ENTHRONEMENT, INSTALLATION AND INDUCTION

of the Rt. Rev. William Charles White, D. D., Lord Bishop of Newfoundland,

In the Cathedral of St. John the Baptist.

The consecration of a Bishop carries with it jurisdiction, but that jurisdiction does not become active until the ceremonies of induction, installation and enthronement of the Bishop in his Cathedral have been accomplished, whereby the Bishop at the hands of the Cathedral Chapter, is inducted into the "real, actual and corporal possession of the Bishopric of Newfoundland, with all the rights, dignities, honours, privileges and appurtenances whatsoever," and (in this Diocese) is installed in the Dean's Stall, and is conducted to his Episcopal throne. The ceremony of enthronement is not, as is that of consecration, unique in the annals of the Diocese, and there must certainly be a good number who have witnessed one of two former enthronements that took place in the seventies of the last century, those of Bishops Kelly and Jones, but it is safe to say that for nearly all of the large congregation gathered, in spite of the inclement weather, at the Cathedral on Sunday morning, this was the first enthronement of a Bishop that they had seen. And the ceremony, though without the sacramental value of the conferring of Holy Orders, was in its way almost as striking and beautiful as the consecration function. To Canon Bolt, as senior member of the Chapter, the privilege belonged of performing the full charge of his diocese, but as the Bishop reminded his people, this was no mere ceremony, but an actual giving of authority by those properly constituted, and acting in the name of the Archbishop of Canterbury, our Metropolitan.

Before the chief service of the day, the Lord Bishop, vested in his Episcopal habit, and attended by the Rev. J. Brinton and Rev. E. H. Fletcher, as Chaplains, presented himself at the western entrance, where the members of the Chapter and other Clergy and Lay Clerks were waiting to receive him. His Lordship addressed the Rev. Canon Bolt, who acted as Installant, as follows:

"Reverend Sir: We present unto you these Letters of Consecration of the Lord Archbishop of Nova Scotia, acting under Commission from the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and we beseech you that you will induct, install and enthroned us Bishop of the Bishopric of Newfoundland, with all the rights, members and appurtenances thereunto belonging, and into the Deanery of this Cathedral Church."

The Installant receiving the letters, read them aloud to the congregation, adding the following:

"We receive these letters with great willingness, and will show our regard to them upon your taking the oath customary in this behalf."

The procession was then formed, and headed by the Cross, proceeded to the Sanctuary, singing Te Deum Laudamus. His Lordship knelt for a space in silent prayer before the Altar, in which all the congregation joined. The Collect, "Prevent us, O Lord," having been recited by the Installant, the Bishop standing upon the Altar steps and turning to the people made the following Declaration:

"In the Name of God. Amen. We, William Charles, by Divine permission, Bishop of Newfoundland, and Dean of this Cathedral Church, do promise that we will be faithful to this Church of Newfoundland, and that we will give our help and assistance in faithfully defending the rights, liberties and dignities of this Church." Then the Rev. Canons Bolt and Netten taking him by the hands, conducted him to his stall in the choir, and caused him to sit therein with these words:

"Mayest thou adorn this thy seat amid thy brethren, given thee of God, with justice and with sanctity. God is mighty, and may He increase thy grace."

Then the Bishop was conducted to the Episcopal Throne, and the Installant having caused him to sit therein, held him by the right hand and said:

The Lord keep thy coming in, and thy going out, from this time now and forever. Amen.

We, George Henry Bolt, Canon of St. David in this Cathedral Church, acting as proxy for the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, do install and enthroned you, Reverend Father, into the dignity and chair Episcopal of this Cathedral Church, and we induct you into the real, actual and corporal possession of the Bishopric of Newfoundland, and of all the rights, dignities, honours, privileges and appurtenances whatsoever, and we place you in this seat, in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Then the Bishop knelt down and recited the Lord's Prayer, all joining with him at the words, "And lead us not into temptation," to the end. Then the Installant said:

O Lord, save Thy servant, William Charles, our Bishop.

Choir: Who putteth his trust in Thee.

Be unto him a tower of strength. Choir: From the face of his enemy. Let the enemy have no advantage over him.

Choir: Nor the wicked approach to hurt him.

O Lord, hear our prayer. Choir: And let our cry come unto Thee.

The Lord be with you. Choir: And with thy spirit. Let us pray.

Grant, we beseech Thee, O Lord, unto Thy servant, William Charles, Bishop of this Diocese, that he preaching and practising those things that be rightful, may be a pattern of good works to build up the souls of all them that are committed to his charge; through Jesus Christ, etc., Amen.

After further prayers and ceremonies the Bishop, attended by the Canons, returned to the Altar, the choir singing Psalm 133—Ecco Quam Bonum—at the end of which, holding the Crozier in his left hand, he gave his Blessing to the people, all kneeling.

Immediately after the Bishop's Blessing, the solemn celebration of the Holy Mysteries began, the sacred Ministers being the Bishop (celebrant) and Canons Bolt and Smart. The music was the same as that on the Sunday before—Crucifixus's fine setting; the Creed, Benedictus and Agnes Dei being particularly well rendered, with Miss Stafford and Mr. J. W. Dowling as soloists in the last named.

After the service and singing of the National Anthem, all connected with the Chapter and with the Cathedral Church, proceeded to the Chapter House, where the Canons, Clergy, Sacristans, organist, choir, vergers and all officers, passing before the Bishop, seated in the uppermost seat of the Chapter House, did each in his turn promise true obedience to the Bishop, saying:

"Right Reverend Father in God: I promise to pay true and Canonical obedience to you as Bishop of Newfoundland."

And leaving the Chapter House, Psalm 122, "Lactatus Sum," was sung in procession, when the day's rite was over.

Thus, with sacrament and prayer, with music and ceremonial, with devotion and reverence was enacted a solemn event which marks another milestone in the history of the Holy Catholic Church in the Diocese of Newfoundland, an event which will live long in the memories of those who took part therein and which is fraught with issues which only the future can reveal. May God Bless our New Bishop, in the earnest prayer of all, in which the Telegram joins with sincerity.

The fire was in a house owned by Mr. Ayre on Bartlett's Hill, but the services of the firemen, who responded quickly to the call, were not required; very little damage was done.

GOOD SERVICE.—The storm of Saturday night tested the endurance of the street railway employees, but notwithstanding that the weather was the worst for many years, the whole force under the superintendence of the foreman, Mr. N. Andrews, were determined to keep the service in operation and worked with such success that for no time was there any hold up. On Sunday morning hundreds of church goers watched the new snow plow at work clearing the tracks where in some places snow had piled many feet high.

The Mother and Her Problems.

Miss Beatrice Bridgen, A.C.S.E., will address a meeting of mothers in the auditorium of George Street Church this evening at 8 o'clock, talking for her subject, "The Mother and Her Problems." Miss Bridgen is well fitted to deal with such an important subject. Besides thorough preparation in the study of physiology and sociology, she has taken special courses for her work. She is recognized in the Dominion of Canada as one of the outstanding workers in behalf of pure living and upright citizenship. She brings to her subject a broad culture, a deep, human sympathy, a seriousness of purpose, brightened by a delicious touch of humour. The leading Canadian papers speak eulogistically of her work. This is your opportunity to hear her. Don't miss it.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir:—On Friday last a large mail reached the city at 6.30 p.m. At 5.10 attention was drawn to an advertisement in the evening papers stating that gas would not be available. To assist the mail was impossible without lights. I wish, therefore, to thank Superintendent Morris of the Electric Light Department for his courtesy in coming so promptly to the rescue. Foreman Snow with his energetic staff accomplished a piece of work that for speed and efficiency it would be difficult to equal and impossible to excel. Instead of general distribution, the staff was thereby enabled to assort and deliver the mails without a minute's unnecessary delay. Mr. Morris's readiness to oblige, and the masterly manner in which the task was essayed and accomplished,—just seventy minutes between the telephone appeal and a brilliantly lighted office,—merits admiration as well as appreciation. Yours truly,

J. ALEX. ROBINSON,
Postmaster General.

CONCERNING THE RAILWAY.—The cross country road from Grand Lake east to Northern Light is now free of snow. Two snow plows and several gangs of men are working between the latter place and St. John's and will open up that section during the day. The two rotaries are working on the western end of the railway and in a few days the road to Port aux Basques will be clear. The Bay de Verde railway is, however, in a very bad state and at places the snow is piled as high as 20 feet.

SHOVEL THE ROAD.—We are asked to draw the attention of the Council to the condition of Pennwy Road. This thoroughfare is practically blocked with snow, especially the central section, where it is impossible to get horse or slide over it. In one place a bank reaches to a height of about nine feet, and is so formed that a vehicle can neither get over nor around it. In case of fire the firemen would only have to look on, as it would be impossible to get the apparatus on the scene.

MEN AND WOMEN TO EARN MORE MONEY

The most powerful single influence in greater production, and consequently in greater earning power, is the energy of the worker.

To work his or her best, the worker must be in possession of perfect health. So many who start the day's work with full vigor, tire as the day's work goes on and are forced to make frequent stops to relieve an aching back.

This backache is not due to the work, but to defective kidney action, and will disappear if treatment with GIN PILLS is resorted to.

We have a number of testimonials on file from men who have had to give up work on account of backache, rheumatism, and the various ills that follow poor kidney action. GIN PILLS enable these people to resume steady work again, with the vigor of youth and all the happiness of unfettered activity.

We will gladly send a free trial of GIN PILLS to all who feel the need of this
