Thanksgiving Community Service

SIDNEY AND NORTH SAANICH

A large congregation gathered on Sunday afternoon last in the Berquest Hall, the occasion being remarkable and unique in that practically every phase of local life, religious, social and industrial, was represented.

The three ministers of the local Churches, supported by members of the I.O.D.E. Women's Institute and Red Cross Society were on the platform, and in the body of the hall were to be seen the principal local and district people, including a goodly number of the school children. From the start the service was marked with that solemnity and seriousness and earnest-ness that befitted the purpose of the gathering, for here were men, women and children gathered to give thanks to Almighty God for His great mercies and to renew their steadfastness and faith as they look at the future.

The opening hymn: "All people that on Earth do dwell," struck the note that was maintained throughout the service, the acknowledgement of the supremecy of

The addresses were short but of a very high order. Each speaker surpassed any previous public effort. Full acknowledgement was given to the bravery of dur soldiers and sailors, the great skill and wisdom of our leaders, the constancy of the workers, and yet it was clearly insisted that in the tragic collapse of the enemy the hand of God was seen, it was His work and power that had laid the

"The Lord had triumphed gloriously. Freedom and liberty had been won, but we need the same earnest, steadfast purpose that the fruits of victory may be enjoyed and maintained. Miss E. Anderson and Mrs. Anstey both contributed of their best in their solos and their singing was much appreciated, Mrs. Anstey giving a very dignified rendering of Kipling's "Recessional.

TRUE MUSICAL EXPRESSION

That, in a nut-shell, describes wherein the Grafononola is different and superior to all other makes of sound reproducing instruments. The wonderfully smooth full-volumed is unmarred by a trace of scratch or discord. Contrast this with the objectional mechanical noises so common in other makes, and your own good judgment will tell you that there is only one instrument that you would care to own-the incomparable Columbia Grafonola.
