New York, Nov. 8, via Skagway, Nov. 13.—As a result of messages received at national headquarters today by National Committeemen J. H. Manley and N. B. Scott from doubtful points, Mr. Manley this afternoon gave out the following statement:
 "Full returns today leave the situation as it was yesterday. We have won by 308 electoral votes. We have carried every northern state but Colorado, Nevada and Montana. We have carried Kentucky, Maryland, Delaware and West Virginia.

"As we predicted during the entire campaign, they are attempting to rob us of the electoral votes in Kentucky under the power of the Goebel law. If they succeed we shall have 295 electoral votes. Our candidate for governor wires that we have carried Kentucky for the electoral ticket and elected him by over 7000 majority. The time has come when the American people ought to insist at whatever cost that the votes shall be counted as they were honestly cast."

Senator Scott, in answer to telegrams inquiring as to the result in Nebraska received the following dispatch from Edward Rosewater, member of the national advisory committee, who is a candidate for the United States senatorship from Nebraska: "Returns from the rural districts are incomplete, but no doubt whatever that McKinley carries Nebraska by not less than 3000. Governorship close; but prospects favor Republicans. Both houses of the legislature will be Republican by small majority."

Bryan Surprised.
 Lincoln, Nov. 8, via Skagway, Nov. 13.—Bryan says: "The result was a surprise to me, and the magnitude of the Republican victory a surprise to our opponents. The Republicans are able to secure passes for all voters away from home, and we have no way of knowing how much was spent for votes. I won't accept the nomination for senator."

Results by States.
 New York, Nov. 6, via Skagway, Nov. 13.—As far as returns have been received, the roll-call of states is as follows:

Rogers Elected.
 Seattle, Nov. 8, via Skagway, Nov. 13.—The entire republican state ticket was elected with the exception of Frink who is defeated by Rogers.

Indiana in Line.
 Indianapolis, Nov. 6, via Skagway, Nov. 12.—7:49 p. m.—Indiana's vote was close, but is safe for McKinley. Full returns from rural districts not expected before tomorrow, but will not materially effect McKinley's majority, which is less than 28,000

Situation Summed Up.
 Skagway, Nov. 12.—The Seattle P.-I. says: "The result of the national election of yesterday shows that McKinley will have 281 votes in the electoral college, with but 142 for Bryan and 24 votes unreported.
 "Handsome majorities were rolled up in New York, where the Democrats have confidently expected to gain a victory that might seat their candidate, and in Illinois, which had also been claimed as safe for Bryan, and which gives McKinley a big majority. Kansas also had a surprise for the Demo-Populists, casting its electoral votes for the Republican ticket.
 "New Jersey wheels into line with a tremendous majority for McKinley, and Indiana joins the Republican ranks despite the confident claims of the Democrats that this was a Democratic year in that state.
 "The middle west cast its verdict for four years more of prosperity, while the coast states, Washington, California

Skagway, Nov. 13.—10:20 a. m.—The steamer Dolphin from the Sound and British Columbia ports, has just arrived with almost complete returns of the Dominion elections. The result shows candidates to have been elected as follows:
 British Columbia—Liberals 1, Conservatives 2, Independent 1.
 Northwest territories—Liberals 1, Independent 1.
 Ontario—Liberals 35, Conservatives and Oregon, also gave their votes for McKinley.

 "In addition to the pronounced victory for the national Republican ticket, Chairman Babcock, announces that there will be even greater gains for the Republicans in the 57th congress than he estimated prior to the casting of the vote."

Electoral College Swept.
 Skagway, Nov. 12.—9:15 p. m.—McKinley and Roosevelt have swept the electoral college, but it looks as though Bryan will have the popular vote.

The states of Kansas, South Dakota, Wyoming and Washington have been taken out of the Bryan column, McKinley having carried them by good majorities, leaving no hope whatever for Bryan.

Utah for McKinley.
 Salt Lake, Utah, Nov. 7, via Skagway, Nov. 12.—At 1 o'clock today it is impossible to get tabulated returns from the state, but scattering reports further confirm the estimates given last night. The Democrats concede the loss of the national, state and congressional ticket, and the legislature has no doubt been carried by the Republicans.

New York for McKinley.
 New York, Nov. 7, via Skagway, Nov. 12.—9:15 p. m.—Election returns here today show that McKinley carried New York state by 146,000, but that Bryan carried Greater New York by 27,500. New York's vote is a surprise even to the Republican campaign managers, as they never figured on carrying it by over 100,000. Odell, Republican candidate for governor had put the majority at less than 100,000. Republicans generally conceded that Bryan would carry Greater New York by from 80,000 to 90,000.

Nebraska in Doubt.
 Omaha, Nov. 7, via Skagway, Nov. 12.—9:15 p. m.—The result of the election in Nebraska is still in doubt; both sides confidently claiming to have carried it. This morning 525 precincts are still in doubt, while the 1611 heard 53, Independent 3.

 Quebec—Liberals 56, Conservatives 7.
 New Brunswick—Liberals 9, Conservatives 5.
 Nova Scotia—Liberals 15, Conservatives 5.
 Prince Edward Island—Liberals 4, Conservatives 1.
 Manitoba—Liberals 1, Conservative 4, Independent 2.
 Four seats yet remain to be heard from.

from give McKinley a small majority. The precincts thus far heard from give substantial Republican gains over the vote of four years ago.

With a corresponding result in unreported precincts to those already received McKinley will have small plurality. The latest totals on the national ticket are from 462 precincts of Omaha and Douglass county, which gives McKinley 42,953, Bryan 40,219. The same precincts in 1896 gave McKinley 37,214, Bryan 40,046; showing a net Republican gain of 5566.

Figures From Idaho.
 Boise, Idaho, Nov. 7, via Skagway, Nov. 12.—Only 45 precincts of the 400 in Idaho have been heard from. These gave the following results: McKinley 4774, Bryan 4810; Standrod for governor, 4647; Hunt for governor, 4678; Morrison for congress 4767; Glenn for congress 4551.

From many of the Republican precincts nothing has been heard and it seems safe to predict that the percentage indicated will be maintained. On the basis of 50,000 votes cast for the Republican and fusion tickets which seems likely to be about the correct figure. The Republicans have 26,400 and the Democrats 23,600; Republican plurality 2800.

It is reasonably certain that the Republican national and state tickets have carried the state. The Republican state committee claims 40 members of the legislature, a majority of ten on joint ballot, but there is much uncertainty yet on this point.

Colorado Democratic.
 Denver, Nov. 7, via Skagway, Nov. 12.—The fusion of the Democrats, Silver Republicans and Populists, made a clean sweep of Colorado. Bryan's majority, according to returns received up to noon, which are far from complete, will be 35,000 or more.

Connecticut in Line.
 New Haven, Conn., Nov. 7, via Skagway, Nov. 12.—Revised election returns
