The Events of the Week Chronological for Reporter Readers

Ladies should read T. S. Kendrick's advt this week.

Rev. William Servier, of Seeley's Bay, is visiting friends in Athens.

Mrs. Thos. Leggett, of Crosby, was the guest of Mrs. U. H. Elliott last week.

Mrs. R. H. Hanna, of Ottawa, is visiting Mrs. (Dr.) Peat, Central street.

Mr. P. I. Hollingsworth leaves this week on the harvesters' excursion to the West.

Mr. Levi Johnston has returned from Lee Valley, Algoma, to his former home at Gananoque.

Mr. Kerr, of Toronto, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Elliott. He expects to sail for Liverpool Sept 5th.

Anson McLean, a well-known and esteemed farmer residing near Lyn, died at his home yesterday, aged 59.

Rev. Mr. Hall and wife, of Inkerman, returning from visiting friends at Westport, were yesterday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick.

The Reporter acknowledges with thanks the receipt of fine samples of Maiden Blush apples from Mr. G. W. Boyce and extra sweet corn from Mr. G. Nash.

After visiting friends at Utica, Watertown, and Athens, for several weeks, Mrs. J. E. Robeson and children have returned to their home at Vankleek Hill.

Mr. A. Mowat, principal of the Brockville Coll. Inst. came to Athens last week to spend a few days with his wife who has been for some time a guest at the home of Mrs. Giles.

Miss Anna Barber, late of Athens, was successful in passing the junior leaving exam at Brockville. Altogether, students of the B.C.I. obtained 28 junior leaving and junior matriculation certificates.

On Tuesday morning Mrs. Lee, Athens' centenarian, said to a youthful friend: "I'm one hundred years old to-day, and I'm going to give you a verse," and then she repeated word for word Ecclesiastes 12: 1.

Two talented artists, Annie Don Coochrane, Scottish contralto, of Detroit, and Irene Mallory, graduate of Emerson College of Oratory, Boston, are engaged to give an entertainment in the high school hall on Friday evening, Sept. 4. Proceeds for Public Library.

The winning of his junior leaving certificate meant leaving Athens to Mr. Claude Patterson, and to-morrow he starts for Grand Forks, N. D. He will probably complete his student course in this country, but will be for some time a resident of the U.S.

The remains of Mrs. John Landers were brought here yesterday and interred beside her husband and two sons, Lewis and Fred. The remains were accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Landers Morris, of Alpena, Mich., with whom deceased had made her home for several years. Mrs. Landers was well known and highly esteemed in Athens, and all who had knowledge of the funeral paid the last tribute of respect to their departed friend.

The many friends in this section of Dr. Homer O. Bates and wife, Mrs. Dr. Bates, of Chicago, will regret to learn that they have changed their plans and will not this season visit the Thousand Islands and Charleston Lake. They have just returned home from enjoying the exhilarating salt-sea breezes of Long Beach, California, and bathing in the surf of the Pacific at that point. Their city address is now Jackson Boulevard and Halsted street.

The Bancroft Reporter notes an ingenious way of raising funds for church purposes which is under trial in one congregation in Hastings County. About 350 contributors set apart a steer calf three years ago to be ready for the market this year and sold at a fair for that purpose, the proceeds going to relieve the building fund of the church. A prize of $50 goes to the party producing the best steer. The average weight is likely to be an unusual one, and the net proceeds are likely to reach the neighborhood of $20,000.

A couple of Athenians suspended work a few days ago while they held a birthday celebration. They grow somewhat hilarious towards the close of the day and the Chief thought that they should have an opportunity of giving an official explanation of their conduct; so he procured for them an audience with Magistrate Holmes, who allowed them to settle for their fun on a basis of $4 each. "It is no time for mirth and laughter, the cold grey dawn of the morning after," so it was without any unseemly manifestations of joy that they paid in the cash and departed sadder and, let us hope, wiser men.

Born—On August 10, to Mr. and Mrs. John Morris, a son.

Mrs. S. Boyce returned home from Smith's Falls last week.

On Wednesday last Mr. J. N. Caswell, of Toronto, was a guest at the home of Mr. T. Mavety.

Mr. B. C. Reynolds passed the recent exam. for senior matriculation at Queen's University, winning honors in mathematics.

Mr. Donald Fisher, of Vancouver, B. C., and Miss E. Fisher, of New York, are visiting their cousin, Mrs. A. E. Donovan.

Mr. Abel Yates has returned to Athens from a visit with his son in Michigan. He thinks of opening up business in the commercial line here.

On Wednesday next, Mr. F. R. Curry's baseball combination, known as the Has-beens, will play the Athens team on the grounds here. It will be a great match—don't miss it.

The late W. H. Denaut was a member of the I.O. F., and the funeral on Thursday was held under the auspices of that order, several Odd Fellows from Athens attending.

The Newboro Methodist church and Sunday school have an excursion to Alexandria Bay to-morrow, via B. & W. and Str. Brockville. A brass band and orchestra are to accompany the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Tidd, of Oswego, N.Y., and Mr. A. June, of Morton, visited Miss Byers last week. Messrs. W. T. Hayes and N. C. Williams gave them a swift drive to Charleston Lake.

Mr. Gordon Barber leaves to-day for the Canadian West, where he expects to remain for an indefinite period. Like many of Ontario's sons, God has become enamored of life in the prairie country.

Mr. Robert Thompson, of Cobourg, has been engaged as principal of the public schools of Carleton Place at a salary of $700. We are pleased to note that Mr. Thompson has re-entered the teaching profession, as he was one of the very best principals that ever managed the Athens school.

The Reporter has before drawn attention to the fine quality of red sandstone to be obtained at Charleston Lake. It can be easily quarried and, used for trimming, would add very much to the beauty of Athens' new town hall. Dr. Cornell has used some of this stone in the construction of the retaining wall at Point Geraldine and as a top-dressing for the rip-rap where his beautiful sloping lawn reaches the water's edge.

Mr. James Haskins, of Cincinnati, paid a week's visit to his brother, Chester Haskins, Phillipville, to see the friends of his childhood and neighbors of the early days. His trade is that of a pattern-maker. He makes valuable patterns from sketches and drawings, and has received therefore from $2.00 to $4.00 a day for the last 32 years. He owns and lives on his farm near Cincinnati. As his wife's friends and relatives live near this village, she also accompanied him to see them once more. His amiable daughter was with them; she is a graduate of one of the city institutions. Their visit closed with a pleasant gathering on the picturesque shore of Delta Lake and a yacht excursion.—W. S. H.

BACK TO THE OLD HAUNTS

Swift as the golden-breast Flies to her calling nest, So my heart wings to my home in the hills—

Back to the leafy haunts, Taking the byway jaunts, Up through the woodlands fair, down by the rills.

Loitering in the shade Where, as a boy, I played, Tasting the sweets of the joys I knew then,

At each familiar place, Greeting some smiling face, Clapping the hands of the old friend's again.

Back from the busy street, Far from the city's beat, Wrapped in the folds of siesta's repose,

Where sweet the wood bird calls, Where soft the twilight falls, Over the glades where the wild iris grows.

Drinking of Nature's balm, In the cool and calm, Draughts which intoxicate—make life anew,

Oh, call me not away, Here let me constant stay, Year after year with the friends that are true.

—CHAS. C. SLACK.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Patton, of Iroquois, are guests of their daughter, Mrs. W. G. Parish, at Charleston Lake.

Mr. Perry Taplin, of New York, arrived here on Thursday to spend a short vacation with relatives and friends.

Iroquois citizens have carried a by-law granting a loan of $12,000 to the Excelsior Shoe Company, of Toronto.

Country schools re-opened this week, and there has been a general exodus of teachers from Athens. The Athens schools do not open until Sept. 2nd.

Mrs. Drummond Parish is removing this week to Brockville, and her pleasant home on Wilts street is to be occupied by Mr. S. H. McBratney.

Members of the Public Library Board and committees associated therewith having returned from their holidays, the preparatory work in connection with the opening of the library and reading room is now proceeding rapidly. A catalogue of all the books at present in the library is being printed, new books to the value of $100 are being purchased, the furniture and fittings are being placed in position, and we expect to be able to announce the formal opening of the rooms next week.

A number of visiting Athenian friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilts were assembled at their pleasant home on Friday last when it occurred to some one to note the various places from which the visitors had come, and the result was found to be as follows: St. Louis, Chicago, Ohio, Bradford, Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa, Smith's Falls, Watertown, N.Y., and Newboro. Rapid transit and the good old summer time bring about many happy reunions.

Large congregations very much enjoyed the sermons delivered in the Methodist church by Rev. Thadens Lewis Wilts on Sunday last. At the evening service, on invitation, all related to the preacher by birth or marriage stood up to be counted, when it was found that there were over one hundred persons present who were connected in some way with the Wilts family from which he descended. Mr. Wilts is a finished speaker who has travelled extensively, both in this country and in Europe, and his addresses show him to have been a close student.

Mr. R. B. McGregor, North Hammonds, N. Y., among several interesting items to W. S. Hough, states that his dairy yield is as good or better than ever before. One of his Holstein cows yields 70 and 73 lbs daily and a number of other cows are very close to her; he says this is from grass alone. He has not or is not giving any provender or grain. He is evidently a well qualified judge in the case, and selects his renewals with care from New York importations.

Pains in the Back

Are symptoms of a weak, torpid or stagnant condition of the kidneys or liver, and are a warning it is extremely hazardous to neglect, so important is a healthy action of these organs. They are commonly attended by loss of energy, lack of courage, and sometimes by gloomy foreboding and despondency.

"I was taken ill with kidney trouble, and became so weak I could scarcely get around. I took medicine without benefit, and finally decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. After the first bottle I felt so much better that I continued its use, and six bottles made me a new woman. When my little girl was a baby, she could not keep anything on her stomach, and we gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla which cured her." Mrs. THOMAS ISLAW, Wallaceburg, Ont.
