Coming Attraction.

The Woman's Aid Society of Chalmers church, Lower Horton, has made arrangements for the appearance of Miss Elsie Hext at Acadia Villa Hall on Monday evening, July 16th. This talented elocutionist is looked upon as one of Canada's foremost entertainers, and as she will not appear in Wolfville there will likely be a good attendance of Wolfville people. The admittance fee will be 25c and 50c. Following are a few press notices:

Moncton Leader:—"The school room of the Presbyterian church was well filled last evening to hear Miss Elsie Hext, the charming elocutionist. Her selection of heretofore taken and received the warmest applause of the audience. The statuesque posing in Greek costume was much admired; the passions, love, hate, etc., being portrayed as if under the usual naturally trying circumstances."

Chatham World:—"The audience in Masonic Hall, Tuesday evening, was delighted with the recitations and posing of this accomplished lady. The hall should have been full. Several of the ladies were trying the poses on the very house, seeking to emulate the fair and shapely artist."

Northern Enterprise, Campbellton, N.
B.:—"Everyone who attended the entertaining given by Elsie Hext felt thoroughly repaid, it being one of the most enjoyable evenings of the season. Miss Hext's manner on the stage was graceful and attractive, and her recitation of the various selections was exceptionally good."

The opening of "Evangeline Beach," Long Island, on Wednesday evening was a most successful affair. There was a large gathering of people from Wolfville, Grand Pre, Horton Landing and other places. Mr. W. J. Balcom furnished teams and drove a large number from here. It is estimated that between 300 and 400 persons were at the beach. The Wolfville band furnished a good programme of music which was greatly enjoyed. The restaurant did a rushing business in strawberries, ice-cream and other refreshments. The whole affair was a most pleasing one, and the public will look eagerly forward to a repetition which we understand is planned to be held in a few weeks' time.
