Featherbone vs. Whalebone.

Scientists tell us Featherbone is practically the same substance as whalebone. Therefore Featherbone Corsets are better than whalebone, being more elastic and fitting closer. Ask for and see that you get "Featherbone Corsets." Sold generally throughout Canada.

Don't forget John S. Murphy's play in music Hall, to-morrow night. PHOTOGRAPHIC.—Mr. G. L. Johnson, formerly of the parish of Botsford, now residing in Manitoba, gave an interesting photographic exhibition at Capt. W. J. Adams' a few evenings since, and delighted a large company with band music and operatic selections.

ENTERTAINMENT AT ROCKPORT.—Prof. J. Herschel Smith, the renowned Assyrian Picture, who confers fame on Amherst by reading in that city, gave one of his unique exhibitions at Rockport last week. The Prof. as a bird of song was not equal to Patti, but the applause was loud and continuous.

WE are pleased to see that the Anderson Methodist congregation, after long effort will next Sabbath open their convenient church. The friends who can be present will find it not only a profitable service but also a fitting opportunity to assist in a worthy mission.

MA. MURPHY'S company are well selected, not a weak character in the casts, each one is fitted for his peculiar role and all play their parts to perfection.

THE monthly meeting of the Westmorland Parish Association will be held in the Hall at Westmorland Point on Monday evening, June 6th. Mr. J. E. Hopkins of the dairy station at Nappan is expected to address the meeting.

THE sale of the lands of Charles Ward at Upper Sackville, under mortgage took place on Wednesday. Only one lot was sold, the sale of the remainder being adjourned.

MR. J. V. Ellis of St. John Globe, Mr. G. F. Baird, M. P., Hon. Judge Hamilton, R. O. Stockton and many other prominent citizens have been in town attending the closing exercises of the St. Allison institution.

BASE BALL.—A return match between Dorchester and Sackville Juniors on Saturday last was won by the latter. The battery work of Sackville was the feature of the game. Score, Sackville 4, Dorchester 2. 0-0, 3-0, 0-0, 0-0, 0-0.

SHIPPING.—A large square riggers are at present loading deals at Base Verte and Port Elgin, one at Rock Port, and another daily expected at Cape Tormentine.

SCHOONER MARY E. has been sold by Mr. T. A. Kinnear to S. L. Chapman of Dorchester.

SCH. ALTA is at the wharf with a cargo of grain for J. B. Black.

AN INCREASINGLY WORK.—An unsuccessful attempt was made on Monday morning to burn the building on Bridge St. owned by Alex. Ford Esq., and occupied by J. W. Dubson as a harness shop. The fire was set in the alley between the lock up and shop and was discovered very shortly after the incendiary left. It was extinguished without doing much damage. There is no clue to the guilty party.

ON Monday night some one put the touch to the old rink. The fire was discovered about midnight and in a very short time the building was consumed. The dressing rooms adjoining were saved. The building was valued more for its associations than its intrinsic worth but the Liverpool & London & Globe Ins. Co. offer a reward of $100.00 for the discovery of the offender.

River Hierarchy.

—Mr. Joshua Downey of Minot succeeded in capturing a very large bear last week, the skin was 7 feet long, he would weigh about 400 lbs. he caught him on the side of the River. Hebert, back of M. K. Pagley's some distance back. Mr. Downey thinks it the same bear that has been about here the last two or three springs. He has been very alive and keeps a little distance between him and the trap, but he jumped right into one last, he had two toes off of one foot. No doubt he had been in a trap before some years ago.

—Mr. and Mrs. Justan and daughter, of Portland, Oregon, are visiting at Mr. Baird's.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Adams, of Southampton, have been visiting some of their many friends here for a few days. They are going to spend the summer with their daughter and son the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Ness, Bass River.

—Shipping is quite brisk, a number of vessels are busy carrying lumber and coal.

St. Joseph College.

On 24th and 25th insts. the students of this institution gave, on the college campus, an exhibition of their athletic development and skill to a large number of spectators, amongst whom were the sisters and young ladies of the "Sacred Heart" Convent. Father Wilmes was field captain; Geo. H. Whelan field secretary; Mrs. Robert Gaudet and Lady Dry judges. The P. M. were given particularly to games, among which were games of base-ball on the 24th, between the staff and boys, in which the professors showed their superiority by winning to the score of 12 to 8. Batteries: Wilmes and Whelan for the winners; McIlmerton and Hayes for the losers. Football and hand ball were also played, but the main interest was centered on the following—senior's division only given—

Running high jump: 5 ft. 3 1/2 in. M. Lord and 31 ft. 7 in. Thos. McManison, Lowell, U.S.

Putting the shot: 31 ft. 7 in. Thos. McManison, Lowell, U.S.

Running hop-step-and-jump: 42 feet. Geo. Whelan, Sussex.

Throwing hammer: 62 ft. 9 in. John Whelan, Sussex.

3 standing jumps: 82 ft. 9 in. Geo. Whelan, Sussex.

Running base-ball 108-23 yds. John Whelan, Richibucto.

Kicking foot ball: 183 ft. A. Polior, Shediac.

Shodded race: Z. Lepage and C. D. Cormier.

Sack race: J. Hayes, Fredericton.

Hand race: A. Boudage, Cognac.

Hand race: Ed. Boudage, Cognac.

Potato race: James Lyons, Kentville, N.S.

Standing high kick: 7 ft. 9 1/2 in. Sol. Coté, Quebec.

Hitch and kick: 8 ft. 3 1/2 in. Sol. Coté, Quebec.

St. Joseph, of course, has no intention of comparing their athletic abilities with other societies, but in viewing the records made by other organizations on the 24th and 25th insts. we are struck by something new amongst the boys here, it cannot but be said that some good exhibitions in that city, gave one of his unique exhibitions at Rockport last week. The Prof. as a bird of song was not equal to Patti, but the applause was loud and continuous.

WE are pleased to see that the Anderson Methodist congregation, after long effort will next Sabbath open their convenient church. The friends who can be present will find it not only a profitable service but also a fitting opportunity to assist in a worthy mission.

Idea of 'ablation' or 'affusion.'

His reason for the above deviation from the accepted meaning of the word when Christian Baptism is under consideration is found in some difficulty that appears to him to be in the way of performing the act that the meaning of the word demands. The chief difficulty is in relation to the 3,000, and the 5,000. Others make 'the want of time' for the immersion of so many the difficulty but Dr. Robinson's difficulty is the scarcity of water.

It is to be said, Jesus commanded his disciples to baptize. The inspired record says they were baptized. The meaning of baptism is immersion but they could not immerse because of the scarcity of water. For the force of this difficulty, let the reader see Eccl. 3:1-3; 22:11; 11 Chron. 32:30, John 3:2, etc. Five of the pools by actual measurement covered an aggregate surface of 1564 feet in length, 781 ft. in breadth and in the centre had a depth varying from 18 ft. to 75 ft. (see Robinson, Maundrell, Samson, etc.).

We add Dr. Robinson's definition of 'Baptism, atonement, to (Baptizo) pr. any thing dipped in or immersed in N. T. baptism Mt. 3:17, etc. Christian baptism is a sacred ablution, or washing for calamities, afflictions, with which one is overwhelmed Mt. 20:22, 23.

IV. 'Greek English Lexicon of the New Testament Being Grimm's Wilke's Greek-English Lexicon Translated and Revised and Enlarged by Joseph Henry Thayer, D. D., Bussey Professor of New Testament Criticism and Interpretation in the Divinity School of Harvard University. (New York 1887). This Lexicon is the latest and best authority on the question at issue. In the S. S. Times of June 1st '89, I think, in answer to an inquiry as to 'whose Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament stands highest in the estimation of the best critical scholars?' the answer is—'unquestionably the best Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament is that known as Thayer's Grimm, published by Harper & Bros., New York,' and the following definitions of the verb Baptizo and its noun Baptisma.

BAPTIZO. 1. I, prop. to dip repeatedly, to immerse, submerge. 2. To cleanse by dipping or submerging, to wash, to make clean with water; in the Mid. and the Lat. aor. pass. to wash oneself, bathe. Mk. 7:4; Lk. 11:38; II King 5:14.

3. Metaphorically, to overwhelm, to be overwhelmed by calamities. II. In the N. T. it is used particularly of the ablution first instituted by John the Baptist, afterwards by Christ's command received by Christians and adjusted to the contents and nature of their religion. (see Baptisma, 3) viz. an immersion in water performed as a sign of the removal of sin, and administered to those who, impelled by a desire for salvation, accept admission to the benefits of the Messiah's kingdom.

BAPTISMA. aor. to. (Baptizo). A word peculiar to N. T. Eccl. writ. immersion, submergence; 1. Used tropically of calamities and afflictions with which one is quite overwhelmed: Mt. 20:22 sq. Rev. Mk. 10:38 sq. Lk. 12:50 (see Baptizo 1, 3). 2. Of John's baptism. 3. Of Christian baptism; this according to the view of the apostles is a word of sacred immersion, commanded by Christ.

Such, Mr. Editor, are the definitions of the five lexicons that lie on my table. The fifth in Listall and Scott which has already appeared in your columns, I shall look with interest for the Lexicon that will give 'to sprinkle' as 'the real and prime import of Baptizo.' I remain, Mr. Editor, Yours with pleasant recollections.

119 Robt St., Halifax, N. S.

P. S. Since mailing some definitions of lexicons I saw your issue of the 11th inst. containing a strange deliverance from 'another Bible student' in which he gives 'a list of meanings given by lexicons' containing the word 'sprinkled' among the rest. If I understand your offer it is to leave you a column open for the 'real and primary definitions' of 'Baptizo' given by the Greek lexicons in the possession of your readers.

If another Bible student has a lexicon giving 'sprinkled' as such definition, or knows where he can find one, let him give the name of the book, the edition, and the edition in which it is found. Until he does this his words have no relevancy to the question. The question is not what is baptism, (only as a matter of fact determined) but what is the meaning of the Greek word 'Baptizo' as given by the lexicons. (Do the lexicons say that 'Baptizo' is sprinkled?) used by our Lord and His apostles, in every case, to designate baptism? means 'to immerse,' or do they say that it means 'to sprinkle'?

'Bible student,' and if you can't find one place to not write of any one who may differ from you, either as to have a foot, I place your lexicon in the list and let it speak for itself or the readers of the Post will conclude that you find it easier to say 'immerse' and 'dip' than to find the lexicon that says 'Baptizo' in its 'real and primary import' means 'to sprinkle' or in its secondary import either.

TRUE PHILANTHROPY.

To the Editor:—Please inform your readers that I will mail free to all sufferers the means by which I was restored to health and manly vigor after years of suffering from Nervous Weakness. I was robbed and swindled by the quacks until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but thanks to heaven I am now well, vigorous and strong. I have nothing to sell and no scheme to extort money from anyone whomsoever, but knowing that to make this certain cure known to all I will send free and confidential to anyone who particulars of just how I was cured. Address with stamps: Mr. EDWARD MARSH, (Teacher), 5th P. O. Box, 143, Detroit, Mich.

Amherst.

The entertainment given by the ladies of Christ Church on Wednesday evening last was a great success in every way increasing the Parish House Building Fund, to the amount of one hundred and ten dollars.

A fire broke out on Thursday morning three o'clock, destroying the all of a building, occupied by Sackville Cole on Prince Arthur St., but it was fortunately extinguished before very much damage was done. The town is to be congratulated upon a plentiful supply of water, otherwise we might have to chronicle a serious loss as this building is in the heart of the town.

His Grace the Archbishop of Halifax, administered the rite of confirmation to twenty-five candidates, on Friday last, in St. Charles Roman Catholic Church.

Mr. Usher of the firm of Dawson, Symmes, and Usher was in town last week from Ploughfield, N. Y.

—Canon Townshend, and his son and daughter, Judge Townshend and Mrs. St. George, will be in town on the 17th of June from England for a home.

A doll's carnival will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Hall in connection with the Blind Asylum in Halifax, on Tuesday the 28th inst. and a large committee of ladies from each church in town have in hand a tea and refreshment table to assist the blind at their homes, who are not able to attend the Asylum. It is earnestly hoped that the ladies will be present in large numbers to relieve the monotony of these unfortunate.

—Cupid, the busy little fellow, has again sent out one of his mischievous couriers and the result has been announced "an other engagement."

The old Baptist church purchased by Rhoads, Curry & Co. was found too crowded to move, and it is now being torn down and sold for kindling wood.

A most painful and serious accident befell Mr. R. H. W. Weir on Thursday morning last while at work on the new car building, a heavy joist falling on his left arm breaking both bones and inflicting a deep gash, causing great suffering, and also dislocating the elbow joint. At a consultation of Doctors on Monday it was found necessary to amputate the arm above the elbow, which was done that evening. Mr. Weir is doing as well as can be expected.

After the grip, when you are weak and tired out, Hood's Sarsaparilla will restore your health and strength.
