The following is an extract from the Paris corresponidence of Le Nord, the Russian journal of Brussels : "Dining a few days ago with a high personage o the conrt, Count Cavour did not conceal the conrt, Count Cavout did not conceal his complaints against the Conference, for refusing to interfere in the affairs of for refusing to interfere in the affairs of Italy against Austria, which power had Italy against Austria, which power had in its favour the majority of the plenipoin its favour the majority of the plenipotentiaries. He ended with saying there will be revolutions in Italy before the ear is out. The manuel, adds Le Nord. uttered his prophecy with some show of reason; the noment a Piedmontese army from the Crimea is about to enter the Guif of the frontier of Piedmont. It is easy to oresee the possibility of a conflict. England will sustain Piedmont. France also would cordially interfere with the object of reconciling the revolution with the interests of the Pope. Austria, who left Russia to combat singly with the Allied powers, could not in the case of

A monument is about to be erected to John Wesley at Epsworth, the principal town in the Isle of Axholme, North Lincolnshire, which was the place of his birth. The design represents John Wesley attired in a gown, with a bible in his hand, and praaching from a tombstone, he having delivered a sermon from the stone over his father's grave in Epsworth churchyard.

Since the breaking out of the war, 1241 zentlemen have been appointed without purchase; 317 commissions have been given to militia officers in cousideration of having obtained volunteers; and 170 non-commissioned oflicers have received 1728.

The Court Journal says that the enrance of the guards into London wil me made the occasion of the first distriution of the new order of valour- "The ictoria Cross"-with which it is likely er Majesty will, in person, decorate the soldiers of those regiments who may the honour.
