Census Enumerators.

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir,-In the editorial columns of the issue of Sept. 6th, of your eseemed journal there appears an article headed "Trouble about Census Enumerators." You say "There seems be much dissatisfaction prevalent regard to the appointment of the akers of the census. We hear of merators. It appears that the unknown one was beneath his contempt Be that as it may, it was not always thus. The same M. H. A. did know all the teachers in the year of the last elections. Perhaps the turmoil o public life has somewhat impaired his retentiveness. His course of action in this matter, one would think. would have been dominated by his love of simple justice and British fair play. Another reason given for the exclusion of the other teacher was Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. exclusion of the other teacher was Harbor Grace Notes.

Mr. Edward Webber who has spen ome time with his mother here, left resterday to resume his work at Box

Mrs. John T. McRae and Miss Mc-Rae returned by the S. S. Solway from Grady, Labrador, where they spent a couple of months very pleasantly.

on the harbor on Wednesday after noon. The weather conditions were very favorable, and four boats were lined up near the Beach. These were the Maggie (S.O.E.), Bessie (L.O.A.) C.D.L.A. (C.D.L.A.), and the Edith (Firemen). As the gun-fired and the start was made the breaking of ar oar in the Edith, put that boat ou of the race. This was unfortunate as the Edith took the cup on two succes sive years. The other three boats went up the harbor at a good pace with very little difference. The Maggie and Bessie turned their buoys at the same time, and the C.D.L.A. a few seconds after. The race down the harbor was very exciting, as the contest was keen. The Maggie slowly forged ahead of the Bessie, and when the gun fired she was about a length ahead, and the C.D.L.A. a considerable distance behind. The Sons of England Society is therefore the winner of the cup this year. Mr. James Garland was coxwain of the Maggie. The Orange Society won last year, and the crew fought bravely to re-CORRESPONDENT. Hr. Grace, Sept. 15, '11.
