

Always The Same— Always The Best

THE Quaker Flour motto means what it says. The Quaker standard is the highest in flour milling, and this standard is rigidly maintained in every bag. First comes the careful cleaning of the grain, then a milling process possible only with the most modern equipment, and finally the constant laboratory and baking tests.

"The happy baker uses Quaker"—because its consistent uniform quality guarantees unvarying success. Equally satisfactory for bread, cakes and pies.

BISHOP'S MILLS

Bishop's Mills, March 6.—Mrs. John Hare has received word of the death of her brother-in-law, William Hickey, of Peterboro. Deceased attended church on Sunday morning and on his return home was suddenly stricken with heart failure, dying in a few moments. The deceased was a ship-builder by occupation. Besides his widow he leaves one son and two daughters to mourn his loss.

Charles Poole, of Smiths Falls, spent a few days here recently.

Jack Murphy, of Neville, Sask., and T. A. Murphy, of Kemptville, are visiting relatives this week.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather quite a large congregation attended the anniversary service in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. Rev. W. Usher conducted the service and preached an eloquent sermon on "The Indebtedness of the Nation to the Sanctuary." Special music and singing were provided by the choir.

An epidemic of influenza is going through this district.

Ms. W. J. Whaley and son, Charles, of Millar's Corners, are visitors at J. S. Ferguson's.

Miss G. Craig of Oxford Mills, was a guest at the home of Mrs. Greer this week.

Miss M. Ferguson and Alfred Rander, students of Kemptville High school, and Miss Helen Baker, of the Prescott High school, spent the week-end at their homes here.

ROEBUCK FARMERS TALK FORMATION CHEESE COMPANY

Action Deferred on Proposal to Buy Factory.

NEWS OF THE DISTRICT

Anniversary Services in Presbyterian Church at Bishop's Mills.

Roebuck, March 6.—A meeting of the patrons of the Roebuck cheese factory was held in the Orange hall, Roebuck, on Saturday evening at eight o'clock. The meeting was called to consider the formation of a company of farmers to buy the cheese factory business. The patrons want a factory at Roebuck next summer, and Mr. Slater, the present proprietor, has assured the patrons that he does not intend to operate the factory another season. The matter is being considered and another meeting is being called for Thursday evening next.

Mrs. Florence Miller is quite seriously ill and is under the care of Dr. Sutherland, of North Augusta.

The many friends of Freeman Toppin will be glad to hear that he was able to sit up to-day for the first time. He is still under the care of a physician and a nurse.

Two carloads of potatoes were loaded at Spencerville station last week at 40 cents per bushel. Mr. Robinson and U.F.O. loaded the cars.

MALLORYTOWN

Mallorytown, March 12.—Benson Elliott and daughter, Kathleen, of Kingston, were in the village last week attending the funeral of Miss Lucy Guild.
