

THE POET'S CORNER

Little Honora Mullaly.

At the close of the Thanks, wing Day, standing in front of her alley, watching some children at play...

Any further remarks about them. But poor little Honora Mullaly had faces just as bright as could be...

"Yin, indeed," said Honora Mullaly. "I did," said Mrs. Down. Had a hape of sweeties that Salie, Her sister, baked lovely and brown...

"We find Burdock Blood Bitters excellent for weakness, and equally so for headache. Father also suffered severely from quinsy, which B. B. cured by its tonic and purifying properties, completely cured."

"Say, Honey, Does Ye Know de Lord?" The story is told of an eminent New England divine, how that for years he learnedly argued and discoursed on the truth of the theological tenets of the Bible...

On a pleasant wintry Sunday afternoon a note from this lawyer summoned him to his residence, and great was the preacher's delight to have him repeat the question of the Philistine judge a week ago...

"What must I do to be saved?" An earnest, simple explanation of the doctrine of repentance, and faith toward God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, followed by a season of prayer and consecration found a human soul, with the burden rolled away, very happy in the Lord.

The preacher then, in the grateful pride of the moment, propounded the question: "Will you please tell me what it was in my morning sermon that so forcibly impressed itself upon you as to cause such intense conviction of conscience?"

And on its purity largely depends the general health. No one is free from danger, and nine-tenths of humanity actually do suffer from one or other of impure blood. No one remedy has such a wide range of curative power as has Burdock Blood Bitters—that best of all blood purifiers and tonics.

Mrs. Willard on Dolls. Miss Willard has got into trouble by some remarks she made on dolls. The Philadelphia Record says: Miss Willard did say that the doll, as we have in these modern days, fostered a love of dress and display...

More Trouble May be Expected. If you do not heed the warnings of nature and at once pay attention to the maintenance of your health. How often we see a person put off from day to day the purchase of a medicine which if procured at the outset of a disease would have remedied it almost immediately.

Chronic Coughs and colds. And all diseases of the throat and lungs can be cured by the use of Scott's Emulsion, as it contains the healing virtues of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites in their fullest form.

The best regulators for the stomach and bowels, the best cure for indigestion, sick headache, indigestion, and affections arising from a disordered liver, are without exception Johnson's Tonic Liver Pills. Small in size, sugar coated, mild, yet effective. 25 cts. per bottle sole by Goode, druggist, Albion block, Goderich, sole agent.

Use of Stimulants Between Meals.

Although all persons who indulge in alcoholic stimulants will within the margin of actual drunkenness speak of themselves as "moderate drinkers," there are two special classes of them which bear no resemblance to each other, except in the one solitary circumstance that they never at any time take sufficient to intoxicate themselves.

How a Dude Caught a Cold. A slim young man in the height of fashion was violently sneezing in a street, when a companion remarked: "Ay, Chas, dear boy, how d'ye catch that dreadful cold?"

How Euskin Met His Tutor. "He rae," said Mr. Raskin, in the last number of his autobiography, telling of a boat ride from Yevey to Geneva, "he rose with the sweetest, quiet smile I ever saw on any face, unless perhaps a nun's, when she has some grave kindness to do, crossed to our side of the boat, and addressing himself to my father said, with a frank expression of great gladness, and of frank trust that his joy would be understood, that I knew who we were, was most thankful to have met us, and that he prayed permission to introduce his mother and sisters to us."

A Sure Cure. "My dear," a fond husband remarked the other day. "I have talked with Dr. Mildew about your case, and so I've brought you a pair of diamond strings." "Oh, how lovely!" she exclaimed, and then, after a moment of ecstatic admiration, she added: "But I don't see what this has to do with exercise."

He Never Smiled Again. No "hardly ever" about it. He had an attack of what people call "biliousness," and to smile was impossible. Yet a man may smile and smile, and be a villain still, still he was no villain, but a plain, blunt, honest man, that needed a Purgative Pilella.

A Fox and Hound Story. A case of remarkable endurance on the part of a hound was learned Friday. Montreal, says: "I was troubled for years with biliousness and liver complaint, and I never found any medicine to help me like Burdock Blood Bitters, in fact one bottle made a complete cure."

Severe Attack. Miss Beala Elliot, of Pontypool, Ont., writes: "My brother and I were both taken ill with a severe attack of diarrhoea, having tried other remedies, we tried Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, which gave immediate relief."

Garden Rockeries. The "rockery" is a tasteful feature of the lawn, and may be used to cover up any unsightly spot. It is necessary that such garden decorations should be as natural in design as possible, the rocks and stones picturesquely thrown together, the crevices filled with earth in which drooping plants, flowers, ferns and moss may be arranged.

Partly Gave U. "In the years 1885 I coughed for six months, and having unsuccessfully tried many remedies, I partly gave up, thinking I had consumption. At last I tried Hagar's Pectoral Balsam, less than one bottle of which cured me, leaving me as well as ever I was." Henry W. Carns, Wabash, Ont.

The Oldest Timber. Probably the oldest timber in the world which has been subjected to the use of man is that found in the ancient temple of Egypt in connection with the stone work, which is known to be at least 4,000 years old. This, the only wood used in the construction of the temple, is in the form of ties, holding the end of one stone to another.

A whole family, six in number, were poisoned at Plymouth, Pa., by eating a grated wild turnip, dug from the ground in mistake for horse radish and served for breakfast. James McBride and wife, Chas McBride, Edward Foley, Edward Mulca and Edward Kennedy are in a critical condition, and the physician says Kennedy and Chas McBride will die. Their sufferings are horrible.

The Court records at Lincoln, Neb., show that Patrick Egan, the newly appointed Minister to Chili, was naturalized April 10, 1888.

What Makes a Good Nurse.

The instinct of self-preservation—one may as well call it by a high-sounding name—makes a perfect vampire of a sick man. It is not altogether watching, or care, or constant service, or the keen sense of responsibility which exhausts a nurse, nor all of them combined. It is the presence of the patient's famished body, taking in at every pore the nervous energy of whoever is near. The waking pains for life. Life he must have. Give up your hand. Send the full charge of your human battery along my veins.

The Letter that Came. From Mr. J. Hayden, 139 Chatham St., Montreal, says: "I was troubled for years with biliousness and liver complaint, and I never found any medicine to help me like Burdock Blood Bitters, in fact one bottle made a complete cure."
