The Tribune's cable special says:—The resignation by the Grand Duke Nicholas of the command of the Imperial Guards displays how the administration is honeycombed with corruption. The Grand Duke Nicholas, and the other Grand Dukes, embezzled the regimental funds systematically. Gen. Nelikoff disclosed the peculations, and the Czarewitch compelled the Grand Duke to resign. The builders of the Czar's new yacht charged $100,000 extra, giving secretly a cheque to another Grand Duke for that amount. These practices are common in Russia.

Prorogation and Speech from the Throne,

ENGLAND'S EASTERN POLICY. The North-Western Frontier of

India. LONDON, Sept. 7.

Parliament was prorogued to-day. The fol-lowing was her Majesty's speech, read by My Lords and Gentlemen :-

"It is with satisfaction that I find myself at length enabled to release you from your arduous labours. I continue to receive assurances of a most friendly character from all foreign powers. The failure of the Sublime Porte to execute, according to its engagement, the plan agreed upon in April last for the determination of the Ottoman frontier lying towards Monteners, has enseed upon to the character of the charac wards Montenegro, has caused unfortunate delays in the settlement of that question, and the Treaty of Berlin has not yet taken effect in other points of importance which remained open at the commencement of the session. The Governments which were parties to that treaty have communicated to the Sultan their judgment on the means of bringing to a satisfactory settlement the Greek and Montenegrin frontier questions, on the administrative or-ganization of the European provinces of Tur-key, and on the principal reforms required in the Asiatic provinces inhabited by the Ar-menians. For the attainment of the objects in view I continue to place reliance on the fact that the concert of European has been fact that the concert of Europe has been steadily maintained in regard to the Eastern question; that the powers which signed the Treaty of Berlin are pressing upon the Sublime Porte, with all the authority which belongs to their united action. longs to their united action, measures which, in their belief, are best calculated to insure

"I have not been unmindful during the faw mouths which have elapsed since I hast addressed you of the considerations which I have stated would guide my policy on the north-western frontier of my Indian Empire.

Measures have already been taken for the complete military evacuation of Northern towards the pacification and settlement of the country. A renewal of hostilities by the Afghans under Ayoub Khan rendered necessary further military operation in Southern Afghanistan. The prompt measures taken by the Government of India for the relief of the garrison of Candahar and the conspicuous ability and energy displayed by my officers and troops in the execution of these measures, resulting in the brilliant victory recently gained by the gallant force under the command of Sir Frederick Roberts, will, I trust, speedily bring to an honourable termination

Gen. Phayre Withdraws to a Position where He Can Act Against Mutineers.

London, Sept. 8.—A correspondent with Gen. Phayre's command telegraphs from Killab Dolla that a portion of this division has already begun to retrace its steps. The 63rd regiment left to-day, and will march to Quettah and remain there in readiness to act against the musineers among the Khan of Khelat's troops and the Sharawak tribes.

COLLIERY EXPLOSION.

Terrible Disaster in an English Coal Mine.

Two Hundred and Fifty Men Imprisoned— Both Shafts Blocked. London, Sept. 8 .- An explosion occurred on the coast, about five miles south of Sun berland. Two hundred and fifty men were in the pit, and from that time up to eleven o'clock all efforts to reach to eleven o'clock all efforts to reach them were unsuccessful. Communication has, however, since been opened with a group of eighteen men who are safe. The greatest excitement prevails in the neighbourhood. The wives and families of the imprisoned or slaughtered miners, surround the mouth of the pit with loud cries and lamentations. The eighteen men with whom communications have been opened do not falling into the harbour. They came from an easterly direction.

On Friday Mr. Angers, on the part of the Minister of Justice and the Attorney-General, withdrew the appeal to the Privy Council from the recent judgment of the Court of Vice-Admiralty in favour of the owner of the Atalaya, and proceedings for the liquidation of her damages were allowed by the Court.

There was a numerous attendance of French Canadian capitalists. the rules of the hilbers in respect to the lamps were as strict as possible, and it was supposed to be as safe as any in the kingdom. A large number of people have arrived at the scene of the disaster from Sunderland. Nothing can be seen except the smoke which arises from below. There is every reason to believe that this is to be one of the most disastrous mining calamities on record. Both shafts are blocked, though they are half a

THE LOSS OF THE VERA CRUZ Only Eight Bodies Yet Recovered—Datardly Conduct of the Pilots—Bodie Robbed and Buried.

Robbed and Buried.

JACKSONVILLE; Fla., Sept. 8.—Only eight bodies of the victims of the Vera Cruz disaster have yet been received. All the dead except Gen. Torbert are buried on the beach. Over $200,000 worth of property from various wrecks has strewn over the beach.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The Herald's special Augusta, Florida, despatch reports that the five pilots of that city, having learned that a vessel had been wrecked, kept the matter a profound secret, instead of at once rallying the community to rescue, if possible, the survivors, resolved themselves into a band of wreckers and spont two entire days recovering for their own purpose, the more valuable of the Vera Cruz's freight that strewed the beach. It is said they rifled trunks and mails, and even robbed the bodies that drifted ashore, burying the remains in the sand instead of preserving them for identification by Destroyed.

Upton, Que, Sept, 8.—For some time past bush fires have been gavaging forests in Quebec Province. Little attention was naid to them, as they are looked upon as the best method of clearing the land. There had been a severe drought for the past few weeks, and a high wind fauned the flames until on Monday the inhabitants of Upton saw, with dismay, a wall of flames coming toward them with steady sweep as fast as a man could run, swallowing up everything in its course. with steady sweep as fast as a man could run, swallowing up everything in its course.
