Under ordinary conditions our values would be commonplace, and it is because they are different, so vastly superior, that our business has increased so rapid-

They are made of worsteds, in the new and beautiful grays

E. M. Macdonald (Pictou) declared the Minister of Minister of S000 acres at a nominal rental of $10 a year. His Excellency and reported from the committee of the whole. Hon. Mr. Fielding admitted that he had not adopted the right procedure.

Mr. Bergeron read from Le Nationaliste charging members of the Quebec Legislature with boodling, and dared the Premier (Mr. Gouin) to bring its editor to the Bar of the House. "It is common talk in the City of Quebec," said Mr. Bergeron, "that anything can be carried through the Legislature by the use of money."

Mr. Martin (Con., P. E. I.) protested against the discrimination against P. E. I., and moved an amendment granting also to Prince Edward an extra annual allowance of $100,000 a year for ten years. Mr. McLean (Con., P. E. I.) seconded the amendment, which was defeated.

Mr. Taylor (Leeds) called attention to the failure of Justice Magee to decide his cases. Mr. Aylesworth referred him to the Attorney-General of Ontario. Mr. Taylor then offered an amendment to a pending bill respecting Manitobs, providing that any judge who kept a case after submission for 90 days should have his salary stopped until the case was decided. Mr. Aylesworth opposed the amendment, and Mr. Taylor withdrew it.

The railway subsidies passed, involving at least from $3,500,000 to $7,000,000. The House went into supply and passed a large grist of estimates.

Premier Whitney Explains.
Toronto, April 26.—Premier Whitney made the following statement last made the following statement last evening:

"With reference to the assertions made in the House of Commons Wednesday regarding the Petawawa Camp matter. I desire to say that the Ottawa people must not be allowed to get away from the issue.

"No bad faith can be shown on our part. We were ready to do everything that was asked at any time by the Department of Militia, but insisted that the rights of the licensees and the rights of the Ontario Government in the timber dues should be adjusted and settled before any least was granted. The Department of Militia decided to refuse this proposition of ours.

ed. The Department of Militia decided to refuse this proposition of ours, and, without notice to us of their refusal, assumed to take over or confiscate the lands in question, which are, or were, at any rate, the property of the province.

"If it suits Mr. Fielding in the extremity in which he finds himself; to make charges of bad faith, well and good. I make no counter-charges of bad faith. I simply say that, without a word of warning, and without saying "By your leave." the Departbad faith. I simply say that, without a word of warning, and without saying "By your leave," the Depart-ment of Militia reached out and took our land and our timber, and then practically asked us what we were going to do about it.

No Doubt About It.

No Doubt About It.

"In answer to a question in the House of Commons on the 3rd of April, Sir Frederick Borden stated the position of the department in these words:

"The Government has not taken the interest of the lumber licensees, and they have, therefore, no claim to compensation. The Ontario Government is not, by the British North America Act, entitled to compensation, and it is not intended to pay that Government any compensation.

"There is no doubt, therefore, as to what his intentions were, and neither Mr. Aylesworth nor Mr. Fielding can get over this.

Well Enough Now, But—

Mr. Aylesworth nor Mr. Fielding can get over this.

Well Enough Now, But—

"A man in Mr. Fielding's place might be engaged in better business than making charges of bad faith, for which he must know he has no foundation. It is all very well for Mr. Aylesworth to say now that they are willing to pay the licensees' claims, and it is all very well for Mr. Fielding to say now, as reported by The Gobe. 'If, however, the Government of Ontario thought that they had been badly treated by the Government, they were willing that the procedure should be settled by the Attorney-General of Ontario and the Minister of Justice with regard to deciding the method by which, if the right to compensation existed, that compensation should be settled.'

"These statements by two Ministers cover our whole case. If the Department of Militia had seen fit to use this language, no difficulty could have occurred; but, instead of that, the Minister of Militia took our property without warning, declared that we were not entitled to compensation, and that he would not give us com-

Mr. Whitney was then asked, "Have you seen the language used by E. M. Macdonald in the House of Commons Wednesday?" Elder R. C. Russell last evening at Elder R. C. Russell last evening at the Saints church introduced his subject by a short history of universal kingdoms that existed before Christ's birth, showing the fulfillment of the prophetic dreams of Nebuchadnezzar and David, both of which showed that the Roman kingdom—Pagan in worship—ruled when Christ was born and was the great factor in killing Him and entirely overthrowing His church—the Saints—Dan. 7, 19-25.
