

THE REPORTER.
 H. LOVERIN, Editor and Proprietor.
 Guaranteed Circulation, 750.
 FARMERSVILLE, DEC. 6, 1887.
LOCAL AND OTHER NOTES.
 From the Pencil of our Own News-Gatherer.

Ten degrees below zero was the temperature registered here on Wednesday last.
 Phil, Withe has a No. 40 Sultana and a good sized Alaska coal stove, as good as new, for sale cheap. Having put in a furnace he has no further need for them, and they will be sold at a bargain.

John Horton, an old bachelor who lived alone near New Dublin, was found dead in bed on the 28th ult.

There was good skating on the mill pond a few evenings last week, and the young people took advantage of the fact to its fullest extent.

It is rumored that owing to differences, the C. P. R. will sever its junction connection with the G. T. R. at Brockville, and build a new station.

Grip's Comic Almanac for 1888 is a daisy. If you want to have a good laugh send to the Grip Publishing Co., Toronto, for a copy. Price 10 cents.

Mr. N. H. Beecher, of Toledo, D. J. G. M., of the A. O. U. W., has been making an official tour of inspection in the eastern portion of his District.

An error occurred in our local list of work in reference to the price received for cheese at the Plum Hollow factory. The figures referred to the last three months, not to the whole season.

II. H. Arnold has purchased the lot next to the Central Block, now occupied by the grocery store of Moles & Ackland, and will put up a building in the spring to correspond in outside appearance with the Central and Parish blocks.

Mr. Benj. Derbyshire made a clear gain this season of $120 from 25 hives (spring count). He thinks he is just beginning to know how. He is perfectly satisfied with the honey extractor made by Mr. W. F. Earl, of Farmersville.

In about two weeks we propose giving an account of the building operations in the village during the past season. Will those interested please make a note of this and be prepared with a few figures, as to cost of construction, contractors' names, &c.

There promises to be a lively competition here and at Lyndhurst on the 13th and 14th insts. between the rival poultry buyers, Arnold & Berney, and Brown & Co. have already advertised to be at Lyndhurst on the 13th and some eight or ten of the old buyers at the same place on the following day.

Mr. E. D. Wilson, of Lyo, will shortly take up his residence in Farmersville, having leased the old meat market, now occupied by Jos. Thompson. Report says he will start a meat and flour and feed store. We trust our citizens will extend a hearty welcome to "Dor" as he will be found a general good fellow, and an acquisition to our list of citizens.

An application was made to the Minister of Customs, by Mr. Wood, M. P., to admit engines for use on the B. & W. R. R. free of duty, on the ground that they were purchased before the first of July last. As in the case of similar applications from other quarters, the Minister decided that the engines were made by imposition of the duty, as they had not been imported before the date named.

The committee appointed to canvass for subscriptions for the Presbyterian Church, lately purchased by that body in this village from the Methodists, have met with gratifying success, numbers of all creeds having responded cheerfully and liberally to the appeal. Amongst those from a distance who have given subscriptions to this fund, we are pleased to notice the names of the well-known firm of Crathern & Cavehill, metal merchants, of Montreal.

Acting upon the wishes of our correspondent as expressed in his article of last week as to the formation of a Mechanics' Institute for this place, we hereby call a public meeting for Monday evening next. The class room of the High School has been kindly granted for the purpose. A cordial invitation is extended to all, especially the ladies. It is expected that parties will be prepared to explain the advantages of having an institute and the terms of the aid given by the government.

A team of horses, attached to a heavy waggon, belonging to S. Gibson, took it into their heads to have a little exercise to warm themselves, while waiting for their owner in front of Jacob's blacksmith shop, on Wednesday last, and with that object in view started off up Victoria St. They had not gone many yards before they came in contact with a double buggy, which was left in the street as usual. This was upset in a twinkling and the horses took the centre of the street at a lively pace. A couple of valorous youths coming from an opposite direction succeeded in stopping the team near the residence of Mrs. Chamberlain.

DIED.
 At Farmersville on the 15th inst. CHARLES HUBBERT, son of the late Daniel Phillips, aged 80 years, 2 months and 29 days.
