

VARIETIES.

An Old Book.—The oldest book in the United States, it is said, in a manuscript Bible in the possession of Dr. Witherspoon...

The Value of what is Common.—Through the vulgar error of undervaluing what is common, we are apt, indeed, to pass these by as of little worth.

A New Reading.—An aphorism floating through the newspapers, says that "an egg to-day is better than a hen to-morrow."

Napoleon used to say, "Strange as it may appear, when I want any good head-work done, I choose a man, provided his education has been suitable, with a long nose.

Complaint to our Generals.—The Turks will have it, that the soldiers' wives in our camps belong to the herms of our generals, and affirm we are going to retain possession of the country, as our households have come along with us.

Our Inhuman Approaching Boots.—Our poor tattered fellows were glad to obtain some of the more substantial clothing of the conquered, which had no other value than that of being worn.

He that hath a God, a good heart, and a good wife to converse with, and yet complains that he wants society, would not have been any contented in Paradise, for Adam himself had no more.

George the Third Hooshead.—What bovine did the officers of the 40th Regiment manufacture, and what horse of it? They made a butt of George [Not bad this for an old soldier].

A singular Irishman was observed one evening sitting a potato into his whiskey toddy. "What are you about?" inquired "Clarney." "It's punch I am making, dear," replied Pat. "But what are you sitting that in for?" "To give it flavour."

The English lady of fashion, who sent to the fishmonger for a pair of gutta-percha soles, has been talking for children to Madame Tussaud to have them properly constituted.

The young lady who fancied cucumbers grew in silver has recently been married to the young gentleman, who sent one to St. Petersburg a large cargo of hothouses for clearing the streets of Russia.

The sensitive actor who couldn't sit in same room with a top-urn on account of its hissing, has just been killed with a "burst of applause."

His nose is swallow-winged, but what is good walks on crutches.

Gold is the god, the wife, the friend and the money-monger of the world.

There is no prize in heaven, because no correction is there, for it is there only.

Men, armed with remonstrance in hand, has no match among other animals.

The most extraordinary of Tin Shop, in the universe.—The Bank of Geneva.

Indifference to praise is generally dead to shame.

The term "grass-widow" arises from the fact that their husbands are roving blades.

It is never too late to seek a doctor, and honest not to reveal it.

Highly Important to the Public.

The Great Remedies.—The attention of the public is particularly directed to the three great and powerful remedies discovered by Dr. R. R. R. They are: 1. RADWAY'S READY RELIEF, 2. RADWAY'S REVOLVING RESOLVENT, 3. RADWAY'S REGULATORS.

They are of such efficacy, and of such a nature, as to be of service to the whole human race. They are the result of the most extensive and successful practice, and have been tried by the most distinguished medical men of the age.
