venture, that campaign, for it was something never undertaken before, but it has proven a success, for the movement is spreading, spreading more rapidly than could have ever been expected, among every class and district in the city. Everywhere, citizens are coming to a realization of the fact that the time is here for the renovation and transformation of Mohawk Park into a pleasure resort and pleasure ground unsurpassed in Ontario. Too long Brantford has felt the need of such a resort, too long her picnickers have hied themselves to other cities for their outings, instead of spending the day within a few minutes' ride of the centre of the city. The picnic season is still at its height, and Mohawk Park, made accessible and attractive to all, can yet claim and hold its own.

Years ago the summer season witnessed almost daily an influx of thousands, many of them from distant cities, to Mohawk Park. Why, then, the falling off?
Has failed because attendance has fallen off; the truth of the matter is the exact reverse, that attendance has fallen off because the park has failed. It has not progressed, it has not even remained stationary in

ATTACK REPULSED BY CANADIANS

Enemy Fled Precipitately, Leaving Many Dead
on Field

(By J. F. B. Livesey, Canadian Press Correspondent)
With the Canadian Forces in the Field, Aug. 13.—During the past two days the Canadian corps has had the honor to receive several distinguished visitors who have congratulated it on its splendid work.
Among these have been Sir Douglas Haig and Premier Clemenceau.
Sir Douglas rode along the Canadian battle-front, stopping to speak to officers and men at Canadian headquarters. He complimented Sir Arthur Currie, not only on the achievement of the corps, but also on the wonderful spirit animating his men, battle weary after three days of savage fighting, yet whose only desire was to be let loose again on the Boche. The Canadian advanced line has been practically static since Saturday evening.
Yesterday the enemy, having brought up fresh troops, made a strong counter-attack upon our sector, but the Canadian infantry was too much for him and he retired precipitately, leaving a dead upon the field. It is, however, a fundamentally error and an injustice to our own men to describe the enemy as weakened morale or to say that his rank and file were fleeing. They surrendered in large droves on Thursday because our barage was behind them and our cold steel upon them, while they lack entirely any adequate artillery support. These long files of prisoners swinging suddenly over dusty roads to our rear by no means exhibit any army played out. In fact, they are fleshy and well-clothed.
Certainly they are somewhat heterogeneous lot, fair-haired men of the north, darker races of Southern Germany, Jews, and what appear to be some Slavs. But in equipment and everything that goes to make the physical soldier, they are equal to the best.
This battle, planned for a limited front, has a far repercussion. Beleaguered Amiens has been defensively relieved, with it, too, are relieved Montdidier and a great slice of country to the south. The advance of our gallant allies north from the line of the Metz River is of great significance. It leaves the enemy in a hazardous position, for mouth has fast been tightening. Immediately in front of us is the old battlefield of the Somme, pitted with ancient trenches, which provide splendid hiding-places for enemy machine-guns. Obviously a direct frontal attack here, at this moment, might prove costly, and the object of our leaders is to convert manhood so far as is compatible with successful warfare.

ALLIES PAUSE FOR BREATHING SPELL TO-DAY

Lull in Offensive After Four Days of Constant Progress

RESISTANCE STRONG

Paris Aug. 13.—After 4 days of constant progress in their offensive, the Allies have been obliged to take a breathing spell in the face of the stiffen-ing enemy resistance.
Whether the Allied forces, reinforced by troops which have been and are pouring toward the front, resume their drive or not, the fact remains that the Germans have been completely unnerved and a victory has been won, the fruits of which will not be easy to wrest from the victors.
As the result of the continuous pressure exerted by Gen.
Humbert on the line of hills of Rollot and Boulogne Lagrange, General von Hutler's positions is somewhat worse than that of yesterday. The fall of Lessigny is imminent according to the indications and it may even already have occurred.
The enemy defenses are not now being offered by the customary reserved guards, but by mobile groups of machine gunners. At the same time the Germans are bombarding the French rear with their field guns. Prisoners taken yesterday, most of them quite young, said that reinforcements for von Hutler were not expected, and that the troops on the enemy line were only there to cover a withdrawal.
Speculation is rife as to Marshal Poch's next move—whether he will continue to press his advantage between the Somme and the Oise or strike elsewhere along the front to make the enemy's confusion worse.
There is general belief, however, that he will not let the war return to its old familiar state of intermittent actions.

Resolution Reigns
With the French Army in France Aug. 13.—(Havas agency)—A fearful spectacle of ruin is spread out along the great sweep of rolling pasture lands between Boulogne, Lagrange and Rollot, south-east of Montdidier. There the enemy is continuing his desperate resistance.
Hordes of German dead lie on every side, and the bodies of the war formally green are now torn up and strewn with masses of debris.
The enthusiasm of the French troops has carried them up to the

Freighters Sunk
New York, Aug. 13.—The Norwegian steamship Somerstad, whose crew of 31 was brought here to-day, was a 3,475-ton freighter under charter to the United States Shipping Board. The vessel was on the way from Bergen, Norway, to New York in ballast, when sunk.
A stirring incident occurred during the recent fighting. A general commanding a French division, seeing a battalion hesitate to throw itself into a dangerous position under heavy machine gun fire, directed his automobile into the centre of the position, and, standing up shouted to his men:
"See, the Boches are gone." His men thereupon sprang forward, and within the next three hours advanced seven kilometres.
